

BOB HODGE WANTS LABEL TRIED NOW

Asks Bellingham Herald to See if it Can Prove Charges Before Election.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Bellingham, Wash., Oct. 21.—The alleged "character assassinator" of Robert T. Hodge, Progressive candidate for governor, was this morning given an opportunity to prove their case against him in court before election day.

COLONEL STARTS FOR HOME; SAYS HE IS FEELING "BULLY"

Gives Cards to Nurses. Before leaving the hospital Colonel Roosevelt especially thanked Miss Welter and Miss Fitzgerald, his nurses, saying:

"Girls, if it were not for the fact that I am going home, I would want to stay here and have you care for me. I want to give you something, so you may choose anything you want from among the things I have with me."

Schrank Writes in Cell. (United Press Leased Wire.) Milwaukee, Oct. 21.—John Schrank, would-be assassin of Colonel Roosevelt is spending his time writing in his cell.

FATHER OF CRANE CALLS ON MORGAN, WHO SHOT HIS SON

(Continued From Page One.) saying: "Are you the sheriff?" Upon receiving assurance of this he made no remonstrance to the handcuffs, merely saying: "Boys, I am up against it now. Don't be afraid, for I'll not hurt you."

The father asked him how he happened to shoot Crane and Morgan replied: "I do not know for I was crazy at the time; I did not know I had shot him until I heard others say so."

RYAN AND PERKINS TELL OF GIFTS TO CAMPAIGN OF 1904

Cross examined by Senator Pomeroy of Ohio, Ryan said he knew Judge Parker could not win before he was nominated, but gave $300,000 to Parker's campaign even after he realized that the prospects of his election were hopeless.

PLON BEGGER FOR VARIOUS CONTRIBUTIONS

Perkins testified that he had contributed this year as follows: Perkins' Contributions. To the New York state convention, $15,000; Treasurer Hooker, $2,500; Washington office, $32,500; for taking polls of New York, $16,000; sent other states, $19,500, and Edwin Sims, $17,500.

When asked regarding the report that he had underwritten the Roosevelt campaign for $3,000,000, Perkins said: "That statement ought to rank at the top of the long list of unmitigated lies. Senator Penrose ought to be made to prove it or take it back like a gentleman. There is not one particle of truth in it."

CALIFORNIA ORATOR TO SCORE BULL MOOSE AT MEETING THIS EVENING

CARRIES LA FOLLETTE STRENGTH

"The action of Rudolph Spreckels, Senator Works and other leading friends of the Wisconsin senator, in coming out for Wilson has carried nearly the entire La Follette strength in California over to the Democratic candidate. George L. Johnson, father of Governor Hiram Johnson of California, is at the head of a movement among Republicans in Sacramento county to vote for Wilson. A nephew of Governor Johnson is now stumping the state for Wilson.

TWO HOTELS RAILED BY OFFICER TOM KAY

Fines of $20 were given four persons and the bail of four others was forfeited this morning in the municipal court as the result of a raid by Tom Kay, special state officer, on the Dentley rooming house at 244 1/2 Fourth Street Saturday night. City Patrolmen Stewart and Moe assisted in the arrests.

Kay has had the place under surveillance several days. He reports seeing girls going from the rooming house to Denny's grill, which is near by, taking men with them. Saturday evening the officers saw three of the girls arrested makes several trips between the two places.

Clara Riley and Emma Hogan, caught in the raid, say they are waitresses and room at the Dentley place. Ray Nicholson and W. R. Cooper, two of the prisoners, admitted rooming in the place. The judge suspended the fine against the girls, the two men paying their own fines. S. Beckman, Myrtle Beckman, A. H. Johnson and Ruth Davis did not appear in court, and their bail of $25 in each case was forfeited.

Kay also caused the arrest of Mrs. Wilson, owner of the Plaza hotel at 207 1/2 Third street, on a charge of conducting a disorderly house. In a raid on this place, the officers arrested Alice Murray, Hazel Middleton, Fred Deboia, Frank Mitchell, Peter Murphy and Charles Ford. They will be given a jury trial Tuesday in the municipal court. City Officers Stewart and Moe assisted in this raid.

MOTOR CAR BANDITS USE BOY

Paris, Oct. 21.—Another gang of motor car bandits are operating in the outlying districts of Paris. Several cafes and shops have been burglarized, the outlaws carrying off their booty in a 40 horse power machine.

It has been learned that they are using a small boy, who, like Oliver Twist, is shoved through holes made in the windows, and then opens the doors for his masters. Threatening letters sent to the chief of detectives indicate that they are desperadoes of the Bonnet type.

VERA OLCOTT, DANCER, WEDS MILLIONAIRE

New York, Oct. 21.—An exceedingly strong liking for one of her hundreds of admirers and an equally strong dislike for chaperonage Saturday sent Vera Olcott, 17 years old, one of the most popular dancers of Louis Martin's cabaret, to the Little Church Around the Corner, where she became the wife of Alf. Oscar Wyller, a millionaire contractor of Chicago.

Mr. Wyller has been seen with the

UNCLE SAM TAKES NO NOTICE OF BALKAN WAR

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, Oct. 21.—Uncle Sam will not even dignify the war in the Balkans with a proclamation of neutrality. State department officials said this formality was not necessary, it being assumed that this nation is neutral, and the only occasion for issuing a proclamation would be to warn American citizens to maintain a neutral attitude. Thus far no citizens of this country have shown a disposition to mix in the near eastern combat. Ambassador Schurman, at Athens, has notified the department of the Greek declaration of war and the Greek legation here has also notified the department. Beyond that, Uncle Sam has no official information.
