EDITED BY AVIS LOBDELL

Mrs. Robert Smith, who left for Australia today.

THE deserted village might have been the verdict of the social saunterer last week, for town was hot—very hot—and the minions of society were leaving by every spin for breeze-swept beaches, for mountain, lake and forest retreats touched but lightly by a too ambitious sun. Yet had the stroller gone far enough—even so far as the river—the whereabouts of a goodly number of these still town might have rewarded the search. A plunge in the water at Windmuth, with luncheon or supper at Waverly Golf club was a favorite pastime with the Multnomah club and Y. W. C. A. tanks a welcome haven for the more timid swimmers. But there was yet other activity. Under the broiling sun a host of racket devotees wrestled for championship honors in the annual tennis tournament on the Multnomah courts, cheered in victory and consoled in defeat by a gallery ever filled with enthusiasts. Popular is a conservative word for the refreshment booth graciously presided over during the week by Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Kirk Smith (Miss Lisa Wood), Mrs. W. A. Goss, Mrs. James P. Ewing, Mrs. Allen M. Ellsworth and Mrs. Walter A. Holt.

This afternoon Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Sherman Hall, Mrs. Gordon Voorhies and Miss Mary Failing will serve tea in the marquee put up on the new Waverly country club polo grounds at 100-110 beyond the present club house. The Sunday afternoon polo games have been a source of enjoyment for some time to those who have gone out on the car or in motors, and the establishment of the marquee with charming women to preside over the tea will add further attractiveness to the popular form of relaxation.

About 40 former day students of Mrs. Harry Sladen, of New York, called on Friday in response to an invitation for tea given by her mother, Mrs. Thomas N. Strong. Pink and white seat pads were arranged on the tables at one of which sat Mrs. G. W. Howe and Mrs. Marion F. Dolph. Mrs. W. A. Goss, Mrs. Miss Alice Strong presided at the other. Assisting were Mrs. M. J. Corbett, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mrs. Kirk Smith, Mrs. W. A. Goss, Mrs. James P. Ewing, Mrs. Allen M. Ellsworth and Mrs. Walter A. Holt.

Miss Edith Olds, who was joint hostess with Miss Elizabeth Jacobs for a dance at Waverly last week.

In for tea with Mrs. W. O. Van Schuyler and Mrs. John Marshall presided at the table when Miss Edith Barnhardt served lunch. Table decorations were carried out with sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Allen Lewis asked Miss Edith Olds to entertain on Friday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Woodworth, of St. Paul.

A jolly informal affair of Wednesday evening was the house dance with Miss Edith Olds as hostess. Those who accepted the invitations were Mr. and Mrs. David E. Hoveyman, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander A. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Litt, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, Miss Angela Kinney, Miss Margery Hoffman, Miss Madeline Hart, Miss Ethelwynne Glass, Miss Louise Burns, Miss Cordelia Cook, Miss Katharine Hart, Frank Stewart, Kurt Koehler, Helen Hays, Leila Webster, Lester Hennessey, Miss Harold Wells, Fritz Behrens, Blake Robins and John Banks.

Mrs. Chester Murphy (Miss Angela Kinney), Mrs. Alexander A. McDonald, after her second lecture given Friday in the ballroom of the Multnomah. Sweet peas of many colors made graceful table decorations. Mrs. Piper's guests were Miss Bauer, Mrs. Warren E. Johnston, Mrs. Cabell, Mrs. Rosa Bloch Bauer, Mrs. Kathleen Lawler Belcher, Mrs. Rose Courten Reed, Mrs. John Claire Monteth, Miss Leone Case Baer, Miss Marion Jackson, Miss Lucia Hartman and Miss Lillian Hings.

Miss Isabella MacLay was hostess Wednesday at a matinee party at the Orpheum. Her guests were Miss Margaret Hagadorn, Miss Miriam Hagadorn, Miss Helen Hall, Miss Virginia MacDonough, Miss Clara Hirschberger, Miss Elizabeth Jones and Miss Alice MacMaster.

Mrs. Katherine Daly entertained with an informal theatre party at the Heilig on Wednesday evening for Mrs. J. M. Elliott, who has been Mrs. Daly's guest for a few days.

Mrs. Sherman Hall was hostess at an informal afternoon of bridge on Tuesday.

Mrs. Zera Snow and Mrs. Howe, of Carlton, are chaperoning Miss Evelyn Carey, Miss Margaret Hewett, Miss Barbara Mackenzie, Miss Claire Wilcox, Spencer Biddele, Bevelay Samuel, Howe, and Billy Wheeler at Meadow lake for the week end. The party made the trip by motor.

Among those who will entertain this week are Mrs. Jay J. Morrow, who will have bridge on Tuesday, and Mrs. George K. Wentworth Jr. and Mrs. A. M. Minott, who will entertain in a similar manner on Wednesday.

One of the prettiest events incident to the annual state tennis tournament last week was the luncheon which the Portland women players gave Friday in the Meier & Frank tea room for the visiting players. A miniature tennis court with net of sweetpeas centered the table decorated with the Multnomah red and white in sweetpeas. Racket place cards in cases bearing the Multnomah winged M indicated covers for Miss Blanche Byron, of Boise, Idaho; Miss Dorothy Bean, of Spokane; Miss Chamberlain, of St. Louis; Miss Elizabeth Valieu, of Alameda; Mrs. H. E. Judge, Mrs. W. I. Northrup, Miss Winifred Bent, Miss Harriet Thayer, Miss Stella Fordling, Miss Irene Campbell, Miss Miriam Sinclair, Miss Lilly Fox, Miss Marian Roper, Miss Lucille Parker, Miss Amy Johnston and Miss Mable Goss.

The informal flannel dance at the Multnomah club house last evening brought a week of keen sport on the courts to a pleasant close. Mrs. Allen M. Ellsworth, Mrs. Walter A. Holt, Mrs. James F. Ewing, Mrs. Alma D. Katz, Mrs. Kirk Smith (Miss Lisa Wood), and Mrs. W. A. Goss acted as patronesses for the dance which was enjoyed in the lobby, lounging and Pompeian rooms. The card and reading rooms were turned into lounging rooms and the billiard room was opened for those who desired to play. Ice and punch were served on the back veranda illuminated with electric lights in Japanese lanterns. Palms and blossoms were strikingly arranged in the decorations.

Mrs. Alexander McPherson was hostess at a bridge of seven tables on Tuesday in honor of her guests, Mrs. Thomas B. Long and Mrs. John Evans of Kallispell, Mont. In addition to the guest favors, score prizes were won by Mrs. W. R. Mesereau and Mrs. Webber, Mrs. Walter H. Raymond, Mrs. Charles F. Bunker and Miss Alma Haynes assisted the hostess who chose for her decorations lilacs, Shasta daisies and ferns.

Mrs. Julius Lippitt entertained with five tables of bridge on Friday when her prize winners were Mrs. S. Lipman, Mrs. Leon Hirsch, Mrs. Samuel Hirsch, Mrs. Jonah B. Wise and Mrs. Ben Neustadter. Some additional guests came in for tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Ryder (Miss Carmel French Baylton) are receiving congratulations over the birth of a daughter July 15. She will be named Non-carle French Ryder.

Three motors conveyed guests to Metzger Park yesterday to enjoy a bridge luncheon given for Mrs. Isaac Wise of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Joseph Rothschild of San Francisco.

Mrs. Minerva A. Denison, mother of sister Mrs. S. Thompson, in Seattle, and enjoying the Potlatch.

On Monday last Mrs. T. F. Drake gave a very unique party at her Irvington home in honor of her niece, Miss Helen Skogen of Spokane. The party was in the form of a barn dance, but was given in the basement, which was beautifully decorated with pennants, lanterns, ferns and flowers. Tables were provided for those who preferred to play cards. Supper was served buffet style in the dining room, which was also elaborately decorated with daisies and ferns. The guests were Miss Helen Koren, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hacker, Miss Louise Hucker, Mr. and Mrs. John Twohy, Miss May Nablan, Miss Florence Curren, Miss Pauline White, Louis Lemmery, John Twohy Jr., Paul Twohy, Mrs. F. Clinton Hardy, J. H. Dudley, Lyman F. Scott and Earl Eads of Oberlin, Ohio. The guests represented various characters and were dressed accordingly. Many of the make-ups were very unique. Miss Koren, who is the daughter of J. B. Koren, division engineer of the Northern Pacific railway, left Wednesday evening for several weeks' visit with relatives in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Charles Goss, of Omaha, who has been the guest of Mrs. R. F. Weyer and Mrs. Charles E. Boss for six weeks, was complimented with an evening of bridge on Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Eastman as host and hostess. Mrs. Boss and Arthur Brasfield were the prize winners.

GARRISON NEWS

The cavalry is under command of Major Hughes and as all had horses a very quick trip was made from Boise barracks here. A number of the enlisted men of this squadron were Portland lads and were given the opportunity while here to visit the city and see friends and relatives and to witness the great Elks' parade.

Chaplain W. K. Lloyd of the Second Field Artillery remained over on Sunday afternoon and went by train to Galama where he joined his regiment camped a few miles from that place.

Much interest is being taken in the polo tournament to be held here early in August. Four elite teams will take part. The Boise city team, Boise varsity team, Waverly country club team and the Artillery team. They will play here and it is expected that many Portland people will attend. Lieutenant Scranton of the "Oregon" spent last Tuesday evening with Lieutenant McCleave.

General Marion P. Maus and Colonel George F. Young, were guests of honor at a dinner and reception given by the officers of the battleship Oregon at the Arlington club on Wednesday of last week. Several officers of the Oregon paid their respects to General Maus and Colonel Young during the week.

Captain and Mrs. Allen Parker will leave in August for the east and remain visiting relatives for two months.

General Marion P. Maus and his staff, Major Fleming and aide, Lieutenant Whitley, left on Wednesday morning for Centralia to be present at the maneuvers. Lieutenant Edward McCleave will remain at department headquarters.

Mrs. Marion P. Maus, entertained at luncheon on Saturday at her attractive home for Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooke and her mother, Mrs. Carter Pitkin Pomeroy of San Francisco. Captain Sweeney of the Twenty-first infantry spent a few days in the post on his way to Centralia.

Captain John Stephens arrived in the post Sunday evening and remained until Thursday when he left for the maneuver camp. Captain Stephens is now on detail at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, but will join his regiment, the Second Field artillery at this post in one more year.

Mrs. Walter Kenyon Lloyd will entertain with a luncheon next week in honor of Mrs. William F. Morrison.

Word received in the post from the officers say the trip to Centralia was hot and dusty, making marching most unpleasant.

General and Mrs. Maus entertained with an informal dinner Wednesday night for Captain Bennett, Captain Sweeney, Captain John Stephens and Captain and Mrs. Morrison.

The one word "America" came nearly being the cause of the maneuvers being held up. The whole extensive program for the joint encampment and maneuvers of the regular army and the national guard came nearly being suspended through the omission of the one word in the enrollment of the act of congress providing for the exercises. In the haste of the legislators the law took the usual initial declaration "By the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States" the word America did not follow and the act was thus invalid. They, however, discovered the mistake and corrected it.
