EGGS FALL OFF WHEN RECEIPTS INCREASE; QUOTATIONS VARYING

Commission Men Report Brisk Trade in Nearly All Lines This Morning; Poultry Slightly Weaker, but the Receipts Show Decrease.

>  Egg market weaker. Good supply of poultry. Dressed meats scarce. Dressed hogs 10 cents top. Dressed veal 13 to 14 cents. Oranges arrive. Mixed fruits plentiful, Butter and cheese steady.

Trade was brisk on Front street this morning in all lines and indications merning in all lines and indications were for a good clean up by evening. The receipts of poultry were rather light during the day, which was fortunate because receipts on Friday were so heavy that it was feared for a while the market would go to pieces. The check in receipts today, however, had the desired effect and, as a result, values today are only a trifle lower than during the earlier part of the week. It may be well to ship cautiously for a few days, however, as there are a good few days, however, as there are a good many birds still on the street. The duck market cleaned up well for the week. Old hens were quoted at 12 cents today, young birds bringing anywhere from 17 to 20 cents.

EGG MARKET WEAKER

Eggs fell off a cent or two this mornlegs fell off a cent of two this morning and as a general rule 24 cents was quoted, although some dealers still insist they are getting 26 cents for first class candled stock. There are said to be a good many eastern eggs in the market and may this be as it may the fact remains that there is no scarcity of aggs.

BUTTER AND CHEESE STEADY

The butter and cheese markets main steady with no changes reported during the week. The supplies seem to be sufficient for all demands.

FRUITS PLENTIFUL

Front street is well suplied with fruits of all kinds and there is no shortage of berries. Tragedy prunes were quoted at $1,50 this morning. Peaches, apricots and new apples are plentiful, too. A lot of oranges arrived this morning. Quotations are the same as for the week. There were more cherries in the market today than for some time.

The lack of a satisfactory investment inquiry has been felt for some months and finally has been reflected by scattered liquidation, particularly of those old issues whose investment yield has not been in keeping with the higher return provided by some of the newer flotations.

This condition abroad has been rather marked in the instance of consols and rentes, whose low yield has resulted in considerable liquidation. The interior demand on reserve centers for funds has during the past few weeks been rather Senator Bourne Outlines Provisions of Bill That Is Up to Senate.

(Special to The Journal.)
Aurora, Or., July 13.—State President Kraxberger of the Oregon Rural Carriers' association has just received the following letter from Senator Bourne. which indicates that the rural carrier is about to come in for a substantial increase in salary:

"Replying to your letter of June 25, will say that the house bill provided for an increase in the compensation of rural carriers of $1074 per year. The senate committee has not yet acted on this provision, but the discussion indi-cates that the members are not unfavorable to the plan of increasing the compensation $44.75 per mile per annum for each mile in excess of 24 miles, with a corresponding decrease of a corresponding amount for each mile under 24 miles. The committee has tentatively adopted a proviso fixing the compensation at $1100 per year and leaving the apportionment on the different routes to be fixed in accordance with the same plan which now prevails. It is impossible for me to indicate what action will finally be taken, except that there seems to be an almost unanimous sentiment in favor of an increase of 10 per cent in the salarles. I apprehend that if the bill should be passed as now contemplated by members of the commit-tee, the department would increase all 50 salaries 10 per cent over what is now

58 paid. What do you think of this?" Kraxbrger has been a tireless worker in behalf of the carriers since his election to the head of the organization, and
