Cathrine Countiss' First Appearance Here in 7 Years Gets Genuine Welcome-Opens in "The Thief."

It was a splendid welcome that greeted Cathrine Countles at the Hellig theatre last night, upon her first appearance in Portland in seven years. Repeated curtain calls to which Miss Countiss was moved to respond, attested her popularity. The welcome was not altogether a welcome for old time's sake and for past memories, but was as well to have the city police department cut a tribute to Miss Countiss' added artistry, and the fuller development of her talents as a result of her years of work in the east since her departure from Portland.

Sydney Ayers, her leading support, and himself an old local favorite, was also given a most hearty reception last night. He, too, has more mature and more polished work to offer because of his work and study in the passing years.

It is doubtful if Miss Countiss could have selected a more satisfactory play for the opening of her return engagement than Bernstein's "The Thief." Miss Counties in the role of Marie Louise Voysin, the wife who would hold pear beautiful in his eyes, has every opportunity to display consummate acting. The characterization requires a subtle intrepretation, and be it said to gets from the role all that could be asked for.

husband, is called upon to express the joints, dance halls and amusement deepest of human emotions in contradistinction, and he rises splendidly to the vast area to grasp a victim here and requirements of a difficult part.

Other support is satisfactory and makes possible the complete production of "The Thief." In the cast with Miss ROBBER "SLEEPS" IN Countess and Mr. Ayers are Henry Hall, who is somewhat known to Portland The production is splendidly staged and costumed, Miss Countiss' gowns
