

ADMITTANCE WANTS INSPECTION LAWS

Treasury Department Includes Portland as One of Border Towns to Be Affected; Committee Here to Investigate.

Through the desire of the secretary of the treasury to adopt uniform laws in regard to the handling of passengers baggage and the inspection of merchandise from across the line at border ports, J. W. Bevans of the law department, secretary's office, and A. I. Clark, in the appointment division, treasury department, are looking over matters in connection with the work at the customs house.

They constitute a committee appointed by the secretary of the treasury to visit all border ports to make recommendations looking toward the adoption of uniform practice in handling passengers baggage and the inspection of merchandise.

While Portland and San Francisco do not constitute border ports, Mr. Bevans and Mr. Clark are including them in their investigations, especially as baggage and merchandise frequently come here from across the border.

The committee has already visited the border ports from Buffalo, N. Y., to Calais, Me., said Mr. Bevans, "and has recommended, among other things, the provision by the various railroads of tracks to be known as customs tracks, these tracks to be under the control of officers of the customs and of merchandise imported and held until proper entry has been made and the necessary work performed by the customs officials.

"It is the desire of the secretary that a practice be adopted that will not only protect the customs and will also facilitate the examination and release of both imported merchandise and passengers baggage, and it is thought that the result of the work of this committee will be beneficial to the traveling public and to the importer.

From here the committee will go to San Francisco and Puget Sound ports and thence to ports along the Canadian border as far east as Buffalo.

QUICK REPAIRS MADE

Crank Pin Replaced in the Pomona in Record Time.

That he has reason to crow over the feat of replacing a broken crank pin on the steamer Pomona, is the opinion of Captain A. B. Graham, of the Oregon City Transportation company. The pin was replaced in what was said to be record time.

FRENCH BARK IN PORT

Edouard Detaille Once Wrongly Reported Lost at Sea.

Laden with a full cargo of general merchandise from Rotterdam, the French bark Edouard Detaille, Captain Louis, left up the river in tow of the Port of Portland towboat Oklahoma for the local harbor at 10:41 o'clock this morning. The Frenchman is in to Meyer, Wilson & Co. and will discharge her cargo of 807 tons of freight at the North Bank dock.

CHANNEL WORK INSPECTED

Major McIndoe Takes Look at Upper Willamette Work.

To inspect the work on the six-foot channel project between here and Oregon City, Major J. F. McIndoe, United States engineer, and E. B. Thomson, assistant United States engineer, went to Jennings bar today. They will inspect the work of the clamshell dredge Champoux, which is now operating on the bar.

SEVEN-MONTHS-OLD BOY 31-POUNDER

Laurence Frank Tinker.

Thirty-one pounds at 7 months of age is the remarkable weight of Laurence Frank Tinker, the husky young son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tinker, of 1127 East Fifteenth street, north. The youngster weighed 11 pounds at birth, and has been keeping up the record ever since. Laurence has never had a sick day—or night, either—in his short life.

CHINESE HERE LEGALLY

Report of Smuggling of Cannery Workers Declared False.

After an absence of nearly two weeks, Immigration Inspector J. H. Barbour returned last night from an official trip to the canneries on the southern Oregon coast, where Chinese are employed. As this is a part of his district he was investigating a report that young Chinese were coming in over the line unlawfully to work in the canneries. It had been reported that this could be done without hindrance.

The report, says Mr. Barbour, was false, and he found only those Chinese there who were entitled to be in the country. At all points on the Coquille, Umpqua and on Coos Bay, Mr. Barbour says that he found everything in fine shape. He was accompanied by Guy M. Watkins, special agent of the United States treasury department, who was also on official business.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

The German steamship Verona, which started loading her cargo for the orient this morning, shifted from the Brown mill to the Albin dock at noon today.

For minor repairs and cleaning and painting, the steamer Seon, of Newberg, is on the ways at the Supple shipyard.

District Forecaster E. A. Beals returned last night from Puget sound port, where he has been inspecting the storm warning service for the past few weeks. Mr. Beals says that he found most of the stations in excellent shape.

Assistant inspectors of the local office of the United States inspectors of steam vessels yesterday inspected the steamer R. Y. Young and the new steam towboat Liberty. The latter, which is 42 gross tons, was just built by Frank Brewster, and will do a general towing business around Rainier.

Minor repairs to light vessel No. 88 having been completed at the Oregon dock, the vessel will leave for the mouth of the Columbia river, and Umalla reef light vessel No. 67, which remained here for extensive repairs. It is also expected that the government dredge Clatsop will arrive up at the drydock from Astoria Saturday to undergo cleaning, painting and minor repairs.

The steamer Daisy will sail from here tonight for Redondo with 800,000 feet of lumber. The coaster will leave Rainier for San Pedro, also with lumber.

PASSENGER MEN FALL IN LOVE WITH OREGON

"Never before in the history of Portland was there a gathering of men so wonderfully equipped for letting the world know what we have in the Pacific northwest, and in Oregon particularly, as the 200 general passenger and ticket agents, which spent last Monday and Monday night in this city and state," said John E. Werlein, chairman of the committee of the Transportation club in charge of the entertainment of the visiting passenger agents.

"These men were wonderfully impressed with Oregon and the northwest, and when they go back to their eastern homes they will not fail to tell what they saw.

"Down at the coast the passenger agents and their wives went into raptures over the gorgeous Oregon beach, and its exhilarating climate. Coming back up Monday afternoon, they were just as loud in their praise of the Columbia river and its wonderful scenery, and when we took them up on Council Crest Monday afternoon and let them look out over Portland, they were completely carried away with the grandeur of the scenery.

"We had no idea that there was such a climate in the United States as you have here in western Oregon," said a New England member of the party. "If the wealthy people of New York and other eastern states knew of this climate and this wonderful scenery, your coast line would be dotted with their summer homes and your Columbia river would be lined with their castles."

Mr. Werlein says that the entire party insisted that they be sent all the literature that has been issued on Oregon and the northwest. Some of them went so far as to leave their cards with the individual members of the entertainment committee, with instructions to forward literature to their homes. Arrangements have been made with the chamber of commerce and the Commercial club to supply each of the general passenger agents with literature on this part of the country.

BRITISHER DISCUSSES LLOYD-GEORGE PLAN

Francis Neilson, British member of parliament, was greeted by an entirely sympathetic audience at the Bungalow theatre last night. He discussed "The Working Out of the Lloyd-George Program" in a way that brought frequent applause and sustained cheers when he had finished.

As a former actor and present stager of plays, Neilson keenly appreciates the value of an effective platform appearance, and he utilizes all the dramatic art of oration to secure his effect.

He surveyed the rise of the land value movement in Great Britain and spoke of the program which Lloyd-George has laid out for the future. The name of the little Welsh leader was applauded to the echo when Neilson mentioned his achievements. He also told of the success the Canadian government is meeting with in peopling Canada, and averred that the elimination of the tax in improvements was to be chiefly credited for the tremendous movement of settlement toward the provinces. The railroads are having difficulty to find coaches to carry the settlers to the land, and freight cars to take their products to the markets, said Neilson, adding that since the lines between nations are largely imaginary, Oregon and Washington should be shared in the emigration from the British Isles, because comparison of resources is largely in favor of this country.

After Neilson's address, J. W. Bengough, cartoonist of Toronto, gave a series of "chalk talks." Neilson left for Everett this morning, and he will speak there tonight. Then he will go on to La Grande and speak Thursday night, and to Baker on Friday night. He expects to continue his American tour by a series of addresses in Missouri, going directly from Oregon to St. Louis.

HAPPY, LAUGHING CHILD SHORTLY.

If Cross, Feverish, Bihous and Sick Let "Syrup of Figs" Clean Its Little Waste-Clogged Bowels.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative physic should always be the first treatment given.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are filled with foul, constipated waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has a stomached, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of delicious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they derive joy and pleasure from eating Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

EMOTIONAL ACTRESS OF GYPSY EXTRACTION

Dena Cooper.

Gypsy blood courses in the veins of Dena Cooper, one of Australia's great emotional actresses, who is appearing at the Empress theatre this week in "The Confession," a playlet which is crowded with surprising situations. Miss Cooper is proud of her gypsy extraction and refers with enthusiasm to old-time Antipodian history which relates the marriage of her great grandfather to a beautiful woman. She is a niece of Sir Pope Cooper, who was lord chief justice of Queensland for more than 12 years.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS PICK THEIR OFFICERS

The seventh annual meeting of the Oregon Funeral Directors' association came to an end last night with the annual election of officers and banquet. The election resulted as follows: President, William F. Walker, Springfield; first vice president, R. F. Richardson, Salem; second vice president, T. F. Burston, Forest Grove; secretary, Arthur L. Finley, Portland; treasurer, Walter J. Holman, Portland; state examiner, W. T. Macy, McMinnville; re-elected. All members of the executive board were re-elected as follows: W. T. Macy, chairman; W. T. Gordon, Eugene; H. C. Harlow, Woodburn; R. L. Holman, Oregon City. Representatives to the National Funeral Directors' association meeting, to be held in Chattanooga, Tenn., in October, are R. L. Holman of Oregon City and W. T. Rigdon, retiring president, Salem.

J. H. Gibbough of the Portland Chemical company, and his wife, were host and hostess at the dinner given in honor of the undertakers in the Oregon hotel grill room Tuesday night. J. W. Cookerly, president of the national association, presided as toastmaster, and a few of those who responded to toasts were, W. T. Macy, McMinnville; Professor E. B. Hughes, a demonstrator of San Francisco; J. H. Limber, Vancouver, Wash.; William F. Walker, R. F. Richardson, Salem; J. P. Finley, Portland, the oldest member of the state association, Mrs. E. B. Hughes, San Francisco; Mrs. A. L. Finley, Portland; and Mrs. H. C. Harlow of Woodburn.

Presentation of a gold watch was made to President Cookerly of the national association by President Rigdon of the state association. The presentation was a surprise. Then in turn, President Cookerly surprised Mr. Rigdon by presenting him with a gold held umbrella.

This morning the undertakers in a body visited the crematorium and one of two of the new undertaking establishments in the city.
