SANDLOT BATFEST PUTS BEAVERS TO FRONT IN OPENER

Rodgers Grabs Three Doubles Off Williams and Deacons Clout Koestner for 10 Bingles While Pair Work.

An old sand lot game was in order here yesterday afternoon and the Beavers won because they were lucky enough to make five runs in an inning, one of the very few times that such a feat has been recorded this season. Had Albert Klawitter and John Fitzgerald started the game instead of "Kanaka" Williams and "Sphynx" Koestner there might have been a different story to tell, for neither of these hurlers was nicked for a run. On the other hand, it was the shame the way the batters crawled all over one another to get a whack at the offerings of Koestner and Williams. Koestner pulled down one of the softest games in his career. He only worked three innings, but the Deacons found him for 10 bingles and five runs, and it was by the greatest of good luck that Klawitter checked the statesmen in the fourth after Elmer was wigwagged to the bench.

The game was characterized in the hitting line by the heavy cannonading of Bill Rodgers, who got two clean doubles to left and one to center in the first three of his five trips to the plate. Next to Rodgers, Cheek was the hardest hitter, with two singles and a double in four times up. Some spectacular fielding by Chadbourne, Lewis, Shinn and Krueger enlivened an otherwise dull game. One thing about the 27 hits was this, with one or two exceptions they were of the immaculate order.

Shinn Starts Onslaught.

Shinn began to show Koestner up in the first inning. He started out with a slam to right and was out stealing. Madden popped to Bancroft, but J. Patsy O'Rourke drove the ball to right center for two bases, a habit of J. P. O'R. on these grounds. He cantered across when Billy Orr, the Salt Lake kid, clouted to right. Orr skated down to second on the throw to the plate, but Howley camped under Lewis' foul and the inning was over.

The Beavers came back with an evening up run. With two out Rodgers got his first double and scored on Krueger's single between short and third, and then the Dutchman went to third on the hit and run with Butcher, but Hank was out stealing.

A single by Irelan in the second, followed by singles by Cheek and Williams, put the Senators in the lead again, but in the third inning the Beavers made awful inroads on the run column.

Walk and Bunt Start It.

Bancroft started with a walk and Rodgers doubled, scoring him. Krueger bunted and everybody was safe when Williams couldn't get the ball to Irelan in time to nab Rodgers. Orr made a nice catch of Butcher's fly, but Rodgers skidded in on Doane's grounder between first and second. Howley singled to right and scored Krueger, Doane reaching third and Howley second. The Senators were playing in, when Kibble gently floated one over short and two counted. Kibble took third on Koestner's single to right, and Elmer pilfered. Kib was out at the plate on Chadbourne's grounder to Orr and Koestner was out at the same station on an attempted double steal.

Miller started the fourth with a double down the third base line. Irelan walked and Cheek cleaned the bases with a double to center. He had stopped at second when Bancroft relayed Chadbourne's return badly to Howley, and then started for third, scoring by permission of the umpires when the ball rolled into the Sacramento players' bench, on the rule that a base runner is entitled to the base he is going to and one more on a wild throw that reaches a bench. Williams singled to center and that was the end of Koestner. Klawitter relieved and quickly stopped the rungetting.

Cap'n Bill Rings Again.

Rodgers' third double and Butcher's double to center gave Portland the last run in the fourth. Fitzgerald went in in the fifth and held the Beavers runless for the rest of the game. Score:

CANOES TO PADDLE DOWN FROM SALEM

Portland Rowing Club Will Make First Cruise of Season September 1.

The first canoe trip of the Portland Rowing club this season will be held September 1 and 2. Nearly all members of the club who own canoes have signed up for the trip which will be from Salem to Portland.

The canoes will be shipped to Salem Saturday and the party will camp on the river bank north of Salem and early Sunday morning the start will be made for Portland.

On Sunday night camp will be established again and on Monday, Labor Day, the trip will be resumed. The party expects to land at the Rowing club house early Monday evening.

It is expected that between 25 and 35 canoes will be shipped to Salem, which means that nearly 75 people will make the trip.

Notices have been posted in the club house and all members are very enthusiastic about the trip.

COLTS TOSS DOTY'S CLEVER WING AWAY

Big Spitballist Beaten by Bees After Pitching Four Hit Game.

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 21.—Doty deserved better support from his teammates yesterday and if it had been forthcoming Victoria might not have made three runs. The Colts were blanked because they could not find "Slim" Smith in the pinches.

Doty was nicked in the first when two boots by Speas along with McDowell's overthrow of first let in a brace of runs. Speas, an outfielder, was playing at shortstop so that his errors can in a measure be excused.

Rawlings had reached third in the eighth inning with two down and Doty put on steam, fanning Jerry Meek. Burch, however, dropped the ball and Rawlings scored the third run.

Portland did not get two men on bases except in one inning and then Rawlings and Keller pulled off some spectacular fielding.

Victoria was lucky to get four hits off Doty the way the big fellow was going yesterday. The Colts made five hits off Smith.

SURPRISES FRIENDS BY QUIET MARRIAGE

Frank J. Lonergan.

Frank J. Lonergan, one of the greatest football players the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club ever had, surprised his friends by his quiet marriage Monday morning to Miss Pearl James. The wedding took place at 9 o'clock at the Cathedral, Father McDevitt performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Patterson were the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Lonergan are spending their honeymoon at the coast.

Frank Lonergan, who is a Portland boy, was graduated from Notre Dame university in 1903 and was one of the athletic heroes of the college. He returned to Portland in the summer of that year and in the fall was known as the greatest halfback that ever donned the club's football togs. He gave up football about three years ago on account of his law practice. He is one of the successful young attorneys of the city and an enthusiastic clubman.

Bayley Beats Scott.

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 21.—Joe Bayley, Canadian lightweight champion, last night knocked out Pat Scott of Seattle in the sixth round of a 15 round boxing bout before 2500 fight fans at the Arena rink. It was a fast contest throughout, Bayley leading in every round. Scott had a look-in in only the second, when he missed a vicious swing which had the right label on it. Ernie Barrieau, champion amateur, and the Dobie Kid challenged the winner.

The Vermont election on September 3 will give the politicians their first opportunity to guage the strength of the third party movement.

KIDS WILL RULE AT TRACK ON MONDAY

All Children Will Be Invited to Attend Races at Country Club.

All children eligible to the public schools are cordially invited to attend the opening day races of the Country club fall meet, next Monday. Provision will be made to accommodate from 5000 to 6000 of the youngsters in the bleachers, to which portion of the grounds they will be admitted free of charge. There they will be given opportunity to see the opening events of what promises to be the greatest race meet Portland or the state has ever known.

In addition to seeing the kings and queens of the western turf in action, the children will have the best opportunity of their lives so far to see an aeroplane giving demonstrations of its power to navigate the air. Aviator Walter Edwards is booked to go up in an aeroplane every afternoon of the entire week, and on Monday he will open his work with a splendid demonstration of the ease with which the new craft may be made to sail through the air. There are thousands of the children of Portland who have never seen an aeroplane in action, and these are expected to accept en masse the generous invitation of the fair management to attend the races Monday, as the guest of the association.

Opening Races to Be Good.

Everything the fair management can do to accommodate and please the children will be on the card Monday. This the opening day, is expected to bring out a tremendous crowd of adults also While the children will be entertained with the utmost care, it will not be a children's day only, for the harness contests for Monday are among the best for the entire week. Monday is to be a fair sample of the sport that is to be seen every day this week. There will be no dull days, no weak contests. Instead of giving a $10,000 trot purse and a $5000 pace purse this year, as was the rule for the two preceding seasons, the management is distributing the money over the entire week, giving $2500, $1000 or $800 purses every day. When this policy was suggested, it was feared by some that it might not draw the great horses of the west, but on the contrary it is found that the entries are the best in the history of the racing game here. Every plan and every development promises the banner race meet for Oregon, bringing the reputation of this circuit up so close to the grand circuit events of the east as to merit inclusion in that class.

Two Races for Riversiders.

The Riverside Driving club will stage two races during the week, a class A trot Monday and a class A pace Saturday. Cups will be offered for the events. A polo pony and hunters' race will be staged by the Portland Hunt club. The matinee harness entries follow:

Class A trot—Jerry Zombro, J. J. Kadderly, Hallie C., D. Howitt; Zometta, Dr. A. G. Smith; Curucca, G. K. Hewitt; Sweet Genea, J. Merrill; Guy Light, C. W. Flanders; General B., Fred Brooker.

Class A pace—Dick Hal, A. Bosch; Silver Maid, C. W. Todd; Jim Hill, G. K. Howitt; Miss Altalena, H. W. Drennan; Nutwood Pointer, A. Cooley; Chico, Anderson brothers; Sadie T., A. Sebhoa; Lightfoot, J. Merrill.

TOM BUNDY'S ILLNESS PUTS MATCH OFF DAY

Newport, R. I., Aug. 21.—On account of the illness of Tom Bundy of Los Angeles, the national doubles championship has been postponed. Bundy was not feeling well yesterday and Little and Touchard agreed to postpone the match for one day.

Maurice McLoughlin won in the third round of the men's singles from F. B. Washburn of New York.

The officials of the United States Lawn Tennis association cabled the British association that America would have no representatives in the trial matches for the Davis cup, which are being held in New Zealand.

Nick Lands Jimmy Agnew.

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 21.—Tacoma has sold Jimmy Agnew, the pitcher who refused to report to the Portland club. Tacoma owed Portland some money on Mickey LaLonge and Agnew was probably sent to that club to square the debt. Jimmy would give no reason for not reporting to Tacoma, though he was willing to go to any other club in the league. He was pitching swell ball for Vancouver when he figured in a trade for Schmutz, and he will win some games for Portland.

Australian Makes New Record.

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 21.—James Fitzgerald, the Australian runner, made a new world's record when he covered 15 miles in 1 hour, 21 minutes and 41 1-5 in a match race with Victor Norman, who quit running in the ninth lap. The former record was 1:22:56, and is held by Fred Appleby of England.

GREGG WINS HARD BOUT AT BREAKERS

Feature Match in Tennis Tourney Decided in Forty Game Match.

Breakers, Wash., Aug. 21.—The feature match of the second day of the fifth annual breakers tournament was the one between Norris Gregg and Rucker. Three sets, 40 games, were played, Gregg winning the match. Rucker won the first set 7-5. He slowed up a bit in the second and Gregg was winner, the score being 6-2. In the third set 20 games were played, Gregg finally winning 11-9. Many of the games in the third set went deuce.

Several matches in the men's scratch singles were very interesting. One match was played in the ladies' singles, the first of the tournament, and it resulted in a victory for Miss Tate.

Three matches were played in the mixed doubles, the most interesting of which was the one between Miss E. Parker and Mersereau and Miss Higgins and J. Shives, the first named duo winning 9-7, 7-5.

Yesterday's results:

Men's singles, scratch—Burrell beat Rosenfelt, 6-3, 6-3; Cowing beat Latourette, 6-4, 6-3; Jordan beat Stewart, 6-4, 6-8, 6-4; Wakeman beat McAlpin, 6-2, 6-3; Ewing beat J. Shives, 6-3, 6-4; Mersereau beat Rohr, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3.

Men's singles, handicap—Rohr beat Arthur, 6-2, 6-0; Latourette beat C. A. Shives, 7-5, 6-1; Harrington beat Dunne, 8-6, 6-3; Burrell beat Main, 3-6, 6-1, 6-3; Gregg beat Rucker, 5-7, 6-3, 11-9.

Mixed doubles—Miss Parker and Ewing beat Miss Gregg and Dunne, 6-3, 6-2; Mrs. Harrigan and Harrigan beat Mrs. McPherson and Wakeman, 6-4, 6-2; Miss E. Parker and Mersereau beat Miss Higgins and J. Shives, 9-7, 7-5.

Ladies' singles—Miss Tate beat Mrs. Irwin, 6-3, 6-4.

PORTLAND GIRLS AT EVERETT NETS

Three Winners in First Day of Western Washington Tournament.

Everett, Wash., Aug. 21.—Three Portland players, Mrs. H. E. Judge, Miss Stella Fording and Mrs. W. I. Northrup, were winners in the ladies' singles of the western Washington tennis tournament, which opened yesterday afternoon. All three were winners in the first round and Miss Fording and Mrs. Northrup won their matches in the second round.

Yesterday's results:

First Round.

Today's other results:
