

SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Three.)

and Mrs. R. L. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Mackie, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McBride, Dr. and Mrs. Clayton Seamon, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Thornton. The prizes at cards were won by Mrs. Evans and Mr. Carter. After cards the club adjourned to the dining room, where all were seated at a large round table for refreshments. The decorations were red roses and salvia. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Beaumont.

Miss Mame Howerton was hostess at a luncheon and hostess shower, given Wednesday for Miss Helen Mary White, a bride-elect. During the afternoon Miss Stella Dehn Strong sang most beautifully, "I Know a Lovely Garden" (Guy De Hardestel), and "Absent" (Metcalfe).

The Crystal club gave its first dance at Baker hall on Saturday evening, October 5. There was a large attendance, under the management of Makey and Neer. Weinberger's orchestra furnished music. The next dance will be given Saturday, the 13th.

Mrs. T. H. Edwards of 675 Multnomah avenue, Irvington, entertained Thursday with a luncheon of twelve covers, the honor guest being Mrs. A. C. Newell. It was a progressive luncheon, in the sense that the general conversation was women's progress, the discussion being led by Mrs. Newell. The luncheon table was decorated in golden marigolds and white daisies. After the luncheon the guests played bridge. Those for whom covers were laid were: Mrs. J. T. Jaeger, Mrs. James D. Kidwell, Mrs. Edward Munner, Mrs. F. H. Morgan, Mrs. R. D. Dunsmuir, Mrs. Paul Noland, Mrs. E. V. Ferguson, Mrs. E. E. Morgan, Mrs. H. N. Calk, Mrs. G. H. Wardner, Mrs. E. Jaeger.

Mrs. Bernd B. Buck of 898 Duncliff avenue entertained with a handkerchief shower Friday evening in honor of Miss Jessie Tohyne, who is to leave Saturday for Lewiston, Idaho, where she will be married to James Adams, and also in honor of Agnes Hesse, whose marriage to Carl Koch will take place next Wednesday. The honor guests each received a large number of dainty kerchiefs. Games and conversation made the time pass quickly and pleasantly. Later refreshments were served from a table decorated in bridal veiling and flowers. The centerpieces were a tiny bungalow with a miniature bride and groom on the veranda. Those attending the shower were: Misses Elizabeth Roberts, Jessie Tohyne, Maria Burton, Olga Cooper, Hanna Buck, Agnes Hesse, Malda Mortz, Irene Huntington, Maybelle Reed, Elsie Hesse, Anna Hochuli, Ellen Borgquist, Etma Mawer and Inez Buckner.

Monday evening, October 7, the Waverleigh-Richmond Literary club met with Miss Juell Reynolds, 495 Beag Thirty-third street. The general discussion of "Macbeth," which is being studied by the club this fall, proved very interesting. The club continues to grow, and is proving of much pleasure and benefit to the young ladies of that community.

Mrs. Jennie Hollis celebrated the anniversary of her birth on Tuesday, and in this evening she was tendered a complete and happy surprise by Oregon Rose camp, Royal Neighbors of America, at her home, 82 Alberta street. The ladies met at the home of Mrs. D. L. McGilvary, in Irvington, where in machines to the Hollis home. During the afternoon Mrs. Hollis was presented with a Haviland china tea set, Mrs. A. O. Ward making the presentation speech. Following this there was a humorous debate on woman suffrage, and a variety sketch, entitled "She Winked Her Eye at Me." This was given by Mrs. K. Cunningham and Mrs. Fredericksen. Mrs. Smock, in response to a request for a speech, spoke of "The Chickens of St. John." The afternoon to a close.

The Gregory Athletic club gave a dance at Gregory hall Thursday evening, which was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. Goldsmith's orchestra furnished music for the affair.

Lawrence Russell Allen, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen (Mary Webb), received several prizes at the county fair, recently held in Gresham.

The Beavers' campaign committee of the Degree of Honor were guests of Mrs. J. Leach at her home, 1025 Williams avenue, Tuesday evening. This committee will have charge of the work during the membership campaign, which will close July 1, 1913, and they will not be satisfied with anything less than 500 new members. A number of applications have already been received. November 1 all the lodges of the Degree of Honor and A. O. U. W. will meet in their new hall, they having leased for five years the entire third floor of the building recently vacated by Wayland & Clark, on Fourth and Washington streets. The lodges are all working on their ritualistic work, to be prepared for a large initiation.

The personnel of the committee in charge of the campaign. Following are the officers elected: President, Mrs. J. Leach, Port-Indus lodge; vice-president, Mrs. Frances Camp, Fidelity lodge; secretary, Margaret E. Herrington, Port-Indus lodge; treasurer, Mrs. Pearl Young, Taber lodge; ways and means committee, Mrs. Maude Morton, Fidelity lodge, Mrs. W. Hoffman, Evergreen lodge, Mrs. Sarah Thompson, Eureka lodge, Mrs. Pearl Young, Taber lodge, Mrs. Anna Wells, Port-Indus lodge. The visiting committee is as follows: Mrs. Mattie Griffith, Fidelity lodge; Mrs. Sarah Wagner, Evergreen lodge; Mrs. Etta Albright, Eureka lodge; Mrs. Ida Bodier, Taber lodge; Mrs. Fedelia Mann, Port-Indus lodge. The application committee is: Mrs. Edna Williams, Evergreen lodge; Miss Edna Downing, Fidelity lodge; Mrs. Cynthia Corder, Eureka lodge; Mrs. Josephine King, Taber lodge; Mrs. Rose Coulter, Port-Indus lodge. The assistance committee is: Gus Larsen, Eureka lodge; H. L. Camp, Fidelity lodge; W. H. Griffith, Fidelity lodge; Buster, Taber lodge; J. R. Mann, Port-Indus lodge; T. H. Warty, Port-Indus lodge; Dr. Deveney, Evergreen lodge.

Mrs. Allen Todd, president of the Port-Indus Shakespeare study club, was dinner hostess Wednesday evening at the Commercial club, complimenting the new officers and committee members, and the past presidents, Mrs. J. Coulson, Hare and Herbert G. Reed. Covers were laid for fourteen guests. The table being beautifully decorated in the club color, with a Shakespearean statuette, banked in roses and ferns as the centerpiece. A white rose, the club flower, and dainty souvenir placecards bearing appropriate quotations, were found at each place. Those present were: Mrs. J. C. La Barre, Mrs. J. Coulson, Hare, Mrs. Herbert G. Reed, Mrs. T. S. Townsend, Mrs. Anton Gleibisch, Mrs. W. Downard, Mrs. E. E. Jones, Mrs. Paul Noland, Mrs. E. V. Ferguson, Mrs. E. E. Morgan, Mrs. H. N. Calk, Mrs. G. H. Wardner, Mrs. E. Jaeger.

Mrs. Ella Gardner Himes of Portland was given a reception and luncheon at 2124 Warren avenue, Chicago, Monday afternoon, under the auspices of the Mary T. Hager Staff association.

Miss Gertrude Lesser was hostess at bridge on Wednesday, complimentary to her sister, Mrs. Elias Rhine of San Francisco.

The Social Five Hundred club gave its first party at the home of Mrs. Harry H. Hamilton, 786 Kerby street, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. T. D. Condon and Mrs. A. W. Schmale were the prize winners. Those present were Mrs. H. E. Kelley, Mrs. Catherine Morrison, Mrs. O. M. Allen, Mrs. A. E. Worth, Mrs. T. D. Condon, Mrs. A. W. Schmale, Miss Alice Schmale, Mrs. W. J. Royle, Mrs. Marie Beaudette, Mrs. Marie Wendell, Mrs. Harry Hamilton, Miss M. Hamilton.

One of the most pleasant outings of the season was given Sunday by Miss Olive Richards of Sumner, at Charleston Bay, in honor of her guest, Miss Florence Jennings of Portland, says the Marshfield Record. The picnic party was chaperoned by Mrs. E. G. Smith and included the Misses Florence Jennings, Rose Messerle, Agnes Matson, Emma Reed, Blanche Landreth, Mabel Miller, Gladys Roberts, Messrs. Gilbert Spreckle, Neil Watson, Karl Clinkenbeard, Rudolph Matson, George Selander, R. N. Webster, Robert Richards and Philip Landreth.

A very pleasant surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. Margaret Mackey of Spokane at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mackey, 1126 Minnesota avenue. Music and singing were the features of the evening. Prizes were given to the lucky winners. Ice cream and cake were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Kirkham, Mrs. Ollphant, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Huggbanks, Mrs. Mackey, Mr. and Mrs. P. Kirkham, Mrs. Roy, Mrs. Caster, Mrs. Dempsey, Mr. and Mrs. Monto, Mr. and Mrs. Mackey, Misses Eva Kirkham, Vera McDonald, Isay Roy, Karl Monto, Virginia Kirkham, Zella Huggbanks, Virginia Kirkham.

The members of Epworth M. E. church Sunday school gave a birthday surprise party Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Workman, 773 Roosevelt street, in honor of the twenty-sixth birthday of R. M. Speelman, who was recently appointed a lay minister and is also superintendent of the Sunday school. The evening was spent in recitations, speaking and music. Miss Beulah Workman gave a selection on the piano, Miss Stella Gray and Miss Alice Sundstad recited. Roy Benedict sang a solo, a trio was sung by Rev. Frank James, Mr. Benedict and Mr. Speelman. Miss Ruth Workman also sang a solo. Addresses were made by A. T. Workman and Rev. James, who gave a handsome gold locket was presented to Mr. Speelman. At the conclusion of the entertainment supper was served by Mrs. Workman.

Mrs. R. L. Cavanaugh, of Eastside entertained at an informal tea Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Florence Jennings of Portland, says the Marshfield Record. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Cavanaugh's hospitality were: Miss Florence Jennings, the honor guest, Mrs. W. J. La Palme, Mrs. W. Robertson, Mrs. A. Cavanaugh, Mrs. R. J. Montgomery, Mrs. Haines, Mrs. C. E. Jordan, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Neils Olsen and Miss Maggie Robertson.

Mrs. J. W. Whalley celebrated the seventy-first anniversary of her birth on Wednesday and in her honor her daughter, Mrs. J. Frank Watson, entertained with a small luncheon. Pink roses and violets adorned the table, at which covers were laid for Mrs. Whalley, Mrs. T. M. Anderson, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. J. L. Elliot, Mrs. R. G. Gilman, Mrs. C. H. Lewis, Mrs. Raleigh Scott and the hostess.

One of the most delightful card parties of the week was that given by Mrs. Chester Deering. Bridge was the game of the afternoon and the prize winners were Mrs. Frank Baker, Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, Mrs. Charles S. Banker and Mrs. A. W. Whitmar. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. F. E. Harlow, Mrs. L. A. Harlow gave several vocal solos during the afternoon. Out of town guests included Mrs. Waller Gordon Chausler and Mrs. A. R. Johnson of Los Angeles.

Delightful in every detail was the dancing party given Monday evening by Judge and Mrs. Henry E. McGilgill in compliment to Miss Mabel Shea and Roland E. Chapman, whose marriage was an event of the following evening. Garlands and greenery, crimson blossoms, glowing lanterns and red wedding bells gave the room a festive air. About fifty young people enjoyed the occasion.

Mrs. Dinemoor of Colonial Heights entertained Thursday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mr. Dinmoor. The evening was spent in playing cards, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. McCabe, 1042 Union avenue, north, entertained the ladies of the W. L. and union of the W. C. T. U. Thursday afternoon, with an "at home." There was a splendidly varied program of piano solos, vocal duets, readings and lectures, after which a social time was had, and light refreshments were served. There were about fifty ladies present, and a report on an excellent time. Next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bramhall, 1855 Garfield avenue, Walnut Park, the ladies are to give an informal tea. There will be good speeches, good readings and good music. All are cordially invited to come and help us boost for the National W. C. T. U. convention, to be held at the White Temple, October 19 to 26.

Mrs. Leslie E. Crouch entertained at her new home, 411 East Twenty-fourth street, Friday afternoon, with a "500" party. The house was beautifully decorated throughout with Oregon grape and autumn leaves. Those present were: Mrs. T. L. Gray, Mrs. T. W. Cane, Mrs. Hammett N. Lucy, Mrs. Herman Politz, Mrs. Fred Barber, Mrs. Earl Crouch, Mrs. E. O. Whittlesley, Mrs. B. E. Yomans, Mrs. F. C. Mellich, Mrs. C. E. Yomans, Mrs. W. B. O'Neil, Mrs. R. M. Lance, Mrs. F. W. Haines, Mrs. Helen Gilday, Mrs. Theodore Opsund, Mrs. J. A. Marlett, Mrs. J. Yost Jr., Mrs. D. Nelson, Mrs. C. A. Ziegler, Mrs. J. T. Kinnis, Mrs. T. Dowling, Mrs. Edith MacMillan, Mrs. J. O. Clark, Mrs. Walter Rossman, Mrs. G. W. Haines. The prizes fell to Mrs. E. M. Lance and Mrs. W. B. O'Neil.

Mrs. T. J. Dorgan of Corvallis entertained recently with a very nice party for Mrs. C. J. Anderson of Portland and Mrs. H. J. Simpson of Corvallis. Forty-five friends were present, and the evening was very pleasantly passed. Mrs. T. J. Dorgan entertaining with music and Mrs. Anderson with several solos.

Mrs. J. E. Patterson of 24 East Eighth street entertained very pleasantly the Baker Needle Craft club Wednesday afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served at 5 o'clock. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in informal conversation, and music rendered by some of the guests. Among those enjoying the afternoon were: Mrs. E. E. Angel, Miss Ethyl Angel and Mrs. Angel of Oregon City; Mrs. Banfield, Mrs. R. C. Christiansen, Mrs. Crabb, Mrs. Compton, Mrs. D. Davis, Mrs. E. Evans, Mrs. J. French, Mrs. M. Benbow, Mrs. Oliver, Miss Pearl Patterson, Mrs. T. H. Patterson of Alberta, Canada, who is visiting Mrs. J. E. Patterson.

The Tuesday Afternoon club met last week with Mrs. G. A. Johnson. The afternoon was devoted to the study of George William Curtis. Roll call was responded to with quotations from "Patriot" and "The following papers were given: 'Character Sketch,' by Miss Grace M. Amos; 'Curtis as an Orator and Writer,' by Mrs. William F. Amos; 'Literary Associations,' by Mrs. Henry Berger, Jr.; 'Drake's Culpeper,' was read in part by Mrs. A. A. Bailey. New members elected are: Mrs. R. S. Ovelman, Mrs. John B. Laber and Miss Maude Bell. The club will meet October 16 with Mrs. W. L. Marshall, 254 Stout street.

Mrs. Crowder entertained ten members on the Thibetarian club Tuesday at her home, 1072 East Salmon street. Luncheon was served, dainty place cards pointing the members to a bouquet of lovely roses was the centerpiece for the table, while the parlors were very pretty with their decorations of roses. The club will meet Tuesday, October 15, with Mrs. Joy, at 90 North Sixteenth street.

Mrs. George E. Holtzworth of 509 Henry avenue gave a house party Wednesday in honor of a few of her University Park friends. At half after a most delicious dinner was served. Those present were: Mrs. M. C. C. Mrs. W. L. Duckner, Mrs. Flora Marquitt, Mrs. H. K. Hines, Mrs. C. O. Hornung, Mrs. Richards, M. M. Conatable.

On Tuesday evening, at the home of the leader, C. A. Lewis, 111 East Conant street, was held the annual business meeting and social of the Alert Bible Club of the White Temple. The reports showed much excellent work done the past term. Over 1000 pieces of literature were distributed at local hospitals, and money enough was contributed to assist in the support of two foreign missionaries. The following officers were chosen to serve for the ensuing term: President, Holvar E. Morgan; first vice president, John C. Lewis; second vice president, J. Sloan Brennan; secretary, W. L. Bishop; assistant secretary, J. E. Masters; treasurer, Leo T. Alexander; sergeant-at-arms, C. C. McCoy; historian, Marvin Howes; teacher, Chas. A. Lewis.

The opening meeting of the Portland Shakespeare study club was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Allen Todd, 591 East Twentieth street, north, Monday, October 7. The evening showed promise of great interest and progress for the coming year. Mrs. Todd, in an able address on the benefits to be derived from the study of Shakespeare, reviewed the work accomplished by the club, expressed appreciation of the honor of being president, and paid tribute to the earnest work of the past officers.

Mrs. Julia C. La Barre, in a brief talk, touched upon the plan of study; the analytical course under the direction of Mrs. La Barre will consist of detailed analysis, class reading, literary exercises, papers and quotations from the plays of "Henry IV," "Comedy of Errors," and "Antony and Cleopatra." Mrs. Anton Gleibisch, dramatic queen, outlined work contemplated by the members of her department. It is proposed by the members of this department to give dramatic presentation of the plays studied during the year.

Report of Clatsop Shakespearean Round Table, given by Miss Nina Joy, showed gratifying success of headquarters maintained by the club during Clatsop. Reports were received from Mrs. Anton Gleibisch and Miss Anne Poyas of interesting events that transpired at the San Francisco meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The overture from "Othello" was played by Allen Todd, Mrs. P. L. Thompson and Mrs. Anton Gleibisch, accompanied by Miss Nina Joy, sang a duet. During the social hour for new officers and members, the year books, which are in brown tone, bearing pen sketch of Shakespeare as cover design, were distributed. The afternoon closed with refreshments served by the hosts, Miss Miriam Todd and Miss Dorothy Downard assisting.

Fleming-Winters orchestra. Phone A-400, B-2602.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Dingle of 651 East Ankeny street announce the engagement of their daughter, Ida M., to Otto Reimann.

FURS

Ladies, I am showing the finest line of the latest styles, which I will make to order.

At Prices Which Will Pay You to get before buying elsewhere. Reducing and remodeling at low rent prices.

A. Reiner FURRIER

Old location, 403-4 Merchants Trust Bldg., Sixth and Washington.

of San Francisco. The wedding will take place in November.

Mrs. A. W. Lane of Salem, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Georgia Mabel, to Raymond H. Neuberger of Portland. The wedding will take place in this city October 23.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. G. H. Johnson Jr. of Salem is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McElroy, at 547 Seventh street. Mr. Johnson, who is now on a hunting expedition near Cow Creek canyon, expects to join his wife early next week.

George Eben McElroy returned Sunday from Newport, where he spent a week breathing the salt sea air. On his return he visited with old friends in Salem.

Mrs. Forrest Fisher and children have returned to their home in Portland Heights after a month's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Fisher, a brother of Mrs. Fisher's, in Duane, Or.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Matthew Bowry (Miss Calla Chamberau) have returned from their wedding trip and will be at home to their friends at 88 East Fifteenth street, after October 15.

Mrs. C. E. S. Wood has returned from Ontario, Or., where she spent the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pearson, baby Virginia and Walter Pearson of Portland are visiting in Washington, D. C.

Miss Florence Jennings will return this week from Marshfield and Eastside, where she has been enjoying a delightful visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Baxter of Seattle are at the Portland visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Downing. Mr. Baxter is president of the Alaska Steamship company of Seattle.

Mrs. Jesse R. Sharp and daughters, Misses Dorothy and Constance Sharp, have returned from their year spent abroad and are at present registered at the Knickerbocker, New York City. They will not return to Portland for several weeks.

COMING EVENTS

Mrs. L. G. Clark has issued cards for a tea to be given Monday afternoon in compliment to Miss Frances Pelton-Jones.

Mrs. Mose Baruh has issued 250 invitations for a tea to be given Friday afternoon of this week at her home between the hours of 3 and 5, to introduce to society her daughter, Miss Frieda Baruh.

Cards have been out several days for the marriage of Miss LeConie Jamison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Jamison, to Mr. David L. McDaniel. The ceremony will be performed at the White Temple Wednesday evening, October 23, at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Jamison is a very attractive young lady, and has many friends in the city. Mr. McDaniel was one of the most popular members of the June graduating class at the University of Oregon. He has chosen his brother to act as best man.

The Monday Musical club has issued invitations for a reception at the Portland hotel Monday evening, October 14, from 8 until 11 o'clock.

The first of a series of "at homes" which the Scottish Rite will give during the season, will be held Friday evening, November 8, at Scottish Rite hall.

ORDER NOW

for Fall and Winter PLANTING

Rose Valley Nursery on Slavin road will soon be ready to furnish Roses, Tree Roses, Ornamental Trees, Shrubs and Hardy Plants. Good time to order now for Fall and Winter planting. Price list and further information on application.

For phone communication, call C. C. Hansberger's grocery store, Main 2533, A-2533, and leave your number or address for me to call, because Mr. Hansberger does not like my nursery stock visitors.

Rose Valley Nursery G. INDERMUHLE, Prop.

1052 Corbett Street

Give a

Hallowe'en Party!

Start the fall social activity by giving a unique Hallowe'en party! Spend a few minutes in our "Goblin Booth" and see what a splendid variety of clever novelties we have for this jolly occasion. The list below is merely a hint to what you may expect to find:

Gummed Seals and Cut-outs for use on Invitations, Tally Cards, Place Cards, etc.	100c	Hallowe'en Invitations, per dozen	50c, 50c, 75c
Black Cat, Owl, Scare Crow, Moon, Pumpkin, Witch, Cat and Moon, Autumn Leaves, etc.	150c	Clever and unique Envelopes to match	25c and 50c
Decorated Crepe Paper, per roll of 10 feet	150c	Dance Programs, Bridge and "500" Covers, dozen	$1.00 and $1.50
Showing Pumpkin, Bat, Witch, Cat, Autumn Leaves, etc.	100c	You can make your own inserts or we will make them to order at reasonable prices.
Hallowe'en Crepe Paper, per roll	100c	Hallowe'en Gift Cards, each	5c, 10c
Hallowe'en Crepe Streamers, roll	150c	Jack O' Lanterns, each	1c to 5c
Crepe Paper Napkins, 18 in a tissue envelope	100c	For electric light or candle
Crepe Paper Napkins, per in built	75c	Hallowe'en Lunch Sets, on 25c
		Large Table Spreads, each	25c
		Pecorons and Garlands, a roll	25c and 50c
		Paper Rope, 36 ft., 25c-35c-50c
		Masks of all kinds, each	up from 10c

Books for Hallowe'en

Games for All Occasions, Mary E. Blain	50c
Bright Ideas for Entertaining, Mrs. H. B. Lulcott	50c
Fables and Entertainments, Paul Pierce	50c
Fortune Teller, Napoleon's Dream Book, Napoleon's Teller and Dream Book	50c
Games for Everybody, M. C. Hoffman	50c

BOOKS, OFFICE SUPPLIES AND FURNITURE—317 ALDER ST.

held at 6 o'clock. The committee in charge of these social gatherings consists of H. P. Palmer, chairman; R. W. Schmeier, Ben Gadsby, Carl R. Jones, C. C. Newcombe, Robert S. Farrell, D. G. Tomassini, Frank Vahdoun, James P. Moffatt.

The Wednesday Evening Dancing club will hold the first of its series of dances at the clubhouse of the Portland Heights club Wednesday evening, October 30.

The Multnomah Dancing club announces its series of informal parties, to be held at Hotel Multnomah every Saturday evening during the season. The first party will be held October 26. Prasp's orchestra will furnish music for the dances.

The Professional Women's league will be addressed by Prof. Charles Zuehlke of Chicago on the occasion of its meeting, to be held at one of the local hotels, October 26.

The Crinoid girls have issued a limited number of invitations for their opening party to be given Tuesday evening, October 15, in Murlark hall, Twenty-third and Washington streets. The patronesses are Mrs. George Ford, Mrs. J. J. Murphy, Mrs. Fournier, Mrs. J. Foley and Mrs. J. B. Velewener.

The women of St. Mary's Altar guild will give their semi-annual reception in Columbus hall Wednesday afternoon of this week between the hours of 3 and 5. All members and friends are cordially invited to be present.

The East Side division of the Portland Shakespeare study club will meet Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Julia C. La Barre, 1188 Taggart street. Take W. R. car, "Henry IV," acts one and two, will be studied.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Gustafson will give a party this week in honor of their brother-in-law, at which many friends will be present. The evening will be spent in playing cards.

The Catholic Women's league will give a card party Monday evening at its new quarters in the Safe Deposit building, on Fourth near Washington street. The affair is a benefit, and is also in the nature of a housewarming.

Mrs. Emma Smith will entertain the George Wright W. R. C. at her home, 321 West Park street, corner of Clay, Friday of this week from 10 until 3 o'clock. Visitors are cordially invited.

Company B, Third Infantry, Oregon National guard, whose rifle team at the recent interstate shoot won second place for the Oregon team, is now making arrangements for its annual ball, which will be given at the Hotel Multnomah.

Abroad the latest craze in hotel tearooms is called "An Afternoon in France."

The Hotel Multnomah is the first to take up this popular entertainment during afternoon teas.

The De Lory Trio has been engaged to furnish music in the Hotel Multnomah Tearoom every afternoon from 3 until 5:30, beginning Tuesday, October 15.

Monsieur De Lory, a thorough French scholar and writer, will give short talks, reading and singing, in French, between musical selections; also talk with any of the guests, giving them an opportunity to practice and improve their French, free of expense.

This is a novel entertainment and should be an attractive way of spending an afternoon.

H. C. BOWERS

J.K. STERN

The Ladies' Tailor

Before buying elsewhere examine our materials, styles and compare prices. No chances taken in workmanship. Ten years in Portland is sufficient guarantee for satisfaction. New goods arriving daily. Make your selection now. Don't wait till the rush of the season begins.

447 ALDER STREET

MARX & BLOCH

Largest Diamond Dealers in Oregon.

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

Examine Our Stock, Compare Our Prices

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

283 Morrison 74 Third Street

will be given in Armory hall Thursday. The Bachelor Buttons club will give its next Tuesday evening informal dancing party in the East Side Woodmen hall Tuesday evening of this week.

evening, November 31. Extensive plans will be carried out to make this the most popular and elaborate military ball ever held in the northwest. Committees have been appointed to look after each part of the work. The dance will be strictly invitational, and every convenience will be afforded for the entertainment of the guests.

The Washingtonians have issued invitations for a Freshman Frolic, to be given Friday evening, November 2, in honor of the Freshman class of the Washington High school. The affair will be held at Christiansen's. The patronesses for the occasion will be Mrs. H. S. McCarver, Mrs. B. C. Clement, Mrs. S. A. Johnson and Mrs. James Lee.

The Royal Highlanders will give a series of entertainments during the fall and winter months for members and invited friends. The first of the series will be given at W. O. W. hall, 118 Eleventh street. A committee from Bonnie Rose castle will have charge of this opening entertainment.

The Decern Girls announce their "Dance of the Witches" Tuesday, October 23, Murlark hall, Twenty-third and Washington streets. Prasp's orchestra will furnish music. The patronesses will be Mrs. A. L. Lucas, Mrs. M. E. Beatty, Mrs. C. H. Beggs, Mrs. F. W. Clifford and Mrs. H. Bartholomew.

Mrs. Young can accommodate more pupils in her dancing classes. New class Thursday. High school class Friday. Informals every Monday. Call East 3119.

Mrs. Young can accommodate more pupils in her dancing classes. New class Thursday. High school class Friday. Informals every Monday. Call East 3119.

Mrs. Young can accommodate more pupils in her dancing classes. New class Thursday. High school class Friday. Informals every Monday. Call East 3119.

Mrs. Young can accommodate more pupils in her dancing classes. New class Thursday. High school class Friday. Informals every Monday. Call East 3119.

Mrs. Young can accommodate more pupils in her dancing classes. New class Thursday. High school class Friday. Informals every Monday. Call East 3119.