

LOS ANGELES STAR, ALL ABOUT 10 DAYS, IS VICTIM OF TYPHOID

Popular Outfielder Had Long and Brilliant Career in the Baseball World.

Los Angeles Ballplayer, who passed away this morning.

(United Press Local Wire.) Los Angeles, Oct. 8.—Helme Heitmuller, star batsman of the Los Angeles Coast league baseball team, died today in the Good Samaritan hospital here of typhoid fever. He had been ill for about 10 days, and was taken to the hospital just before his team left for San Francisco last week. It had been reported that he was improving from day to day and his death came as a shock to his friends.

Heitmuller had been playing in the outfield for Los Angeles and was the heaviest hitter on the team. His loss will be greatly felt by his club. He was a graduate of the University of California and first became famous in baseball as a member of the college nine. He was a member of the Philadelphia Americans in 1909.

Was Chum of Williams. Nick Williams, manager of the Portland Northwestern league club, was greatly affected when he was informed of Heitmuller's death, for they had been lifelong friends in San Francisco, later entering the University of California. "Heine was one of the best fellows in the world and a chum of mine. I never knew of a better liked ball player in the profession. He had the biggest heart of them all, and was an inspiration for the young ball player.

RUSHLIGHT TO DEMAND EXPLANATION OF KAY'S CHARGE AGAINST SETON

with blocking prosecutions in which police officers appeared against persons defended by Seton, and with having abused him more than once when he was giving testimony in police court cases.

Then Kay made the intimation that Mr. Seton had an interest in a disorderly house, and by declaring that Mr. Fitzgerald, who was in the cigar making business, had passed the word to get him off the force because of his activity in arresting offenders of the cigarette law.

Both Mr. Seton and Mr. Fitzgerald made hot rejoinders to Kay's charges this morning.

"If any minister in Portland will give me his church, or a platform, or any place whatever from which to speak, I'll answer Kay or Governor West, or any other person who makes charges against me to the fullest particular," said Mr. Seton, his voice vibrating with indignation.

"More than that, I'll open to the inspection of the ministers my private books and my two bank accounts—I haven't a safety deposit box, I can assure them—and if they find a single dollar in any of my accounts that isn't fairly and squarely and honestly gotten, I will plead guilty to anything they want to accuse me of."

Calls Charges False. Mr. Fitzgerald not only declared that Kay's charges against him are absolutely false, but made the assertion that since Kay was "broken" from Detective Sergeant to the ranks by the police committee recently, he has through his friends, made offers of political assistance to Fitzgerald if he would vote to reinstate him.

"I never saw Kay, and didn't know him until after he was reduced," said Mr. Fitzgerald. "Time and again there had been complaints against him, and when he finally used roughness in making an arrest I moved to reduce him, not even knowing whether there would be a second."

"Since then he has sent his friends to me to get me to change my vote and reinstate him. If I do this I am promised his political support—if I don't, he threatens to do everything he can to beat me."

"I consider Kay unfit to be on the police force. If I never got a vote for sheriff for 40 years, I would never vote to reinstate him to his former rank." "A whole lot has been said about the case I have had in the police court," said Mr. Seton. "In 15 months that I have been on the executive board, I have had just seven cases. And of those seven an every single one was handled for old clients whose attorney I had been for years. I have turned down many other cases, but my old clients I could not turn down. And I have never appeared in a case defending any disorderly member of the executive board. I do not get one cent of salary. Can I be expected to throw away my private practice for holding an unsalaried office?"

"Kay's charges that I have ever used undue influence to block police prosecution or that I have abused him, are absolutely false."

Explains Kay's Animosity. "Kay's animosity has been directed against me because I defended a young boy named Tweedy whom Kay and Stewart had arrested in the Milton hotel, and charged, first, with vagrancy, and then with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. The boy was in the sitting room of the hotel, with the girl, and other persons coming in and going out often, when Kay arrested him. An old client of mine asked me to defend the boy. There was absolutely no evidence for them to get married. They were sweethearts who incurred the suspicion of Kay because they thought a lot of one another.

"Kay's intimation that I have any interest in any disorderly house is wickedly false. I own two houses on East Eleventh street, and four on Milwaukee street, and I will give the number and full information to any person who wants to look them up. Moreover I challenge investigation.

"These are absolutely the only buildings that I own, or have any interest in whatsoever, as owner, tenant, or lessor, or in any other way, in the city of Portland."

COUNCILMAN'S WIFE IS TO BE ENJOINED FROM PERMITTING NUISANCE

to be made parties to the injunction suit.

Woman Owns Property. The action will be directed against Mrs. Dunning instead of against the councilman, Mr. Estery said, because she is listed in the records as owner of the property. Patrolmen Kay and Stewart, of the governor's "moral squad," who with Patrolman Mos made the raid, say their evidence shows, however, that the property was handled by Mr. Dunning and that the tenants transacted all dealings through him.

Last Thursday, Mr. Estery asserts, he sent to Councilman Dunning a notification that he had reason to believe that the Ankeny rooming house was used by its tenants for immoral purposes, and notifying him to remedy conditions at once. Mr. Dunning and his son promptly called on the prosecutor, professed entire ignorance of the condi-

ENOUGH DIRTY LINEN IN M'GINN'S COURT

"I don't want to bother with factional fights and you needn't bring your dirty linen into my court to be washed," was Circuit Judge McGinn's manner of ridding himself of the trouble of trying an extortion case against Saa Kraemer this morning. Kraemer was allowed to go on his own recognizance until the case could be reassigned to another judge and when his attorneys said he was held under a similar indictment Judge McGinn let him go on the same terms on that.

Kraemer has been held in the county jail for some time on charges of extorting money from Sam Gross and Max Wagner. The Gross indictment was to have been heard this morning. Kraemer according to the indictment extorted money from Gross by threatening to expose the fact that Gross was living off the earnings of a woman.

Members of the moral squad say that when they went to see if this had been done Saturday night, they had no trouble in buying beer and that they were escorted by the women. They declare further that following the arrest, and after the three women had been released on bail, they returned to the house and were guilty of further disorderly conduct on Sunday.

It was this violation on Sunday, as testified to by the policeman, Mr. Estery said today, that has made him determined to press the case in court. "I feel that they had two chances to remedy conditions and did not take advantage of them," declared Mr. Estery. "Neither the notice nor the raid seems to have had any effect, so I shall carry the case right into the courts. I expect sometime today to ask an injunction restraining Mrs. Dunning from maintaining a public nuisance, and restraining the inmates as well on the evidence I have and more that I expect to obtain. The action is directed against Mrs. Dunning only because she owns the property."

Attorney General to Aid. "The complaint will be signed not only by me, but by the attorney general of the state, whose office will assist in the prosecution."

Councilman Dunning was absent on business this morning, but an associate declared that a great injustice was done him.

"Mr. Dunning is absolutely innocent of any wrongdoing," he said. "He rents the rooming house, but it is not a landlord who he had every reason to believe was a responsible and trustworthy person. There was a strict proviso against improper uses of the property in the lease. He has already notified her and her tenants to move out, and since receiving Mr. Estery's notice, which gave him his first knowledge that conditions were not right, he has done everything he could to remedy them."

"How innocent he has been in the matter can be judged from the fact that he and his family occupy apartments in the front part of the house. They have had no knowledge that everything was not right."

OFFICERS ELECTED BY MULTOPOR CLUB

After a preliminary meeting several weeks ago, since which time it had remained dormant, the Multopor club took a second start last night and elected officers. The club is composed of war horse Republicans and in campaigns of several years ago was a strong organization.

C. M. Idleman was elected president, John B. Cleland vice president, L. D. Mahone secretary, John Gill treasurer, Willie Will G. Steel, B. S. Pague, S. B. Huston, J. C. Meale and William H. Galvani composed the committee on membership. Cleland, Huston and C. E. Moulton were appointed on a committee to frame by-laws.

The meeting was held at Republican headquarters in the Imperial hotel, where another meeting is to take place next Friday evening. Plans will then be taken up for active participation in the campaign.

Are You FAT?

I Was ONCE. I Reduced MYSELF

I was Fat, Uncomfortable, Looked Old, Felt Miserable, suffered with Rheumatism, Asthma, Neuralgia. When I worked or walked, I puffed like a Porcupine. I took every advertised medicine I could find. I Starved, Sweated, Fasted, Doctored and changed climate, but I steadily gained weight. There was not a single plan or drug that I heard of that I did not try. I failed to reduce my weight. I dropped society, as I did not care to be the butt of all the jokes. It was embarrassing to have my friends tell me I was getting stout, as no one knew of better than myself.

SOMETHING HAD TO BE DONE. I began to study the cause of FAT. When I discovered the cause I found the remedy. The French Method gave me an insight. I improved on that. Removed the objectionable features, added more pleasant ones, and then I tried my plan on myself for a week. It worked like magic. I could have SCREAMED WITH JOY at the end of the first week when the scales told me I had lost 10 pounds by my simple, easy, harmless, Drugless Method. It was a pleasure then to continue until I regained my normal self size. I feel 15 years younger. I look 15 years younger. My Double Chin has entirely disappeared. I can walk or work now, but ate all I wanted to. I did not take Sweat Baths. I did not drug. I used no Electricity, or harmful exercises, but I found the Simple, Sane, Common Sense WAY of reducing my weight, and I applied it. I have tried it on others. My Doctor says I am a perfect picture of health now. I am no longer ailing. I am now a happy, healthy woman. Now I am going to help others to be happy. I have written a book on the subject. If you are fat, I want you to have it. It will tell you all about my Harmless, Drugless Method. To all who send me their names and address I mail it FREE, as long as the present supply lasts. It will save you money. Save you from Harmful Drugs, Save you from Starvation Diets, Harmful Exercises, possibly save YOUR LIFE. It is yours for the asking without a penny. Just send your name and address. A Postal Card will do and I'll be glad to send it so that you can quickly learn how to reduce yourself and be as happy as I am. Write today as this advertisement may not appear again in this paper.

One of the New "Johnny" Coats. $2 White and Striped Man-nish Shirts, $1.35

Following Judge McGinn's action Judge Morrow assigned the case to Judge Gantenbein who set the trial for tomorrow morning. This afternoon Judge Gantenbein will sentence Kraemer for running a gambling house. Kraemer was found guilty on appeal from municipal court several days ago but sentence was delayed until after the trial of Meyer Kaplan. Kraemer's rival on charges of vagrancy and running a gambling house. Judge Gantenbein desired to get all sides of the factional fight. Kaplan was found guilty and sentenced to 90 days in jail and to pay $50 on the charges but

NOVEL PLEDGE ASKED OF U. OF O. STUDENTS

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., Oct. 8.—Governor West will conduct the Wednesday assembly of the university students tomorrow. His mission will be novel. It is his purpose to secure written pledges from all the university students to make an effort after graduation to repay the state for the money expended for their education. This is not to be in cash but in service. The students are to express their desire to work for the betterment of Oregon. The idea is one that may have some lasting effect through the formality of a written pledge.

S. P. Co. Fined $100.

Admitting judgment in a charge brought against the company by the government for violating the federal safety appliance act today, the Southern Pacific railroad was fined in the United States district court a sum of $100 and costs.
