SERIES OF RALLIES FOR THE CHILDREN

W. C. T. U. Worker Preparing for National Convention Here in October.

By L. H. Addison. Miss Edna Rowan of Illinois, the talented Loyal Temperance Legion organizer and secretary of the national branch of the W. C. T. U., is holding a series of children's rallies in and about the city, preparatory to the great children's demonstration which will take place Saturday afternoon, October 19, at the national convention.

Miss Rowan has a captivating manner which attracts the close attention of the children and holds them spellbound to the end of her addresses. Just fresh from successful campaigning in West Virginia and in Colorado, she is full of enthusiasm. Her description of the work in Maine, where she had 30,000 children organized as young prohibition campaigners, was exceedingly interesting.

Miss Rowan will attend the Multnomah county convention, to be held in the First Congregational church, all day tomorrow, following which she will be in Yamhill county four days, and then in Washington county. She recently organized the L. T. L. in Huntington, La Grande and Moro.

Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler, state secretary of the young people's branch of the W. C. T. U., spoke Sunday in Sunnyvale, Clatsop county. Mrs. Wheeler is chairman of the music committee for the convention. She will also conduct a morning Y. P. B. conference each day at the convention at the First Presbyterian church at 10 o'clock in the morning. The young people will do the ushering at the convention. The Woodstock W. C. T. U. will entertain the Y. P. B.'s of Oregon during the convention.

The committees are all well down to working order. The sightseeing committee is arranging auto and trolley trips for Friday, October 18, and a special trip to Salem, October 22. The pulpit supply committee report requests for speakers are coming in from all quarters. Special arrangements are being made for a series of conference lunches to be held during the noon hour. Conferences of the departments will be held in the First Presbyterian church, Twelfth and Alder streets.

HIKER LIKES OREGON BEST; BUYS RANCH

H. B. Lovelace, a cross-country hiker, who is now on his way to Bangor, Me., from San Francisco, was in Portland all night, arriving last evening and departing for the east this morning after securing a letter from Mayor Bushfield showing that he had been in this city.

Lovelace, who is 37 years old and traveling on a wager, walked from Macleay since Sunday noon, a distance of 57 miles. Making an average of 25 miles a day, he expects to finish his long hunt February 15. He left this morning for Granger.

Lovelace was once a carpenter, but abandoned the trade to become a globe-trotter. He has been all over the world. Within the last 19 years he has crossed the country twice, once on a bicycle and once with a team. He said that the best looking country in the whole world, to him, was Oregon, and he recently justified his faith with the purchase of a 320-acre wheat ranch in Marion county. When he reaches Bangor he is to be married. In case he finishes the walk by February 15, he says that he is to receive $2000 from the Eastern Advertising Association.

FARMER'S LAND IDEAS MAY TURN ELECTRIC LINE

Orengo, Or., Sept. 17.—Surveyors are again busy finding a route for the new line to be built from the United Railways to the Oregon Electric line. One farmer, owning considerable property along the old survey, wants more right of way money than the railway people want to pay, so a new route is being sought, which may make the junction point at Milkapa, a mile west of Orengo.

Orengo Expects 100 Pupils. Orengo, Or., Sept. 17.—Schools opened yesterday. Before the end of the week more than a hundred pupils will have been enrolled, many of the children being kept out until hopping is over. R. C. Wann is principal, this being his second year at the head of the schools. Miss Julia A. Hatch, of Goldendale, Wash., is in charge of the intermediate department, while Ruth Gillman of Garden Home has been engaged for the primary grades.

SUFFRAGIST WORKING FOR WOODROW WILSON

Miss Alberta Hill is one of the young suffragists of New York who was not carried away by the Bull Moose platform. She is one of the youngest of the active workers for the suffrage movement in the country and in settling on her candidate for the presidency she selected Wilson. She is hard at work every day in the headquarters of the women's department of the Democratic campaign committee.

The Ragtime Muse

Visitors. When my Grandpa and Grandma Brown Came up to visit us in town They bring my Cousin Bill to see The picture shows and play with me. Well, we was so late gettin' at The deepo' where they come in at That they was a look'n' for a car To take them out to where we are.

Now grandpa and grandma enjoy The city like a girl and boy; And they just do the queerest things, For grandpa always works an' sings, And grandpa eats red apples there. On the front porch, to get the air, And mother's neighbor, 'cross the way, Says they're as sweet as fields in May.

COOK QUARRELS WITH, THEN MURDERS FIREMAN

(Special to The Journal.) Ellensburg, Wash., Sept. 17.—A. C. Barnstader, a cook for the Milwaukee miller at South Cle Elum, killed A. B. Miller, bunkhouse man for the Murphy system, Sunday. Miller had charge of the boiler in the bunkhouse and is alleged had neglected to keep the fire up so that there was no hot water when Barnstader wanted to take a bath. Words were passed and it is alleged that Miller called Barnstader vile names. Barnstader then drew a pocket knife and stabbed Miller in the left side. Miller ran from the building 30 feet, fell and died. Barnstader made no attempt to escape and was taken into custody by Special Agent John Hurley. Miller was about 50 years of age and leaves a wife and three children. An inquest will be held tonight in Cle Elum.

Kewpie Kutouts in many colors

WHEN you see the Kewpie Kutouts you will want them all. The Kutouts are colored, just as if they were alive. They have both fronts and backs. When you cut them out and paste them together they look good either going or coming. The Kutouts are several inches high, too, as big as little dolls should be. And they stand up all alone.

You will find them in the October number of the Woman's Home Companion. More Kewpies every month, and Dotty Darling, who is a beautiful little doll girl, Dotty's Baby Brother, and clothes for Dotty Darling too. Rose O'Neill, the famous artist, makes the Kewpie Kutouts. Don't you want to play with them? You can have them.

Just ask mother for 15 cents and go to the nearest news-stand for the Woman's Home Companion — or cut out and send us the Kewpie Kewpon in the corner, with the same 15 cents, and you will get postpaid, the October number of the

WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION

TELL your mother too that she will find the Woman's Home Companion jammed full of things that will interest her just as much as the Kewpies interest you — things like clothes and styles and cooking and parties and all sorts of ideas that will make life happier and better for herself and father and for you. Just send this Kewpon and 15 cents — Send coin or stamps at our risk.
