

STREET SPEAKERS TO BE SENTENCED MONDAY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Diego, Cal., Aug. 2.—Sentence will be pronounced Monday by Judge Slosson of the six defendants found guilty last night of conspiracy to violate the city ordinance prohibiting street speaking in certain districts of the city.
The six found guilty are Attorney E. E. Kirk, formerly counsel for the L. W. W.; Harry McKee, Jack White, H. Kiser, F. W. Hubbard and Robert Gauden.
Eight other defendants who were arrested for street speaking but who did not attend a meeting at Kirk's office where the conspiracy plans are alleged to have been made, were found "not guilty."
The attorneys for the defense have announced they will move for a new trial, and if this is refused will appeal the case.

Uruguay has postponed until next June the enforcement of its new law requiring passenger vessels calling at its ports to be equipped with wireless telegraphy.

OLCOTT, HOLDER OF 2 POSTS, IS QUORUM AT THIS BOARD MEETING

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Aug. 2.—A meeting of the state board was held today.
"I move that we approve the asylum payrolls," said Secretary of State Ben Olcott.
"I second the motion," said Acting Governor Ben Olcott.
The motion was put by the acting governor and carried by the unanimous vote of the acting governor and secretary of state.
This unanimity of action was also taken in regard to the payrolls of all the other state institutions.
This is the first time during the present administration that Secretary of State Olcott has transacted state board business alone as a majority of the board.
As Governor West is out of the state Olcott is performing the duties of acting governor as well as secretary of state, and thus has two votes in the state board. State Treasurer Kay, the other member of the board, is also out of the city.

DAYLIGHT HIGHWAYMEN HOLD UP OREGON HOME

(Special to The Journal.)
Orengo, Or., Aug. 2.—Two burly looking highwaymen entered the residence of J. W. Wickhizer yesterday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock, overpowered Mrs. Wickhizer and got away with $20.30, of which $18.30 belonged to a boarder named McBride, who works in the nursery here. The Wickhizers live in the old Nelson homestead, about a mile northeast of town. The men came to the place, asking for a drink of water. Mrs. Wickhizer gave the men a dipper, directing them to the well.
In a few minutes she was surprised by the return of the men to the house, a demand being made for money about the place. Mrs. Wickhizer's daughter had gone to town to settle a grocery bill of about $27, leaving only $2 in the house. This amount the men also secured, then left in a top buggy. The alarm was spread and Sheriff Hancock at Hillsboro was notified and was soon on the scene, but the highwaymen had made their escape.

Mr. Wickhizer is employed with the Oregon Nursery company. Mrs. Wickhizer and her baby were alone in the house at the time.

ONE AUTO STRIKES WHEEL OF ANOTHER; TWO HURT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 2.—Herman B. Keith, engineer in charge of the city work at the Nisqually power plant; his daughter, Mrs. H. Blake; Mrs. Edna Hevel and H. F. Humphrey of Portland, narrowly escaped death on the Mount Tacoma road last night when the automobile driven by Lynn Miller of Tacoma struck the rear wheel of the Keith machine in attempting to pass and overturned it, pinning Keith and Humphrey to the ground. The women were thrown out on soft grass and escaped injury. Keith was taken to the St. Joseph hospital with a fractured rib and wrenched shoulder. Humphrey was badly bruised.

The People's Market Wants Your Confidence

HONEST WEIGHT—FULL MEASURE

The absolute confidence of the people can be held only by good, sound, honest, business methods. The people are the sole judges and by their discrimination in buying they fix the standards of various business houses with whom they deal; therefore, to become the largest means to become the best.

THE PEOPLE'S MARKET is the largest cash grocery in Portland by virtue of their square dealing and endeavor to serve the public well. THE PEOPLE'S MARKET never misrepresents and never sacrifices quality to make a price. When we advertise any article at an unusually low price you can rest assured that is just as represented.
