The city charter and the state law provides for the manner of getting into such places, picked up off the street. Judge Tazwell declared, and hereafter he will refuse to hear cases where arrests of that nature are made by the police who are not armed with war-rants. Judge Tazwell has heretofore sustained the police, but the question was raised this morning in the case of Ah Sing and Oh Sing, arrested for conducting a lottery game. The cases were dismissed.

Forest Field Clerk-The United States Civil Service commission announces an examination on October 19, 1912, for the position of forest and field clerk in the forest service and reclamation service, for the purpose of securing eligibles from which to fill vacancies as they may occur, at salaries ranging from $6J to $125 a month. Great difficulty has been experienced in securing eligibles for these positions and all qualified persons are urged to make application for and compete in this examination. Females are eligible for appointment in the reclamation service only. A knowledge of stenography and typewriting, and the elements of bookkeeping is required. For application blank and full information apply to the secretary, Eleventh United States Civil Service district, Seattle, Wash.

Wallace a chauffeur for one of the officers of the Union Meat company when he was brought into court oh a bench warrant issued for him, but on a plea of his employers. Judge Tazwell changed the rockpile sentence to a fine of $30, which must be paid in addition to $20 bail, which he forfeited by not making his appearance. When the man failed to appear Monday for trial, following his arrest by Patrolman Gouldstone, the bench warrant was issued. Earl Fay, arrested Monday at Thirteenth and Holladay, was fined $25 for speeding. Herman Uhlig and H. Malon, arrested on Hawthorne avenue, were given suspended sentences after being fined $25 each.
