Washington, Aug. 3 .- No matter who you are," whether senator, congressman, bricklayer, business man or just an ordinary reporter, every time that you call on Secretary of the Treasury Mac-Veagh your name goes down in a little book and is made a part of a permanent record. If the secretary wants to know who called on him a year ago he can look in this little book and find out. If there is any dispute about it the book will tell.

The idea is a pet one of Francis Taylor, private secretary to the secretary. Every time a man goes to see the secretary, Mr. Taylor gets his name and if he is an out of town man his business. It requires a good deal of hustling on Mr. Taylor's part but he gets away with the job very handily. Sometimes a group of six or seven persons or maybe 20 arrive to see the secretary at once. This doesn't worry Taylor. He gets them all just the same.

The idea served the secretary very usefully recently in a controversy which he had with one of the assistant secretaries who resigned. The assistant claimed that since his service in the treasury, or a large part of the time. he had been unable to get an interview with the secretary. The record showed that during a certain period in dispute the assistant secretary had 21 audiences with his chief.

Harry Hanion is always entertaining, while the quartet of juveniles, Messrs. O'Connor, Weldon, Crawford and Serrele, are ing comedians as any sudience could wish for. Remarkably effective work is done by Mr. Askin's capable chorus. Their team work might be held up as an example to several baseball clubs around the neighborhood. The enlarged orchestra under the direction of Leo Merriman, the house leader, from the La Saile, especially sent on the present tour, adds to the all-round excellence of the performance. Seats go on sale next Tuesday.

Fitch Comedy Coming.

Cathrine Countiss begins her fifth August 11, in the vivacious and vastly amusing comedy, "The Girl with the Green Eyes." The girl in the case is fault—an unreasonable jealousy—which makes her see green under the most absurd and impossible conditions. ## "SAVE ME! SAVE ME!" CRIES PARROT IN FIRE

Milwaukee, Aug. 3 .- There is one parrot in this city which owes its life to the fact that it is the possessor of an extended vocabulary. In a fire in the basement of the Platz Tobacco company the entire three story building was filled with smoke. When firemen arrived they heard anguished screams of "Save me! Save me!"-from the vicinity of the second floor. "Women up there!" said one, and ladder was hurriedly shot up. Two firemen risked their lives in search of the owner of the voice. When the smoke cleared away a fireman could be seen carrying a gilded cage that held a large green parrot.
