Expose Is Made by Senator Chamberlain at Dallas, Or., His Authority Being the Late Magnate Himself.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Oct. 4.—A large delegation of Salemans came to Dallas this afternoon to take in the Polk county fair. A special train left here at 1 o'clock. Senator Chamberlain, who spoke at Dallas last night in support of Woodrow Wilson, is here today visiting the State institutions with Governor West and State Treasurer Kay.

(Special to The Journal.)
Dallas, Or., Oct. 4.—The session of United States Senator George Chamberlain yesterday afternoon at the Polk county fair came when he told about a personal interview with the late E. H. Harriman in 1904 at Harriman's Klamath county ranch.

Senator Chamberlain was then governor of Oregon and he went to Harriman with reference to the survey and construction of a railroad into central Oregon. At that time, according to Senator Chamberlain, Harriman told him all about the contribution of $250,000 by Harriman to the Roosevelt campaign. He said Harriman told him that he had first given $100,000 but that Roosevelt had made a demand for $150,000 more with an implied threat of trouble for Harriman if it was not raised. Harriman told him also that he should be a Democrat that year. Roosevelt not having treated him right.

Senator Chamberlain said but little with reference to the Democratic platform, but paid a compliment to the public record of Woodrow Wilson. He urged Republicans who desired most the defeat of Roosevelt, to vote for Wilson, using the argument that the fight was between Wilson and Roosevelt and that a vote for Roosevelt was a half vote for Roosevelt and a half vote for Taft.

Senator Chamberlain said the trusts were now and always had behind Mr. Roosevelt. He paid high tribute to Senator La Follette and Senator Borah. Democratic talk at the Polk county fair in every way was a success. The formal opening of the fair took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. During the forenoon a band concert and balloon ascension formed the principal attractions. The weather was cloudy and a little rain fell but this did not interfere with the day's program in any respect except as regarded a few open air attractions. At 1:30 o'clock an automobile parade was held. Dr. A. B. Starbuck taking first prize and front of the Taft First Riders Club of Polk county taking the second prize.

This morning clear weather is prevailing. The magnitude of the exhibits at the fair is a surprise even to those directly responsible for them. The school children's exhibit particularly is one of the best yet shown in the state. Today is school day and Progressive and Prohibition day. A monster parade of school children will be held, and there will be addresses this afternoon by B. Lee Paget, for the Prohibition party, and by J. Oliver Burke, for the Progressives. A special train of Salem people under the auspices of the Salem Board of Trade arrived at 1:30 and was greeted on behalf of the city by Walter L. Hooge Jr., city attorney, representing the mayor, and by Eugene Foster, president of the Dallas Commercial club.

FINDS LITTLE DIFFICULTY SECURING FREIGHT CARS

J. M. Hannaford, vice president of the Northern Pacific, was in Portland yesterday on a tour to the north-west. He spent the day with A. D. Charlton, assistant general passenger agent, and F. H. Fogarty, assistant general freight agent.

Mr. Hannaford says the company has less difficulty in securing cars to move the enormous grain crop than was feared, this being due in a great measure to shippers having heeded the suggestion to load and unload shipments promptly. In past years merchants have used cars to very large extent for warehouses, but they are getting better equipped to take care of their shipments promptly. This, it is pointed out, means a great deal to the service.

Club Raises Dues.
The Portland Transportation club held an interesting smoker last night at Multnomah hotel. About 150 members were present and it was voted to raise the monthly dues to $1. Heretofore the dues have been 25 cents. The increase in dues will eventually provide for the establishment of permanent club quarters.

Nearness of Springfield Saloons May Turn the Town Wet Again.

(Special to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., Oct. 4.—In an effort to overthrow the present Prohibition regime in Eugene, those who favor saloons here are circulating petitions to call an election under the "home rule" amendment.

Eugene went dry six years ago when the local option election was held throughout the county. The vote in the county was 2778 to 2048. Eugene, however, voted wet by 39. Two years after that the question was again put to a vote and even a larger majority was given for Prohibition in the county. Eugene voted dry that time by a small majority.

It is believed by those circulating the petitions that a majority of the people here favors the licensing of saloons under a strict ordinance regulating them, inasmuch as Springfield has them. Saloons in Springfield is a condition practically the same as if saloons existed in the outskirts of Eugene, as Springfield is so close.

On the other hand there are many people here who believe that the Prohibition element is stronger than ever before.

Cottage Grove and Springfield will also hold "home rule" elections on November 5, the Cottage Grove petition having been filed with the county clerk yesterday afternoon. The wetts circulated this petition and that city is now dry, and the Prohibitionists are circulating the Springfield petition.

REPUBLICANS AGREE TO SETTLE DIFFERENCES

Peace settled over the warring elements in the Republican county central committee last night, the demand of the insurgents for adoption of rules and recognition being granted.

Peace settled over the warring elements in the Republican county central committee last night, the demand of the insurgents for adoption of rules and recognition being granted. Chairman R. C. Wright, whose ruling on a motion for adjournment caused a rump meeting one week ago, assured the committee that he wants to be fair to all.

East side members asked for additional members of the executive committee from the east side wards, because of the larger area and population on that side of the river, and four new names were added. The new committee members are: W. R. Lake, from the Seventh ward; F. H. Norman, from the Eighth ward; Robert J. O'Neil, from the Ninth ward, and Frank B. Harrington, from the Tenth.

A special committee was authorized to be appointed by the executive committee to take up the organization of ward or precinct clubs, and thereby seek to infuse new life into the campaign for Taft and the Republican ticket.

A Ben Selling club, the first of the campaign was organized last night by a number of associates of the Republican candidate for United States senator, L. A. Bowman was chosen president. Meetings are to be held each Wednesday night at the Selling-Hirsch building.

BARR MURDER SUSPECT MAINTAINS SILENCE AS MYSTERY IS UNSOLVED

Efforts of Detectives to Connect Tom C. Maxey With Auto Killing Fail in Results.

Tom C. Maxey, suspect in the Barr murder case, is still held at the city jail, though no charge has been placed against him. J. J. Fitzgerald, deputy district attorney, said at noon that no complaint will be issued today at any rate. The district attorney's office is not anxious to file charges of first degree murder against Maxey, with nothing further to substantiate them than the man's record and the corroborative statement of another ex-convict, an avowed enemy of Maxey.

Captain of detectives Eddy is anxious that Maxey should be held for further investigation. The district attorney's office is willing to give the officers every possible opportunity to further examine Maxey and to connect the suspect with the Barr case, if he should have knowledge of the murder of the young chauffeur, who was shot in the back, killed, on the Linton road, September 16 or 17. Inasmuch as Maxey has apparently no desire to get out of jail or out of Portland, he will probably linger in custody until he clears himself of all suspicion until he can be connected with the Barr murder.

Another ex-convict, known as "Jack" O'Keefe, has given the officers practically all the information they have against Maxey. O'Keefe claims to have overheard a conversation in which Maxey was mentioned as one of a party of four, including a woman, who were going to turn a holdup trick on the Linton road on the night of the Barr murder. To effect the holdup, the story goes, Barr's machine had been hired, but Barr, becoming acquainted with the real party, refused to become implicated in the scheme. Barr was shot, the officers were told, because it was feared he might "peach" on the members of the holdup party. Considering the source of their information, and the fact that it was disclosed so soon after the $1000 reward was offered, the officers are inclined to doubt the story.

O'Keefe admits that he and Maxey had trouble while they were prisoners serving time.

The blackmailing theory which the officers have been working on all week took an unexpected turn last night, when the evidence run down eliminated two suspects from the Barr case, but implicated the in an alleged extortion scheme against Karl V. Lively, who was in an automobile accident last July in which Miss Grace Dow, stenographer at the Oregon hotel, was killed.

PEEVISH CHILDREN SUFFER WITH WORMS

Don't be angry with your child because he or she is continually irritable. In ninety-nine out of one hundred cases you will find that the trouble is worms. Among the common symptoms of the presence of round worms are nervousness—which often leads to epileptiform attacks, dizziness, vertigo, capricious appetite, restless sleep, itching of the eyes and nose, nausea and often hysteria. Round worms are several inches in length and infest the stomach. Occasionally several hundred are found in a single person. Thread worms are smaller, often not longer than a quarter of an inch. The symptoms denoting their presence are about the same, but in this case the child has no appetite. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is unsurpassed in removing worms. Not only will it destroy them, but its tonic effects will restore the stomach to healthy activity. As Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge seldom purges, the indications of its beneficial effects will be the improved condition of the person using it. Millions of parents have praised this medicine for more than eighty years. Insist upon Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge, and accept no other. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. D. Jayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.

Attention Again Directed to Message of ex-President on School Question.

(Special to The Journal.)
Chicago, Oct. 4.—Judge Will R. King of Oregon, chairman of the special bureau and division for the Pacific and intermountain states of the Democratic national committee, today gave out a statement in which he quotes ex-President Roosevelt's message of December 24, 1909, regarding the attendance of Japanese in the public schools of the far western states.

Judge King sent the following telegram to other members of the national Democratic committee: "Examine Roosevelt's message of December 4, 1909, in which he said: 'I recommend to congress that an act be passed specifically providing for the naturalization of Japanese who come here intending to become American citizens,' and in which he in substance said the United States statutes are inadequate to give the national government ample power through the courts and by the use of the army and navy to protect aliens in the rights secured them under treaties, and recommended that the statutes be amended to protect the same and further indicating that something could be done toward this and that he would do all in his power even to prevent the exclusion of Japanese from the public schools in California to the extent of using all the military forces at his command which might be necessary for that purpose."

DALLES AND DUFUR DAY LIVENS DISTRICT FAIR

(Special to The Journal.)
The Dalles, Or., Oct. 4.—Dalles and Dufur day at the district fair was held yesterday and the attendance on the grounds in the afternoon was the largest of the season. All business houses and offices here closed, and proprietors and employes went to the track. Dufur, too, was well represented, the special from there having brought several hundred people. Many also came from the towns in automobiles and carriages. One of the main features on the track is the fancy riding and roping by Hazel and Frank Walker and Bert Baze, specialists in that line from Canada. They do very clever cowboy stunts and are general favorites with the patrons of the fair.

ROUNDUP IS GOOD THING FOR PENDLETON FINANCES

(Special to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., Oct. 4.—It is estimated by George A. Hartman Jr., treasurer of the Round-Up, an assistant cashier of the First National bank of this city, that between $500,000 and $750,000 was left in Pendleton by the visitors at the 1912 Round-Up. He bases his judgment upon the increased bank deposits, the amount taken at the three day show and the average individual expenses of the visitors.

VICE COMMISSION FORCES WIN POINT WITH COUNCILMEN

Ordinance Requiring Legal Ownership of Hotels, Lodging Houses to Be Posted, Is Sent to City Council.

Agreeing with members of the vice commission as to the merits of the proposed ordinance requiring the legal ownership of every building in the city used for hotel or lodging house purposes to be posted on a conspicuous sign at the principal entrance of every such building, the health and police committee today ordered the measure sent to the council for final consideration.

The committee were not so favorably inclined toward the proposed measure requiring that owners of hotels and lodging houses furnish for each one a bond in the sum of $1000 guaranteeing that no immorality will be allowed. This measure, however, was also ordered sent to the council without recommendation.

SAFETY PIN RECOVERED FROM GIRL'S THROAT

Wilma Wade, 13 years old, underwent an operation at St. Vincent's hospital yesterday, when a safety pin, which she swallowed last Friday, was removed from her bronchial tubes, almost a foot below the throat. The girl swallowed the pin, which she was holding in her mouth, when she laughed heartily, and all ordinary means failed to dislodge it. The pin was located by an X ray photograph, and was removed with a hook thrust into the thorax through an opening cut into the throat.

Some Owners Apathetic

"In some few instances I have found the owners apathetic and the names of some of these people have surprised me greatly. However, I'm in no hurry. I realize that the eradication of vices is not a matter of accomplishment in weeks, but one of years of persistent effort."

David Morrison and George Thatcher also spoke to the committee on behalf of the two ordinances recommended by the vice commission.

Mayor Rueslight today appointed Councilmen Baker, Daly and Burgard a special committee to confer with the vice commission as to further plans for the attack on vice of all kinds.

In a megaphone which carries the human voice nearly three miles that has been mounted on the Eiffel Tower in Paris the sounds are produced by detonations of an explosive gas, governed in period and intensity by the movements of a stylus over a phonograph record.

EIGHT ARE KILLED IN RAILWAY WRECK

Express Goes into Ditch at Westport, Conn., and Engine Boiler Explodes.

Westport, Conn., Oct. 4.—Eight persons were killed west of here last night when the Springfield express, second section, enroute from Hartford to New York went into the ditch. Five of the victims were women.

The express, which was running over the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, wrecked when the speeding locomotive failed to take a cross-over from one track to another. The engine, mail and baggage cars, and four Pullmans left the rails and were demolished. The locomotive boiler exploded a moment after the crash and set the wreckage afire. The women who were killed were passengers in the first Pullman, and included Mrs. E. P. Gavit, daughter of Anthony N. Brady a well known traction man of New York and Albany. The other dead are the engine crew.

STRYCHNINE IN MELONS COSTS LIVES OF COYOTES

(Special to The Journal.)
Nyssa, Or., Oct. 4.—Coyotes of the melon-eating kind have so annoyed A. S. Kingman, father of the Kingman colony, near here, that after losing more than 100 ripe watermelons through the raids of the four footed pests, he placed strychnine inside two of his most tempting melons. The next morning the poisoned melons were found partly eaten and with a few feet of them; lay four dead coyotes.
