

LATE STOCKS MARKET BONDS NEWS GRAIN CATTLE PRODUCE WORK

WHEAT MARKET OUTLOOK IS BETTER THAN BUYERS GENERALLY ADMIT; LESS INFLUENCE FROM OTHER SIDE SHOWN.

By Hyman H. Cohen. The bearishness that is felt by some grain interests seems to be more of the desire than any real reason for such a movement of prices.

ENGLISH MARKET VERY POWERFUL IN BUYERS' SIDE AND OTHER FRUITS

United States Consul at Liverpool Gives Special Report on Fruit Market; Values Are Steadily Increasing.

(Washington Bureau of the Journal.) Washington, July 20.—Notwithstanding the import tax on fruits, the English market absorbed foreign fruits in 1912 to the extent of the old crop.

THE FARMER'S HOP DREAM

Grain Shows Quality and Quantity Pacific Northwest Crop Is Record

Table titled 'NORTHWEST GRAIN CROPS' showing bushels for Wheat, Barley, Oats, and Rye in 1911 and 1912 for Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

By Hyman H. Cohen. Nature has been especially kind to Oregon grain growers during the season coming to a close. The larger per cent of the acreage planted in the state is on soil that receives very little moisture as a rule and therefore the average crops are not in keeping with those of the best known districts of the Pacific northwest.

Reports of the Crops. The following special reports of the various crops were received during the past week. OREGON. Harrisburg, Or.—Hay balers are getting in the action. Willis Meeks has been out with his machine since Monday.

Grants Pass, Or.—The hay alfalfa and the apple crops are the most satisfactory in Josephine county. It may be that it will be necessary to import a small amount of hay for next winter.

Wheat Market Outlook Is Better Than Buyers Generally Admit; Less Influence From Other Side Shown. Those that have given the matter careful consideration and are free from bias are generally of the opinion that prices will decrease in the near future.

Wheat Market Outlook Is Better Than Buyers Generally Admit; Less Influence From Other Side Shown. The Pacific northwest, too, is growing a very rapid pace and the demand from the home territory is of no small proportion.

United States Consul at Liverpool Gives Special Report on Fruit Market; Values Are Steadily Increasing. It should be mentioned that the United Kingdom has not only dried fruits, the tariff provision being as follows:

General Condition Best. Taking the Pacific northwest as a whole the wheat crop of 1912 was a big surprise, both as regards the total production and the average per acre.

Woodburn, Or.—Hay cutting is at its height here and if another rain should occur it would be the means of cutting this year's crop off hay short.
