

SEES SCHEME TO BLOCK FRANCHISE

P. R., L. & P. Seeking to Shut Out Heuser; Says Nolte; Call Meeting.

That the Portland Railway, Light & Power Co. is laying a track on Maryland and Patton avenues on the Peninsula to block the Heuser franchise, is charged by J. H. Nolte, president of the North Portland Commercial club. In order that the members of the city council may know how the Peninsula people stand on granting a franchise for the independent line, Mr. Nolte has called a meeting tomorrow night at the Albina fire hall, on Killingsworth avenue.

All the members of the city council are expected to be present and Mr. Nolte has appointed a committee of 50, representing all the different interests on the Peninsula, to be present and advance arguments in favor of the Heuser franchise.

All Seventh street property owners also are urged to be present. "We believe that it is absolutely for the interests of the entire Peninsula, as well as for the city at large, that this franchise be granted," Mr. Nolte said, "and we intend that the members of the council shall understand fully the wishes of the Peninsula property owners in the matter."

At a largely attended meeting called by the North Portland Commercial club Friday night, in the Albina fire hall, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the sense of this meeting is that the Heuser franchise is entirely his heartily endorsed and that a committee of 50 or more be appointed by the president to wait upon the mayor and council to urge the speedy granting of said franchise."

J. E. Werlein, representing the Portland Railway, Light & Power Co., and H. Strong, for the Seventh street property owners, told the meeting that they would support the Heuser franchise, providing the interurban traffic would be kept off Seventh street south of Flanders. The Commercial club agreed to recommend this to the city council.

GIRL SHOTS WHEN MAN FAILS TO KEEP HIS PROMISE TO WED

Three shots were fired by Elma Anderson last night at Joe Nichols, a Greek, in her room at 206 Thirteenth street, when he told her their marriage could not take place as planned. Neither shot hit the man, as he ran into another part of the house. In the municipal court this morning the girl became hysterical when Nichols said he would marry her.

Evidence gathered by the police is to the effect that Nichols has known the girl two years, visiting her very frequently during this time. She says he has promised upon numerous occasions to make her his wife. He is a waiter. Judge Farwell continued the case until the girl can compose herself, thereby allowing the officers further time for investigation. She is 22 years old.

TOO MANY IRONS IN THE FIRE NOW

Government Cannot Now Well Undertake More Irrigation Projects.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Oct. 21.—That the western states can look for little aid from the federal government in laying out new reclamation and irrigation projects preparatory to the opening of the Panama canal, is the opinion expressed today by Secretary of the Interior Walter L. Fisher.

The secretary is spending two or three days in Los Angeles before starting east. The federal government, Fisher says, is tied up in present projects which will cost many millions and to enter into further irrigation schemes would necessitate the issue of bonds, which he does not believe would be feasible.

In preparing for the expected rush of immigration which will follow the opening of the "big ditch" Fisher said, the western states will have to depend on their own resources.

DEPOSED DIAZ IS LIVING IN POVERTY

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Oct. 21.—Mrs. Alec Tweedle, historian and biographer of Porfirio Diaz, former president of Mexico, today arrived from England with the news that the aged ex-president and his wife are living in Paris in poverty.

"When I was last in Paris I visited Senor Diaz and his wife. They are very poor. They live in two small rooms in a Paris hotel. They have no money. They lead a simple life, and they are proud of their poverty. Senor Diaz, despite his age, is vigorous mentally and physically. He is deaf in one ear. He told me he was unhappy over the situation in Mexico. His heart and interests are there and Mexico has never had one moment's peace since he left."

SALEM PAROLED CONVICT CONVICTED AS HOLDUP

(Special to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., Oct. 21.—Immediately following the conviction of Dave Miller on a charge of holding up and robbing A. D. Dietz of Spokane, and his sentence to Walla Walla to from two to 15 years, Chief of Police Doust this afternoon received a letter from prison officials of Salem, Or., stating that Miller is a paroled convict from the penitentiary at that place. The Salem penitentiary authorities want Washington to waive all claim on the prisoner and return him to Salem, where he still can be compelled to serve seven years. Miller got diamonds worth $150 from Dietz at the point of a gun.

IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT WATCHES SOCIALISTS

(United Press Leased Wire.) Berlin, Oct. 21.—That it will appeal to the imperial government to step in and take charge if the Social Democrats go too far, is the implied threat of the government of the little German principality of "Schwarzburg-Rudolstadt."

The Socialists are in complete control of the "diet," or legislature. They

PROGRESSIVE TAG DAY OPPOSED BY GAYNOR

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Oct. 21.—Prominent women of the Progressive party, including Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, will be prevented by the police from observing their "Founders tag day" in New York next Saturday if Mayor Gaynor adheres to the declaration he has made. The mayor said he believed the proposed tagging was the same as begging and illegal. Therefore, he said, he could not issue a permit for it. If necessary, he said, he would instruct Police Commissioner Waldo to see that his order forbidding it was obeyed.

In answer, Miss Clara B. Morrison, in charge of the New York city arrangements, announced that she would personally demand permission to hold the tagging from Mayor Gaynor and that whatever his decision, the plan would not be abandoned.

"Founders day" will be observed nationally by Progressives on Saturday, October 26, the day preceding Colonel Roosevelt's birthday.

"It is purely a sale proposition," declared Miss Morrison. "We will have the tags for sale, and all who desire to

GASOLINE EXPLOSION IN PETALUMA BURNS 200

Petaluma, Cal., Oct. 21.—Answering an alarm turned in when an automobile standing in front of a garage caught fire, more than 200 prominent men of this city are today suffering from burns caused by the machine exploding and hurling blazing gasoline among the crowd. At least 25 persons, including Mayor William H. Zartman, were seriously hurt.

Soon after the crowd gathered to assist the firemen there was an explosion, followed by frantic screams, as the men fought to divest themselves of their burning clothes when the ignited gasoline sprayed them from head to foot.

Many persons, attracted by the cries of the injured, rushed the victims to the hospital. Cots were set up in the halls and every doctor and nurse in the city pressed into service. All the injured will recover, but many will be permanently maimed or disfigured.

purchase them may. We will not tag anybody unless they request it, and the money which accrues from this affair will be used for campaign purposes."

take a keen delight in cutting down the state budget, and everything that pertains to needs of the princely ruling house. It is feared that they will pass no budget at all. As the treasury will soon be empty, officials close to the government have given forth the intimation that the Kaiser will be called upon if the Socialists do not get busy.

Jefferson Chandler Dead.
(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 21.—Jefferson Chandler, a prominent Democrat and personal friend of William J. Bryan, is dead here today, aged 75. Chandler was prominent in Missouri politics and campaigned for Bryan in the latter's first campaign for the presidency. He came here from St. Joseph, Mo., two years ago, in failing health.

SENATOR BOURNE VISITS ASHLAND CONSTITUENCY

Ashland, Or., Oct. 21.—United States Senator Jonathan Bourne, Jr., arrived here this morning and will meet the citizens at an informal non-political reception at the Oregon hotel this afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock. Senator Bourne says he wishes simply to ascertain the citizens' wishes as to his future course if reelected a member of the national congress.

An Exhibition of C. B. Corsets Showing All the Latest Models

—To many women the dictates of fashion are tabooed the moment they infringe on their rights of comfort. Especially is this true of corsets. A woman will cling to a model that is comfortable, even though she realizes it is passe, but let her once be convinced that ease can be combined with style, and she hails the advent with delight.

—The C. B. Corsets are designed with this point in view; for plump figures exacting comfort—for slender figures desiring fashionable lines—for medium figures.

—C. B. Corsets come in twenty-four different models for every type of figure. The following are only a few of the many styles.

Style No. 215 C. B. Corset $1.00

—Made of coutil with girde top, extremely long over the hips. Finished with a silk edging. Two pairs of hose supporters attached on front and side. For slim or medium figures.

Style No. 486 C. B. Corset $1.50

—This corset is made of coutil, finished at the top with ribbon and lace. Has low bust, extremely long over the hips. Two pairs of hose supporters. Draw string in the bust. This model is for medium figures.

Style No. 505 C. B. Corset $1.75

—This model is for medium and stout figures, and is made of a heavy coutil, double boned and graduated front clasp. Extremely long over the hips. Two pairs of hose supporters attached.

Style No. 529 C. B. Corset $2.00

—A model designed especially for tall and medium developed figures. Of coutil with double bone and draw string in the bust. Three pairs hose supporters attached. Medium bust, extremely long below the waist and long over thighs and hips.

Style No. 783 C. B. Corset $3.50

—A model for medium and full figures; of fine coutil with low bust, extreme length over the hips and back, with wide elastic strap to confine the figure. Three pairs hose supporters. Lace and ribbon at top.

Style No. 868 C. B. Corset $5.50

TRUTH ABOUT BOURNE'S PETITION

Genuine and Spontaneous Was the Call for Jonathan Bourne, Jr., to Become the Candidate of the Believers in Popular Government.

Never before in the history of Oregon or any other state was such a large petition prepared in such short time and at so little expense. And this petition could not have been secured so quickly but for the widespread desire of the people that he become a candidate for the good of the state.

Just to make the matter plain, here is the history of the Bourne petition:

On Tuesday, September 24, 1912, a form of petition was taken to Salem and submitted to Secretary of State Ben Olcott for his approval to ascertain whether it conformed to the legal requirements. Having been checked over by Mr. Olcott, this approved form of petition was brought to Portland and placed in the hands of the printers. By 4 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, September 25, several thousand copies were ready. This was the day and time when the actual circulation of petitions for signatures commenced.

On Saturday, September 28 (three days later), 12,000 signatures had been placed upon the petition. By Monday, September 30, there were 14,000 signatures. The petition was filed with the Secretary of State on Wednesday, October 2, and there is on file in his office this petition containing 16,221 names.

After the legal time for filing petitions with the Secretary of State had expired, petitions continued pouring in from all parts of the state until there have accumulated many thousands of names. There is every reason to believe that if ten days' more time had been available in the circulation of petitions, there would have been presented to the Secretary of State a petition containing 40,000 signatures.

Of the 16,221 names on file, 10,221 were secured by volunteer circulators, only $300 being paid for the remaining 6,000, at five cents a signature. The great bulk of the petitions circulated did not cost a cent.

Neither Colonel Roosevelt, Senator La Follette nor President Taft had petitions prepared so quickly in the primaries. There was no army of volunteer workers willing to circulate the petitions for the presidential nominees, and yet Colonel Roosevelt, Senator La Follette and President Taft have powerful following in Oregon.

Bourne's petitions were so quickly filled because the people realize that he is a business asset to the state. He has done things for Oregon. He has made good.
