HOLD ON TRESTLE BREAKS AS TRAIN PASSES; DEATH

(Special to The Journal.) Oregon City, Aug. 1.—Joe Geo, the Chinaman employed by A. C. Muecke at Wilsonville, who met his death on the trestle near Wilsonville, was walking on the trestle when he heard a train coming and suddenly lowered himself and held on to one of the ties. The train was about over when he lost his hold and dropped 65 feet. His leg was broken and his skull crushed. Chinamen who saw the accident would not touch Geo and left his body under the trestle until morning, when the co-

was notified and brought the body to this city. Geo had been in this country for many years.

Mexicans Seize Rifles. (United Press Special Wire.) Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, Aug. 1.—The discovery of a number of rifles and 10,000 rounds of ammunition concealed in a sleeper of a train crossing the border here today led to the arrest of an American conductor and porter by the Mexican custom officers, on the charge of smuggling. The rurales took charge of the men and the train proceeded to Mexico City.
