Events in Society

It is imperative that those contributing news for the Sunday society page should have it reach the desk of the editor...

Bride Is Feted.

Thanks to the several brides to be entertained and a number of well disposed visitors, the social atmosphere is clearing and perhaps we may yet be saved from the lethargy which always follows the summer fittings.

Judge and Mrs. Henry E. McGinn, uncle and aunt of the popular bride-elect, last evening opened their home at the corner of Moseley street and Mallory avenue for a dancing party for a large company of young people.

The social season opened very auspiciously Friday evening at the state university with a large reception, concerning which the Oregon Emerald says: "Friday night marked the opening of the university social season."

Mrs. Caswell Honored.

A delightful pivot bridge party was given this afternoon by Mrs. A. W. Payne at her home, 748 Pettygrove street in compliment to Mrs. Edwin Caswell.

The ladies asked to welcome Mrs. Caswell were: Mrs. Holt, Mrs. C. H. Rende, Mrs. Mateon, Mrs. Pendleton, Mrs. Benjamin Lombard, Mrs. Chipman, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. E. H. Corbett, Mrs. Whitney Morton, Mrs. White, Miss Janet Noble, Miss Von Bolton and Miss Marshall.

Shakespeare Club Opens.

The intellectual interests are enjoying a revival with the opening of the Shakespeare and women's clubs are now well under way in the carrying out of their programs for the year.

This being president's day, Mrs. Todd made an informal address first telling the ladies of her passionate fondness for Shakespeare and then thanking the ladies for the honor conferred upon her in selecting her as president.

This Will Stop Your Cough in a Hurry

Save $2 by Making This Cough Syrup at Home.

This recipe makes a pint of better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 7 1/2 pints of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite, and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful.

The effect of pine on the membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norwegian white pine extract, and is rich in resin and all the natural healing pine elements.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe has attained great popularity throughout the United States and Canada. It has often been imitated, though never successfully.

Pinex is fully guaranteed by Lauer-Lewis-Drug Co. (distributors, Portland)

HERE IS THE OFFICIAL HEAD GEAR FOR ALL MOOSETTES

The photograph of a Mooseette wearing it shows how the official Bull Moose headpiece looks in action. It's the very latest in the new fall styles of millinery, and the models are on view at the New York headquarters of the Progressive party.

Burroughs, during the Pendleton Round-up, returned to her home in this city Saturday.

Mrs. Frank E. Klernan has returned to her home in this city after a pleasant visit with Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Woodruff of Aberdeen.

Mrs. L. S. Doble of Portland and her daughter, Mrs. Claude Nashburn of Marshfield, are guests at the Osburn hotel, Eugene. Mrs. Doble has almost completely recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs. J. S. Henderson has returned from Tacoma, where she visited relatives for several days.

Miss Hazel Mullen, who has been visiting friends in the harbor town for several days, has returned to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Hutton of Portland, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Oswald West and Miss Orrene Hutton, in Salem, left Wednesday for Los Angeles, where they will spend the winter.

Miss Grace Dalrymple has gone to Salem for a visit with her cousin, Mrs. J. H. Alberts.

Mrs. A. J. Roseman, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Gholson of Walla Walla, is now spending some time with Portland friends.

Miss Florence L. Kietzka has resigned her position with the Graves Music company of this city and has gone to Salem, where she has taken a position as accompanist in the Salem vocal studio.

Miss Helen Snyder of Santa Cruz, who was a delegate to the Omega Nu convocation last week, is spending this week as a guest of Mrs. C. C. Smith, 223 Twelfth street, when her daughter, Miss Alice Smith, who is a popular member of the sorority, acted as hostess.

Members of that popular sorority, the D. I. X., held a combined business and social meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C. Smith, 223 Twelfth street, when her daughter, Miss Alice Smith, who is a popular member of the sorority, acted as hostess.

The following from the Marshfield Times of recent date will be read with interest by many Portland people: "Dan E. Maloney, news editor of the Coos Bay Times, and Miss Helen A. Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bradley of this city, were married last evening at the home of the bride's uncle, Herbert Bradley, in Portland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Moran of Eugene, formerly of this city. Mr. Maloney and his bride will take a trip through California, after which they will return to Coos Bay to make their future home."

D. I. X. Sorority Meets.

Members of that popular sorority, the D. I. X., held a combined business and social meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C. Smith, 223 Twelfth street, when her daughter, Miss Alice Smith, who is a popular member of the sorority, acted as hostess.

Luncheon Club Resumes.

The informal little luncheon club, which for several years past has been one of the pleasant social features of the season for its members, resumed its regular sessions today, when Mrs. H. Holman, of 723 Oregon street, entertained for the first time since the summer vacation. Covers were laid for the eight members at a table made dainty and attractive in autumn flowers and foliage.

To Meet Mrs. Chapman.

Mrs. Simcoe Chapman, of San Francisco, formerly of Portland, is visiting in this city for a few weeks and here is being much entertained. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. W. H. Chapin gave a small and very informal tea at her home, 446 Fourth street, between the hours of four and five. Mrs. Chapman was assisted by Mrs. L. Duffman and Mrs. F. M. Luders. Tea was served during the afternoon. About 30 of Mrs. Chapman's old friends were bidden to meet her.

Personal mention.

Mrs. Nellie L. Williams, who was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ben L.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Smith are leaving the end of this month for San Diego, Cal., where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Downing have as their guests at the Portland hotel, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Baxter of Seattle. Mr. Baxter is president of the Alaska Steamship company of the Puget sound city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wood of Portland were the honor-guests at a charmingly appointed dinner given Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Morley of Aberdeen.

Mrs. Walter Bowen and Miss Zillah Bowen of Seattle, who have come to Portland to spend the winter, were the honor guests at a delightful function given by Mrs. C. W. Hibbard of West Seattle, just before their departure.

Mrs. A. W. Lane of Salem has announced the engagement of her daughter, Georgia Mabel, to Raymond H. Neuberger of Portland. The wedding will take place in this city October 22.

Miss Agnes Ford has returned to her home in Seattle, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Emil Enna. During her stay in this city she was delightfully entertained. Miss Ford is an accomplished violinist, and while here assisted her brother-in-law, Mr. Enna, pianist, by giving several selections.

Many of the new dresses combine red and blue. This combination is taken up by the Parisienne as enthusiastically as it was over a century ago by the patriots of the French revolution.

CLOCK SHOULD BE AID TO THE HOUSEWIFE

Many Short Cuts in Work Could Be Made in Day by Systematizing.

Picture an efficiency expert at work on the "system" of the average housewife! He would toss up his hands in utter horror at the waste of time and effort that had taken place in households, the head of which had been none the less "worked to death."

When an expert undertakes to re-arrange a Katty's traction service, he spends months on the preliminary investigation, watching the cars go by, timing every motion, even to the period required for the boarding and the leaving of a single passenger.

Suppose the housewife, were to voluntarily establish some such supervision of her own movements? It is likely that she would discover innumerable waste motions, ill-timed tasks and badly arranged schedules. There is undoubtedly a quicker and easier method of accomplishing many household tasks than that adopted by the majority of housewives, yet so conservative is the average woman that she would rather allow the day to slip through her fingers, robbed of many opportunities for profit, rest and recreation, than admit to herself that there could be any improvement on the traditional methods she has always followed. The kitchen clock ticks away on its shelf to little purpose, except to further discourage the tired woman, who glances at it when her work is done, only to learn that the morning or afternoon is already gone.

Yet the clock should be of great service. All tasks should be timed and the schedule adhered to as far as possible. This means that the mind as well as the body will be kept active, whereas time-saving methods and short cuts of various kinds will suggest themselves. By infusing something of the spirit of the game into household tasks the otherwise monotonous routine acquires an added interest, unbelievable to those who have not tried it.

Instead of being overtaxed, the mind is relieved in the realization that a definite amount of time has been allotted to the matter in hand. Every woman knows how hard it is to drop off to sleep when the time which can be spared for the needed rest is limited. Try setting the alarm clock, if only for 15 minutes. The effect is almost magical. The mind is at rest, secure in the knowledge that the awakening will come at the proper moment. Sleep comes without difficulty and the worker arises mentally and physically refreshed.

Experienced business men at the head of great business enterprises do not hesitate to employ efficiency experts when they feel that time is being lost in their offices and workshops. But the average woman is at heart convinced that she is herself an expert in household tasks and scorns to apply progressive methods, even though they are sanctioned by the world's captains of industry.

Health and Beauty Advice

BY MRS. MAE MARTIN

R. M. S.: Sallow complexion, liver blotches, pimples and other eruptions of the skin indicate the need of a good blood-tonic and liver-regulator. Dissolve one ounce of karene in one-half pint of alcohol (not whiskey), add one-half cupful of sugar and enough hot water to make a full quart. Take one tablespoonful five minutes before each meal. Rest and recreation, then admit to strengthen and build up the entire system.

J. W.: You can add greatly to your beauty if you rub pyroxin on your eyebrows with finger-end. This makes them grow thick and silky. Applying pyroxin at lash-roots with thumb and forefinger makes them grow long and curly. Use cautiously and don't get pyroxin where no hair is wanted.

Mrs. D.: Those ugly hairs can be quickly banished from your face with a paste made with powdered delatone and water. This paste should remain on the hairy surface two or three minutes, then rub off, and wash the face. The delatone treatment never fails, and leaves the skin free from spot or blemish.

Annette: The affliction of over-fatness is to be deplored at any age, but it is a positive calamity to a young and pretty woman to become too fat in these days when fashion decrees the slender figure the only correct one. You can reduce your weight almost at the rate of a pound a day until you reach normal in 1 1/2 pints of hot water, and take a tablespoonful before each meal. You can buy parolis from any first-class druggist. It is a harmless fat-dissolver, and those who take it marvel at its wonderful effect. It makes one look and feel younger, brighter, more buoyant and energetic.

Fannie R.: To be sure a face-lotion is better than face powder, but you will have to be careful what you use, as most "liquid face powders" contain injurious ingredients that are likely to ruin your complexion. Try this inexpensive one, which is all right: Dissolve four ounces of spruxin in a half pint of witch hazel or hot water, and add two teaspoonfuls glycerine. Rub this on your face, neck and arms, and it will give your skin a very pleasing, delicate tone. This lotion does not show or rub off like powder, and will remove that shiny, sallow look from your skin. This preparation is a wonderful skin-beautifier, and I find it excellent for rough, red or sallow skins, freckles and skin pimples.

Mrs. David O.: The only reason why many hair and scalp specialists advise against frequent shampooing is the danger that comes through the use of soap and inferior shampoos which contain free" alkali or other ingredients injurious to the hair. If your hair is thin, very dry or falls out, wash it with "stringy" and unkempt a few days after shampooing, try cleansing with a teaspoonful of canthrox, dissolved in a cup of hot water, and wash thoroughly with clear water. You can use this shampoo as often as you like, as it will benefit your hair and scalp wonderfully. It will relieve that itching sensation and make your hair beautiful, fluffy and appear twice as thick. This shampoo does not quickly remove any danger of streaking or discoloration.

Victoria: Your scalp needs a good, stimulating quinine hair-tonic to remove the dandruff and itching and falling hair. Get from any drug store one-half pint alcohol (not whiskey) and one ounce quinine, and mix it with one-half pint water, and you will have a much better tonic than any of those ready-prepared tonics you have been buying. Brush your hair daily and twice a week apply this tonic to the scalp, rubbing it in gently. This will do wonders for your dull, lifeless, falling hair, and put your scalp in a healthy condition. This tonic will make your hair soft, silky and lustrous. Keep the scalp clean by frequent shampooing with canthrox, and you will not have further trouble with your hair.

Enid S.: Your headaches and generally despondent feeling very likely come from your weak, inflamed eyes. You should attend to the matter immediately, or you may have to wear glasses permanently. Get an ounce of erysotol and dissolve it in a pint of water. Put a few drops in each eye two or three times a day, and I am sure it will strengthen your eyes wonderfully, and remove your eye troubles generally. I find this a splendid remedy. It does not smart the eyes, and is fine for dull, tired, sore eyes that have that over-worked feeling.

The Ragtime Muse

Everybody is pleased. All summer long she worked with fruit. She picked, she preserved and canned. An expert she beyond dispute. When long she toiled to beat the band. When days were warm she worked away.

She bought from bucksters, from the store. And now there comes a joyful day. When she in truth can nothing more!

She has upon the shelves put by. Against the winter long and cold. Cherries for many a luscious pie. Peaches that shine as bright as gold. Of rare preserves and ketchup, too. She has enough; her pickled beans. Will surely last the winter through. And that to us much pleasure means.

I know that joy is round the place. It floats aloft on buoyant wing; I see joy in her smiling face. And in my heart I hear it ring. All summer long she chose to spend. Her strength this store of sweets to win. She's glad that summer's at an end! I'm glad the fastings are begun!
