The victim of the two strong arm men was Frank Pargas, and the two men arrested were Robert Davis, who was holding the man by the throat, and George Mullen, who was searching his pockets. Both men were this morning sentenced to 90 days on the rockpile. Tony Matson, who was arrested at an early hour this morning after knocking down a man giving the name of Tom Blake, at Fourth and Davis streets, and who was fleeing the place when Captain Keller grabbed him, was this morning sentenced to 90 days on the rockpile on an assault and battery The police were attracted by cries for help following the attack on

District Attorney Blamed-Frank and Elsie Wilson were arrested three months ago and placed in the county jail, where they remained until yesterday, when Judge McGinn ordered their release. 20 Boys on Hiking Trip-Twenty boys, members of Troop 2, Boy Scouts, left this morning for Timber on the train and will tramp from Timber to Tilla-mook, where they will camp for some time on Garibaldi beach. Leaving that point later they will tramp to Seaside on their return and will take the train there for Portland. They will be away from the city for two weeks and while away will be under the care of C. F. Warrens and F. M. Groshong. The hike to Tillamook will be approximately 50 miles and on this trip they will carry all of their supplies.

Loses Maniac-Patrolman Scott, in a report to Captain Riley made last night, declares that he encountered an insane man at Milwaukie and Powell streets yesterday afternoon, but after a hard struggle, in which he was compelled to knock the men down several times, the maniae broke away from him. He appealed to several bystanders for help but none would assist. Instead, they
