Programme For Sunday Sermons and Record of Church Events in and Around Portland

BETTER AND LARGER SCHOOLS THE OBJECT OF S. S. ASSOCIATION

First of Series of Articles on Organization and Its Work in Oregon.

By Fred I. Kelley, State Secretary.

The Oregon Sunday School association is making plans for its semi-annual rally and meeting of its executive committee to be held Wednesday, October 2. The Portland Graded Union has prepared an interesting program dealing with Sunday school methods, which will be presented at the First Christian church, with a morning session commencing at 10 o'clock and an afternoon session starting at 2 o'clock. Prominent Sunday school workers from various parts of the state will take part.

In the evening a dinner will be given at the Commercial club for the men, at which prominent business men will meet the executive committee of the association and discuss plans for the future.

The Oregon Sunday School association is a body of which every Protestant Sunday school in the state, regardless of denomination, is a part. Through its officers it works for bigger and better Sunday schools in Oregon. The state association is a part of the International Sunday School association which is at the head of the Sunday school work in the United States and Canada, with headquarters at Chicago.

Each county in Oregon has its own organization and is an auxiliary part of the state association. Each county president is by virtue of his office a member of the state executive committee.

County Conventions Held.

Such officers, as are necessary to carry on the work efficiently, are elected annually at the state convention by delegates from all parts of the state. The executive committee is composed of prominent Sunday school workers from all parts of the state. The president, vice presidents, state secretary and treasurer perform the usual duties. The greater part of work devolves upon the general secretary and department superintendents. The general secretary, Rev. Charles A. Phipps, who is also the association's field worker travels into every county in Oregon giving his entire time to the work. Delegates from Sunday schools meet annually at the county conventions to learn better methods, exchange ideas, and cooperate in building their schools. The general secretary has these county conventions timed so that he is able to get to all of them. He is prepared to give instruction on every phase of Sunday school work, and through these conventions is in touch with practically every school in Oregon. If he is not in touch with a school the fault rests in the fact that that school does not send delegates to the county convention.

Has Many Departments.

The modern Sunday school has many departments of work. The association has a state superintendent at the head of each. The work of each department will be discussed in detail later, their names will be simply mentioned here. The elementary division includes all classes whose members are under 13 years of age, subdivided into the cradle roll, beginners, primary and junior departments. The secondary division, or "Teen Age" division, as it is often called, takes the classes from 13 to 20. The adult division includes, as its name implies, all adult classes, or those over 20. The home department is for those who are unable to attend regular schools and study at home instead. The teacher training department as its name indicates trains teachers for service. The departments of temperance and good citizenship also of missions, work in their respective fields.

Better Schools Is Aim.

The association maintains an office at 520 Abington building, Portland, with an office secretary in charge. In this office literature in regard to every department of Sunday school work is kept. Any questions as to improving Sunday schools are gladly answered as are requests for literature.

The general secretary, the department superintendents and all the other officers work with the one end in view—bigger and better Sunday schools. Few will deny the fact that a good Sunday school education is an important factor for good in a child's life. Bigger schools means that more of the children in Oregon will get that instruction. The better schools are different from the old time kind, for instead of a place for children only or with few adults, in the modern school the adults outnumber the children. The reason for this lies in the fact that the uptodate school at work in all its various departments is a proposition big enough to appeal to girls until they are women, to boys until men.

The next article will take up the work of the elementary division in detail, and show how it helps build the modern school.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR RALLY WILL BE HELD ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4

Meeting to Be at First Congregational Church; Three Foot Banner as Prize.

The central committee, consisting of representatives of the Congregational Christian Endeavor societies of Portland, met at the Pilgrim church last Friday evening to complete arrangements for the conducting of the second annual rally Friday evening, October 4, at the First Congregational church. This rally is planned to be a benefit to both the societies of Portland and the suburbs. Among the outside societies that are to have a part in the rally are those from Oregon City, Park Place, Clackamas, Beaverton, Beaver Creek, Hillsboro, Forest Grove, Gaston, Hillside, Gales Creek, Scappoose and others.

Last year 221 young people attended the same kind of a gathering, but expectations for this year's number reach up to between 400 and 500, as the societies are much more enthusiastic and are woking hard to have a large attendance.

Will Give Big Banner.

A handsome 3 foot banner is being made which will be presented to the society having the largest per cent of their members present. This reward is adding enthusiasm to the rally.

The tentative program is as follows:

6 p. m.—Officers' and committee chairmen banquet; brief addresses and toasts; Rev. L. R. Dyott, toastmaster.

7:45 p. m.—Organ recital.

8 p. m.—Song service, led by Sunnyside choir.

8:15 p. m.—Greetings; address; 3 minute talks on Endeavor work; address; special music; "efficiency campaign"; address.

Mr. Galy of the Sunnyside church is acting as chairman of the central committee, and under the direction of these two men the following chairmen of committees are making their plans: Program, Mr. Schick; social, Walter Ferguson; banquet, Miss Mollie Fetting, and publicity, Mr. Walker.

The committee has arrranged to meet again October 24 at the First church, and it is hoped that those not present at the last meeting, who are members of the committee, will plan to attend the final meeting on that date.

At the rally three delegates will be named to attend the state denominational conference to be held at Hood River, October 8 to 11. Miss Mabel C. Galey will be sent to the convention to maintain a Christian Endeavor booth, and it is hoped tht this feature will be a drawing card to young people.

As a clear, forceful speaker, possessing a thorough knowledge of his subjects, Mr. Baker's lectures, wherever delivered, make a profound impression and give new stimulus to Bible study. His discourses have been aptly styled "A layman's course in Bible study." The present program has been provided in response to the demand created by a previous lecture course several months ago. These meetings will be entirely free, no collections will be taken.

A genuine rigged ship will be used in the Rally Day Celebration at the Universalist church, East Twenty-fourth and Broadway streets, tomorrow when the staunch craft "Good Tidings" will convey the visitors on the Rally Day trip. From the beginning to the end the program has a nautical flavor.

The program includes the morning devotion led by the ship's chaplain, the taking of the pilot on board and the Sunday school singing "Jesus, Saviour Pilot Me;" the raising of the beautiful silk flag won by the school in the Rose Festival parade; the mustering of the crew; the filling of the ship's chest with offerings; a solo by Paul Daniels; the giving of lessons from the sailing chart by Admiral Arthur Wood of Reed college; the singing of "Pilot of Galilee" by the girl's chorus; the conducting of the school of navigation by Superintendent Roger M. Sherman; "Orders from the Bridge," by Commander Pastor J. D. Corby, and the singing of "I'm Here on Business for My King."

PASTOR FOR UNITED CONGREGATION TO BE NAMED ON MONDAY

Methodist Conference to Announce Leader of Grace and Taylor Street Churches.

Much interest centers about the appointment of the pastor to the pulpit of the new First Methodist Episcopal church of Portland, consisting of the United Taylor Street M. E. church and Grace M. E. church. This appointment and those of other pastorates, to churches in Portland and vicinity, will be announced Monday at the closing session of the Methodist annual conference now being held in Ashland, Or.

Rev. Benjamin Young is at present pastor of the Taylor Street M. E. church, and Rev. J. H. Cudlip is pastor of the Grace church. Opinion is fairly well divided as to whether one of these pastors will be retained to organize the new church, or whether a new pastor unacquainted with either congregation will be appointed.

Plans are already well under way for holding a combined congregational meeting in the Taylor Street M. E. church, Third and Taylor streets, Sunday, September 29. All the classes of the Sunday school of the Grace church will unite with the classes of the Taylor Street church. The Sunday school instead of meeting at 9:45 o'clock in the morning, will meet at the end of the morning service of the congregation.

Definite arrangements for the joint Sunday school will be made at a meeting of the Sunday school boards in the Taylor Street church, at 7:45 o'clock Tuesday night. At this time the officers for the consolidated schools will be elected. All officers, teachers, members of committees and others are urged to attend the meeting.
