

EVENTS IN SOCIETY

Luncheon and Bridge.

A luncheon of beautiful appointments followed by bridge was the means chosen yesterday by Mrs. W. W. Cotton for complimenting Mrs. S. R. Johnson, who has just returned from an extended European trip.

part in this. The closing number was suggestive of the Civil war with a tableau, solo and chorus. "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground." Different programs will be rendered this evening and tomorrow night.

First Camaraderie Dance.

The first of the series of dances which will be given during the season by the Camaraderie club, was held last evening in the ballroom of the Multnomah hotel, with an attendance of about 160.

Bridge and Cafeteria Supper.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Baum entertained last evening at their home, 674 Everett street, with a bridge party. Seven tables were used for the game, the guests pivoting, and prizes being awarded the winners at each table.

Knights of Columbus.

Portland Council 678, Knights of Columbus, will celebrate the second anniversary of "Columbus Day" at the Women of Woodcraft hall, Tenth and Taylor streets, this evening at 8 o'clock.

Personal Mention.

Miss Kathleen Furnish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Furnish, left last night for a three weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Great Falls, Mont.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. McKay have returned from a three months' trip to Prince Edward Island and several eastern cities.

Miss E. Oil & McEwen sailed on Tuesday on the Bear for San Francisco for a visit. Later she will visit in southern California, expecting to spend the winter in Los Angeles.

NURSING MOTHERS GO TO SCHOOL

(United Press Leased Wire.) London, Oct. 11.—"The royal borough" of Kensington has introduced a new feature into London life. It had three schools for mothers where any woman who is nursing her baby may obtain a dinner in the middle of the day for two cents.

PIONEER OREGON SUFFRAGIST IS HAPPY Believes Her Life's Fondest Dream Is Near Realization

Above—Mrs. Abigail Scott Dunway today and at 35. Below—House in Albany, Or., in which Mrs. Dunway lived about 1865.

WITH a life crowned with a multitude of great and noble deeds and with a mind as bright and clear as it was 50 years ago, Mrs. Abigail Scott Dunway is giving and receiving much pleasure by greeting her friends, these last few days before her seventy-eighth birthday anniversary, at her home on Clay street.

Rare indeed is the Oregonian who does not know something of the life and accomplishments of this remarkable woman. The story of her life is an additional proof of the truth of that trite axiom, "truth is stranger than fiction."

After four years spent in Lafayette, we sold our belongings and removed to Albany, where I taught for several years. I studied very hard in order to keep ahead of my pupils and after mastering simple mathematics, I managed to conquer algebra and geometry. One of my specialties was my own method of teaching grammar.

Personal Mention

R. H. Chapman, with the United States geological survey, accompanied by Mrs. Chapman, is registered at Washington, D. C., at the Portland hotel.

PUPIL OF FAMOUS DANCING MASTER

Mademoiselle Domina Marin, leading danseuse with Le Ballet Classique of the Orpheum, is a pupil of Marquette, the famous Italian dancing master. She is a child of dancers and appeared for the first time on the stage when but five years old.

The Ragtime Muse

Who does the talking? They say the barber loves to tell A wondrous lot of things; And with much speech he weaves a spell 'That round his victim clings. They say the barber talks all day; 'He filled with wisdom's spice, His words, when you shave you pay. Would give much good advice.

THERE ARE THINGS

By Graham Hood. Some persons seem to have the opinion that the number of available opportunities in life has been materially lessened during the past generation or two. We hear it asserted that the success of many of the men of today is due to the fact that they began the work of climbing at a time when there were not so many people in search of a chance to make good.

What They Quarrelled About

"What a peach that little Mrs. Mackey is!" said Paul one evening as he and his wife were walking home from a bridge party. "She had on a very pretty frock; I noticed that."

The Plymouth Scarf

Here is a scarf on "old-fashion" lines with nothing "old-fashion" about it but its grace. It is strikingly rich in appearance, yet light and warm to wear. It is easy to make and not expensive; stylish enough for an elaborate toilet, yet sensible enough for the unpretentious dress; a good, serviceable addition to any woman's wardrobe.

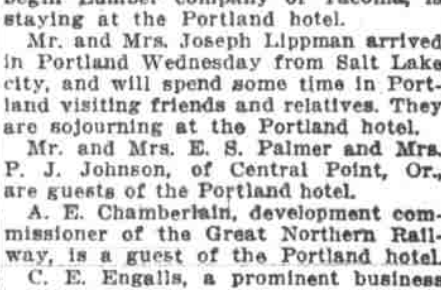

FLEISHER YARNS

The yarns whose fine soft thread and splendid wearing qualities have made them standard. Most women who use yarn use Fleisher's, because they make the best looking and best wearing garments. Always insist on the Fleisher Yarns. Look for trademark on every skein.

Crossett Almanac [for next week] THE ANSWER A good old fashioned spelling bee "Spell Comfort," quoth old Parson Lee, And each one answered readily: "C-R-O-S-S-E-T-T."
