TO clear title to innocent purchasers, the house public lands committee has reported favorably a bill to authorize the attorney general to settle with the purchasers of more than 800,000 acres of railroad grant land in Oregon at the rate of $2.50 an acre. The Southern Pacific still holds 2,300,000 acres unsold and the government has instituted suit to recover it.

W. A. Massey, appointed by the governor of Nevada to succeed the late Senator Nixon, has taken the oath of office. Senator Bourne's amendments to the rivers and harbors bill appropriating $700,000 for Calho falls, $50,000 for Oregon slough, $100,000 for Nehalem bay, and $25,000 for preliminary plans to secure a 30 foot channel from Portland to the sea, were agreed to by the conference committee and the bill, carrying $23,000,000, passed Thursday.

The Stanley steel trust investigating committee has agreed to recommend the dissolution of the United States Steel corporation in their report and endorse the government suit against it. Consideration of the resolution for the purchase of Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, was blocked in the senate by Heyburn of Idaho, who declared Jefferson was a moss-covered statesman, was not the author of the Declaration of Independence and should not be deified.

In a resolution introduced by Senator Bailey Tuesday, President Taft was indirectly rebuked for his course in connection with the Lorimer affair. Six Republicans joined the Democrats in denouncing any attempt on the part of a president to exercise the power of his office to influence a vote on a question within the senate's exclusive jurisdiction.

Before the senate committee investigating campaign contributions, August Belmont testified that he personally contributed $250,000 to Alton B. Parker's campaign of 1904, and that the total amount contributed had been less than $1,000,000. Postmaster General Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican national committee in 1908, testified that $1,655,518 was contributed to President Taft's campaign.

REPORTS from the harvest fields indicate the largest wheat crop on record and the price is rapidly slumping. Minnesota and the Dakotas will exceed 260,000,000 bushels, the Kansas crop will yield 5,000,000 bushels more than ever before, while indications point to an enormous yield on the Pacific coast. The price of corn and oats has also taken a big drop.

The Sunset railroad, which operates out of Bakersfield through the oil fields to Shale, Cal., is without a parallel among railroads for its earning capacity. While capitalized at $500,000, it paid $300,000 dividends in 1910 and followed it up with another dividend of $500,000 in 1911. What might have been the profits in 1912 can only be surmised, for on Tuesday the railroad commission ordered a cut in rates of from 10 to 50 per cent.

The Pacific Gas & Electric company of San Francisco is to expend $5,000,000 in the execution of plans for the extension of its power capacity. The plans include the construction of three additional plants in the Bear river in Placer county, which with the nine now in operation, will give the company a hydroelectric power service of 290,000 horsepower.

A reduction of 15 per cent in express rates to apply to the entire United States is ordered by the interstate commerce commission in a report just made public. The report reveals that the capital stock of the 13 express companies is $53,523,300; that they have amassed property, in addition to dividend payments, valued at $159,999,990; that $1,000,000 would suffice to equip the companies and enable them to carry on their business; yet for the fiscal year of 1911 they collected from the American people $149,311,485 in express charges.

Trade figures for the fiscal year 1912, just issued by the department of commerce and labor, show that the imports were $1,653,426,174 and the exports $2,204,222,088 in value. FRECKLES
Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the New Drug.
An eminent skin specialist recently discovered a new drug, othine—double strength, which is so uniformly successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by Woodard, Clarke & Co., under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.
Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the most stubborn use will show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely. It is absolutely harmless and cannot injure the most tender skin.
Be sure to ask Woodard, Clarke & Co. for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money back guarantee.
