UNITED PORT OF TILLAMOOK BAY IS PROPOSED IF THE PORT OF BAY CITY IS DECLARED ILLEGAL

(Special to The Journal) Tillamook, Or., Sept. 13.—When the legality of the Port of Bay City is tested in the courts in a friendly suit to determine the validity of a proposed bond issue for harbor improvements, it will be the third action brought against a port in this county. In the two previous cases, the ports of Tillamook and Bayocean were declared illegal.

WOULD HAVE THE CITY INSPECT GAS METERS

Councilman Ralph C. Clyde is preparing for introduction at the next session of the city council an ordinance providing for city inspection of gas and electric light meters. Mr. Clyde says he has received numerous complaints from constituents to the effect that the gas and electric companies maintain hundreds of defective meters, which increase the burden on consumers.
