

OREGON ALUMNUS WANTS VARSITY TO PLAY O. A. C. FOOTBALL IN PORTLAND

That the alumni of the University of Oregon is staunchly in favor of playing the University of Oregon-Oregon Agricultural college football game in Portland, is borne out by the remarks of one of the most prominent of the alumni residing in Portland, whose expression reflects the sentiment of the local football fan and taxpayer as well as the graduate of the State university.

It is somewhat surprising when I read in The Journal that the university will reject the proposal of O. A. C. to play a game of football at Eugene this year, and here during the four years following. A statement to that effect was contained in an interview from Eugene. I hope it does not represent the sentiment of the associated students of the athletic council.

"I am only an onlooker as far as athletics go, but am thoroughly disgusted with the constant wrangling of our students with our nearest neighboring college. I am free to confess that we have two more conference games on our football schedule, and believe that Pullman and Whitman should be dropped after this year, and that our schedule should be built up around the games with O. A. C. and Washington.

"It has been suggested that we have too much athletics, but this is no argument against friendly athletic relations with our nearest neighboring college. I am free to confess that we have two more conference games on our football schedule, and believe that Pullman and Whitman should be dropped after this year, and that our schedule should be built up around the games with O. A. C. and Washington.

DOUBLE HEADER IS WON BY PORTLAND BEAVERS TAKE SERIES FROM THE ANGELS AND NOW AWAIT HAP'S HOOLIGANS.

Los Angeles, Oct. 21.—Portland is getting strong for double headed victories and yesterday the northerners copped two from the Angels; likewise the series, four games to three. This is the second series the Beavers have garnered in the south this last trip, having walloped the Seals by the same number of games as the Angels. This week they hook up with Vernon for the last series of the year and the 1911 champions have been hitting up such a terrific clip that Manager McCredie feels sure that they will edge the Hooligans out of the odd game. The scores yesterday were 7 to 4 and 8 to 4, with Gregg and Harkness on the winning ends.

Baker's Double Clinches Game. In the afternoon game both clubs were bowling along nicely with honors about to go either way until the ninth inning, when the Beavers sewed the game up for keeps. With Chadbourne out, Page juggled Krueger's line. Fitzgerald also got on by a juggle and Norton singled, loading the bases. Baker came along with a two bagger that cleaned the bases and then scored on Doane's fly to left and Lober's bunt throw to third.

In the morning game Youth Gregg was too much for the Seraphs and the heavy cannonading of the Beaver batters enabled him to win under blankets. The scores: Morning game: AB. R. H. PO. A. E. HOLLADAY ELEVEN BEATS McLAUGHLIN

Winning Touchdown Is Made in Last Minute of Football Game.

In a hard fought game yesterday afternoon on the Columbus club grounds, the Holladay Athletic club team defeated the McLaughlin team by the score of 12 to 7. Holladay's second touchdown was made in the last minute of play.

Ted Stiles, former captain of the Hill Military academy team, was the bright star of the game. He scored both of Holladay's touchdowns by going through McLaughlin's line for large gains. His punting was also a feature.

Holladay scored the first points of the game in the first quarter. A forward pass put the team within striking distance of the goal and on the third down, Stiles plowed through the line for five yards for a touchdown. On the punt out, the ball was dropped.

A recovered fumble by O'Hanlon and a 25 yard run netted the McLaughlin club its touchdown in the second quarter. Mumford kicked goal, putting the McLaughlin team in the lead, which they held till the last half minute of play.

A punt that was recovered and yardage won in succession paved way for the winning points for Holladay. On the second down with five yards to go for goal, Stiles was sent through the right side of the line and went over for a touchdown. He dragged four men across the line with him. Kick of goal was not tried. Other stars of the game were Toomey, Gianelli, Driscoll, Steele and O'Hanlon.

The lineup: POS. McLaughlin. Duffy, L. E. Everest, L. H. Elvers, L. H. Elvers, R. H. Elvers, O'Hare, Stiles, L. B. Mumford. The South Portland team defeated the McLaughlin Juniors by the score of 7 to 0. Bue's line plunging made the touchdown. The South Portland team depended on line plays for most of their yardage. The lineup: South Portland—Kurtz and Lynch, left end; McDonald, left tackle; Brackett, left guard; Nissen, center; Hinge, right guard; Maloney, right tackle; Grel, right end; Maccott, quarter; Wank, right half; Bue, fullback and Losh, left half.

RITCHIE CUTS HIS MANAGER FOR GO

Jim Coffroth Refused to Do Any Business With Billy Nolan.

(United Press Special Wire.) San Francisco, Oct. 21.—That Willie Ritchie, San Francisco contender for the lightweight championship, will soon sever business relations with Billy Nolan long enough to consummate a Thanksgiving Day match here with Ad Wolgast, is believed almost certain in pugilistic circles here today.

Promoter James W. Coffroth has flatly stated that he will do no business with Ritchie while Nolan is his manager. The plan, it is said, is for Ritchie to temporarily break away from Nolan and personally negotiate with Coffroth for the Wolgast match.

This plan probably will be carried out if Wolgast is not beaten in his 10 round match with Joe Mandot in New Orleans November 4.

Kilbane Will Be Busy. (United Press Special Wire.) New York, Oct. 21.—Johnny Kilbane, champion featherweight boxer of the world, is preparing here today for some strenuous work, his manager, Jimmy Dunn of Cleveland, having signed him up for three bouts. The first fight will be with Johnny Albanese, 10 rounds, at Columbus, Ohio, October 24; the second with Tommy Dugan, 10 rounds, at Johnstown, Pa., October 30, and the third against Oliver Kirkis, eight rounds, at St. Louis, November 4.

Nelson to Meet Baldwin. (United Press Special Wire.) Chicago, Oct. 21.—Packy McFarland, the stockyards scrapper, is peeved today at his old enemy, battling Nelson, because the Dane beat him in a desirable match with Matty Baldwin of Boston.

McFarland was figuring on the go, it is said, but Nelson stepped in and is now signed to meet Baldwin before the Pilgrim Athletic club of Boston October 29.

Willamette Wins Easily. Salem, Or., Oct. 21.—Terrific line plunging on the part of Francis and Erskine and skillfully thrown passes by Rowland were the principal features in netting Willamette a 29 to 0 victory against Chemawa on the Willamette field Saturday afternoon.

Salem high played the Willamette second team after the W. U. Chemawa game, losing by one touchdown. Neither team was strong on the offensive.

ST. JAMES FOOTBALL TEAM BEATS BROOKLYN

(Special to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., Oct. 21.—The St. James college football team opened their 1912 season yesterday by defeating the Brooklyn Tigers of Portland by a score of 23 to 0. The college boys goal was never in danger of being crossed at any time during the game.

The first touchdown was scored on a fluke toward the end of the first quarter. An easy goal was kicked. Three minutes after play had been started in the second quarter a beautiful forward pass resulted in another touchdown. The goal was missed. Another forward pass after two minutes of play brought a touchdown. Toward the latter part of the game the college boys used line plays, end runs and old style football in general and made good gains.

The Tigers, although a beaten team from the start, put up a hard fight.

CALDWELL AND WAGNER HIGH WITH 94 BIRDS

Twelve members of the Portland Gun club shot yesterday at the Kenton traps. Caldwell and Wagner were tied for high gun with 94 breaks. Conklin and Hoffman each broke 90 out of the century run.

The other scores made are: Kinner, 83; Lewis, 87; Jones, 86; Bateman, 85; Murphy, 83; Lloyd, 81; Connors, 80, and Wild, 73.

Six boxing bouts and one wrestling bout will make up the October smoker of the Columbus club, which will be held Wednesday evening in the Bungalow theatre.

Allen McNeill and Leonard Powers will furnish the top line of the card. These boys are among the clearest featherweights that ever donned their sixth, should be the best of all. Both have trained hard for the bout and each expects to win.

The other events of the evening will be O. Akensaid and F. Sommers, middleweight wrestling; Kelly and Seal, 120 pound boxing; Gruman and Bush, 125 pound boxing; Swain and Skidar, 150 pound boxing; Cy Young and J. Friedel, 175 pound boxing.

FAMOUS OLD "BOOLA" BAND REORGANIZED

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., Oct. 21.—The old "Boola" band, famous in the days of Oregon's northwest football supremacy and a northwest football "Oregon spirit," that was said to be responsible for 50 per cent of the varsity victories, has been reestablished at the University of Oregon. A musical director has been secured and regular practice will begin at once and continue throughout the year. The band will head all football rallies and assist in the rosters' section at the football games. The salary of the director will be paid at present from the rosters' fund—money that is subscribed by students and Eugene business men, and later it will endeavor to support itself by playing for special non-college functions. Its membership at present includes Rolla Ralston, Morris Hyde, Albert Johnson, Clyde Hampton, Fred Dunbar, Vernon Motschenbacher, Harold Grady, William Boone, Earl Fortmiller, John Watson, Harry Moore, Bert Jerard, Floyd, Frank Lewis, Clyde Altcheson, Bert Ruth and Ira Staggs.

C. B. Quintle Beats Beaverton. In the initial basketball game of the season, the Christian Brothers Business College defeated Beaverton by an overwhelming score of 45 to 17. A fair sized crowd witnessed the game. Burning and O'Shea starred for Christian Brothers, and Ashworth for Beaverton.

Coach Fabre accompanied the team. The lineup for the Christian Brothers was: Williams, forward; Winchell, forward; O'Shea, center; Block, guard; Burning, guard; Burke, subguard.

Gregg at Edmonton.

Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 21.—Vean Gregg, star pitcher for the Cleveland American league team, has arrived in Edmonton, carrying a contract from the Naps for 1913 and a kit of plasterer's tools. He was accompanied by his father, formerly of Lewiston, Idaho. He will go into the contracting business here during the winter and early spring months, returning to Cleveland in time for the training season. Gregg started his professional career in the northwestern states, playing with Spokane in 1909 and being sold to Cleveland. He was farmed to Portland in the Pacific Coast league in 1910. His pitching in 1911 was the sensation of Ban Johnson's circuit. Gregg led the American league that year, but did not equal his performance last season, due chiefly to a sore arm early in the summer. He was in good form at the close.

Dahlen at Brooklyn Again.

(United Press Special Wire.) New York, Oct. 21.—Despite reports that Frank Chance, recently resigned manager of the Chicago Cubs, would manage the Brooklyn team next season, President Ebbitts of the Brooklyn Nationals emphatically denied today the story here. According to Ebbitts, Bill Dahlen will head the Dodgers again next season.

Oaks and Seals Split. San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 21.—The Oaks broke even with the Seals yesterday. In the morning game, J. Baker pitched great ball, holding Oakland to three hits and winning, 3 to 1. Gregory and Olmstead allowed four hits, but three errors allowed the Seals chances to score. Pernoll was a mystery in the afternoon, Oakland winning 7 to 1. The scores: Morning—R. H. E. San Francisco 3 4 1 Oakland 3 4 1 Batteries—Hendley, Fanning and Schmidt; Gregory, Olmstead and Miltz. Afternoon—R. H. E. San Francisco 1 4 4 Oakland 7 10 1 Batteries—Henley, Fanning and Schmidt; Pernoll and Miltz.

JOURNAL EXTRAS TO CARRY ALL ACCOUNTS

● Owing to the closeness of the season race in the Pacific Coast league, The Journal sporting extra will carry descriptions of the games on each of the California diamonds for the closing week. ● Interest in the final dash is at fever heat. For the last two years the pennant has been clinched in the last week in 1910 on a Saturday and in 1911 along about Wednesday. The Beavers play Vernon at Los Angeles, the Angels play Oakland at San Francisco and the Seals play the Senators at Sacramento.

MAIL TO OREGON TRUNK GOES ROUNDABOUT WAY

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., Oct. 21.—That mail sent over the O. W. R. & N. and addressed to points on the Oregon Trunk railroad line is now being carried to Portland and relayed back again to its destination is called to the attention of the state railroad commission by the superintendent of the thirteenth division of the railway mail service at Seattle. He asks if the commission has ever considered requiring the O. W. R. & N. and the Oregon Trunk to maintain an agent where the two roads cross west of Celilo. The present conditions involve extra expense to the mail service.
