Police Answer Burglar Alarm-A telephone call was received by the police early this morning from a Mr. Sawyer of Sixteenth and Elizabeth streets to the effect that he believed there was a burglar in the home of M. H. Schmeer of 576 Elizabeth street. Captain Keler, Patrolmen Shaffer, Hutchinson and Kelleher were rushed to the house. The only indication of any invasion of the house was a broken window in the basement, but an investigation did not disclose anything to indicate that a burglar had been at the house. The broken window was nailed up after the house had been searched. Schmeer and his family are at the beach.
