Falls Out of His Bunk

Charles Lockwood, a roomer at the Salvation Army home, while in the throes of a nightmare at an early hour this morning, fell from his bunk to the floor and sustained a badly fractured shoulder. He was taken to the police station and then removed to St. Vincent's hospital. The 3-year-old son of Mrs. F. F. Smith of 1140 East Yamhill street was painfully injured yesterday at West Park and Alder streets, when he attempted to run in front of a Wells-Fargo express wagon. The little fellow was knocked down and one wheel of the wagon passed over his leg. He was taken to the office of a physician in the medical building and later taken home. No bones were broken. R. J. Hudson, a taxi driver, yesterday afternoon ran into Glenn Gilmore, of Arleta, at Sixth and Davis streets, who was riding on a bicycle, slightly injuring the lad and demolishing the wheel. Frank Griffith, driver of the large white eight-seater car, while attempting to pass a Sellwood car at Hawthorne and Grand avenue yesterday, collided with the car, causing a panic among his passengers. Little damage was done, however, to either the car or automobile and no one was injured.

Wife Sues Husband

Mrs. Ida Walker, 6713 Fifty-fifth avenue, southeast, started suit yesterday in the circuit court against her husband, Elmer L. Walker, a traveling salesman, to force him to support her. A temporary restraining order directing him to not dispose of his money was issued. He was also ordered to not pay a note of $2000, which is in favor of Sarah C. Clement. According to the complaint filed by Mrs. Walker, they were married in 1891 in Portland. Domestic trouble lasted until August 22, when Walker is accused of deserting his home. Two days later he returned for his clothing and announced his final departure. The woman complains that she has been forced to work, for which she does not earn enough to clothe and keep her.

Must Pay Alimony

An order directing Alexander Wullumier to pay his wife $15 a week support money was filed this morning in the circuit court. Wullumier is a jeweler at 268 Morrison street. She cites in her complaint that he earns $25.00 a week and that he deserted her several weeks ago and refuses to contribute to her support. The woman complains that she has been forced to work, for which she does not earn enough to clothe and keep her.

Portland Represented

Portland will be represented this year in the state fairs of Iowa, Minnesota and Oregon through exhibits prepared and sent out by the chamber of commerce. The exhibits include fruits and vegetables, fish and meat and lumber produced not only in Multnomah but other portions of the state. Each exhibit furnishes a demonstration of the preserving processes found successful by the chamber of commerce.

FINDS GOOD ROADS IN CENTRAL OREGON

"You must go to central Oregon to find good roads," declared Wilbur E. Coman, general freight and passenger agent of the Hill lines in Oregon, yesterday. Mr. Coman is among the first to return from the long development league through interior Oregon. After attending the Lakeview meeting and visiting Crater lake he returned to Portland by rail that he might attend the funeral of the late Postmaster Charles B. Merrick.

"We found most excellent highways over the entire route," continued Mr. Coman. "We found some very unusual scenery and the journey was delightful in the fullest sense of the word."

"Of all the interior Oregon features Crater lake alone surpassed my expectations. It is magnificent far beyond description. I do not believe that any one who has failed to visit Crater lake can appreciate its wonders. On several former trips through interior Oregon I had missed going to Crater lake and this time I decided that if I saw nothing else I would go to this great body of water, cloud high and beautiful."

Mr. Coman says that the central Oregon country is a vast region of hope. This year are generally good. The season has been pleasant and the certainty of a great future for the country has added wonderfully to contentment.

Police Officer's Remarkable Recovery

Sergeant Everett S. Paschin, who has recently made the most remarkable recovery from terrible wounds in the head, inflicted when his wife, in a fit of insanity shot him twice, reported to Chief of Police Slover yesterday afternoon that he would be ready for duty September 1. Although not as fit as when the accident happened, Paschin is in excellent condition and will be able to cope with the work by the time he reports. He made an effort a month ago to return for duty but found himself unequal to the strain.

Open Air Meeting Labor Day Evening

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Progressive Democratic club held last night, it was decided to celebrate Labor Day by holding an open air meeting at the corner of Seventh and Washington streets that night, Monday, September 2. This will be the first of a series of open air meetings to be held under the auspices of the Progressive Democratic club. Prominent speakers will address the people on that occasion on the issues of the day, the names to be announced as soon as the program is completed.

Held for Larceny

H. B. Wells, a clerk, was arrested last night by Detectives Hyde, Tichenor and Abbott on a warrant from San Francisco, on a charge of larceny. He is being held pending the receipt of further information. The arrest grows out of the alleged pawning of a diamond ring belonging to a married sister, and her husband is the complainant. The young man this morning wired his sister to be given a check to make the man good without being compelled to return with an officer.

Will Leave Jail Today

Robert H. Noymann will be released from the county jail at 4:10 this afternoon, after having served exactly 24 hours. Noymann was yesterday sentenced to serve one day in jail and pay a fine of $5 for sending obscene matter through the mail by United States District Judge Bean and at once paid the fine and began serving sentence. The light sentence was given because the man showed such ignorance he was not held thoroughly responsible.

FARCE COMEDY IS SATIRE ON POLITICS

A witty, humorous satire a cross between a burlesque and a farce comedy, an attraction that serves to please every member of the audience, no matter how different tastes might be—such a play is "The Higher-Ups," this week's attraction by the Armstrong-Folles company at the Lyric theatre. Well presented by the company, well received by the audience, this bill can be truthfully called one of the best attractions at this playhouse for some time. It is a general mixup of things politically. The first scene is a street showing a political meeting, with the present mayor, Miss Bell, addressing the women voters. Miss Bell's sister, Anita, is opposed to the reelection of her sister as mayor, and with the aid of her lover, Tom Candy, she manages to elect Pat Flannigan to the office, who is an advocate for an open town. Jake Meyers is elected district attorney, and the comedy end of the production lies in their hands. The second scene shows the city hall as it looks on a wide open policy, and the office of mayor where all the city business is transacted. Coming at this time, when the political situation is very acute, "The Higher-Ups" is very appropriate. There are many song numbers introduced, "The Gaby Glide," by Miss Davis and Chorus; "Dublin Rag," by Will Armstrong and chorus; "Hum, Tum, Tiddle, Tum," by Clara Howard and chorus, and "Three Things I Love," by Ralph DeVan and chorus, being the most catchy and pleasing. "The Higher-Ups" will hold the stage all week and as an extra attraction on Friday night the chorus will hold another of their interesting contests.

PERFORMING CANINES NEED NOT BE MUZZLED

It was ruled by George McCord, secretary to the mayor, this morning that dogs performing on the stage are exempt from the law which requires muzzling of canines. McCord expressed that opinion when appealed to by H. M. Howard who, is exhibiting four Shetland ponies and nine dogs at the Orpheum. When not performing, the dogs—eight Fox Terriers and a Dane—are locked securely in kennels and they are under the constant surveillance of Mr. and Mrs. Howard when on the stage. None of the dogs are vicious.

WALLOWA, OR., MAN CUTS 54 BU. WHEAT TO ACRE

Wallowa, Or., Aug. 27.—Crop yields on dry land in Wallowa county are better this year than for a long time. One man, J. B. Gaston, living near Wallowa, has just harvested a field of wheat averaging 54 bushels to the acre. The wheat is of the forty-four variety. Another field of the same kind of wheat, owned by Plase Bros., has averaged 45 bushels to the acre.

MILITARY PRODUCTION "PEOPLES" HEADLINER

"The Reckoning," a stirring military production, heads the new bill at the People's theatre this week. It is an exceptional photo play of great beauty. "The Conductor" is a Tannhauser comedy of merit, while "North of 53" is a story well told of the Canadian mounted police. "Views of Devran" is a splendid scene. Added features are "That Trio" and Leopold Rosan, an accomplished violinist. The bill at the Star is headed by "The Equine Spy," which tells a beautiful story of love and romance of the Civil war period. "A Count That Counted" is a mixture of comedy and romance and a very pretty piece of photography. "Ufole's Favorite Pudding" is another good comedy.

The Three French Stars, late principals of the Grazie Grand Opera company, will open a limited engagement today. At the Arcade, "Androclus and the Lion," a thrilling tale of ancient Roman times, holds headline position. "The Deputy's Duty" is a western comedy playlet. "For Her Mother's Sake" is a tale of temptation, sin and regeneration, while "A Corner on Kisses" is another pleasing comedy. The added attractions are Hellstrom and Myhre character singers and dancers, and Arthur Elwell, baritone.

Graduated Single Tax

Saturday evening a large crowd of people at Sixth and Washington listened to Will Daily, president of the State Federation of Labor, and A. W. Lawrence, one of the Republican candidates for the legislature and editor of the Labor Press, speak in favor of the graduated single tax measure. J. W. Bengough alternated with a number of his striking cartoons.
