"Missing" Girl Returned-Thirteenyear-old Edna Hislop, who disappeared from the home of her foster parents at 605 Rodney avenue, some time ago, after leaving a note saying she was going to run away, was returned to her home yesterday by Detective Hawley. The child had been living at the home of J. Ingram, 394 Monroe street, who stated that the child was kept there because of the alleged abuses heaped upon it. The foster parents have promised to give the girl better treatment.

Boy Starts Fire-When 8-year-old Clifford Beerwicks, of 507 Mississippi avenue, could not find his Sunday shoes which he intended to wear yesterday afternoon, he struck a match and peered under the sofa. The flame caught onto the fringe on the piece of furniture. The boy rushed from the house crying "Fire!" and excited neighbors turned in the fire alarm. The blaze was put out before the department arrived, after a loss of about $10 had been entailed.

Teased Dog Bites Boy-Sol Robinson, of 330 Jackson street, while teasing a dog that was tied in the back yard of the home of a Mr. Egbert at 307 College street, was severely bitten on the hand by the animal, making treatment by a physician necessary. The matter was reported to the police. As Robinson was tensing the dog while it was tion was taken.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 16.—"We are going to the bottom of the Mexican situation and the possibility of American connection with it," firmly declared United States Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan, who is here to sit with United States Senator Fall of New Mexico as a senatorial committee of investigation. Witnesses will be examined and possibly junkets will be taken to the Mexican border.

Smith examined many witnesses at El Paso, en route here. He intimated his belief that the American policy in Mexico has been weak. Senator Fal. believes the Mexican situation is more serious than ever before.
