

Seek Girl Whom Jack Johnson Lured Discover Parallel to Cameron Affair

Government Agents Trying to Find Other Alleged Victims of the Pugilist.

(Collected Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Ill., Oct. 26.—Investigation was begun tonight in Chicago and New York by government agents who were seeking a girl who is said to have had an experience with Jack Johnson, nearly parallel with that of Lucille Cameron, the pretty Minneapolis girl whose mother started the machinery of the law in motion weaving about the negro pugilist an entanglement that is expected to bring about his prosecution on serious charges.

The girl is believed to be with a part of the recently scattered Chicago underworld or somewhere in the territories of New York. She was discovered by Johnson in Milwaukee, according to information given the government agents late today, by a woman. Johnson and the girl were together on several trips about the country, the informant said, and her mother finally located her here in an apartment richly furnished by Johnson.

The mother's pleas that Johnson give up her daughter were unheeded, the woman said, and she stuck by the pugilist, until he tired of her and stopped his attentions and his support.

While the agents of the government were obtaining this information District Attorney Wilkerson was reading a letter from Attorney General Wickersham instructing him to use all the resources at his command to learn what he could of Johnson's conduct with young white girls, and to make his investigation complete.

The United States grand jury will resume its investigation Monday and it is expected that an early indictment against Johnson will be returned, after which other ramifications of the alleged white slave plot will be traced.

WILSON SEES THE ORANGE-BLACK BEAT DARTMOUTH

Governor Attends the Princeton Football Game and Cheers the Tigers on Their Winning Way.

(Collected Press Leased Wire.)
Princeton, N. J., Oct. 26.—For two hours and a half this afternoon Woodrow Wilson forgot that he was a candidate for president of the United States and became a genuine Princetonian who responded to the thrill of a football game between his college and an old rival, a contest that zig-zagged between defeat and victory.

Accompanied only by a personal friend, Governor Wilson attended the Princeton-Dartmouth game. His ticket called for a seat in the reserved section but when he discovered this he walked around the field to the unreserved, "cheering" section where the Princeton students and "grads" were assembled to the extent of several thousand. He was loudly cheered and applauded when he appeared.

Wilson Cheers Tigers.

"It was an admirable game," said the governor, after he had palpitated with fear when Dartmouth made the first score and had clapped his hands with joy when Princeton overtook her rival and won by 22 to 7.

"I hadn't seen a game for more than a year, and I enjoyed it keenly. It was exciting, though, and kept me in suspense."

Asked if he had participated in the cheering, Governor Wilson said: "Only in spirit. I couldn't use my voice, for I'm saving it for other purposes."

Then he strolled through the little town which was crowded with visitors in high place, and was stopped every few feet by friends who wanted to shake hands with him.

Governor Wilson's speaking itinerary for next week was announced today as follows:

Program for the Week.
Monday noon, Westchester, Pa.; Monday night, League of Independent Republican Voters at Academy of Music and Democratic mass meeting at convention hall at Philadelphia.
Tuesday evening, First Regiment Armory, Newark.
Wednesday noon, Wildwood, N. J.; evening, Burlington, N. J.
Thursday evening, Madison Square Garden, New York.
Friday, Rochester, N. Y.

CATARRH MISERIES ENDED. A SIMPLE SAFE REMEDY GIVES INSTANT RELIEF

Cures and Prevents Catarrh and Cold in the Head With a Few Applications.

The quickest, best and safest way to cure catarrh of a cold in the head is by using a remedy that will "touch the spot" and do its work quickly without leaving any bad effects. Ely's Cream Balm, which is applied to the nostrils or rubbed on the throat or chest gets right at the root of the trouble and instantly relieves even the worst case of catarrh or cold. A few minutes after applied you can feel a loosening up in the head, the pain and soreness are gone, the sense of taste, smell and hearing comes back, and you feel like a different person.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, heals and strengthens the inflamed membranes, takes away that stuffed up feeling and dull pain in the head, relieves the throat soreness and stops the nasty discharge which is the cause of the disgusting hacking, spitting, blowing of the nose, and foul breath. Hay fever victims who are made miserable by fits of sneezing, coughing and wheezing get instant and permanent relief by the use of this simple remedy.

Don't suffer another minute. Ely's Cream Balm will relieve you immediately, and a 50 cent bottle will more than likely work a complete cure. All druggists sell it.

MILE-LONG PARADE TO START GREATER PORTLAND RALLY

Prominent Men Will Make Addresses and Committee Expects 10,000 People at the Monster Celebration.

Plans for a mile-long parade with a brass band, for a program of addresses by well known speakers, and for an attendance of 10,000 persons interested in the "better building of the bigger Portland," were made by the rally day committee of the Greater Portland Plans association at a luncheon in the Commercial club yesterday afternoon. The rally will be held at 7:30 o'clock next Wednesday night at the Gipsy Smith auditorium.

It was announced by Frank C. Riggs, president of the Rotary club, that automobiles would be furnished to make the parade two miles long if necessary. The parade committee composed of S. S. Hewitt and L. F. Risinger report that plans arguing for the Greater Portland ordinance, No. 135, on the ballot for November 2, and for red fire to read them by will be provided in abundance.

Ellie P. Lawrence, chairman of the rally day committee, announced complete preparations for the program, as follows:
Invocation, Archbishop Christie; brief explanation of the Greater Portland Plan by Marshall N. Dana, with slides shown by the aid of Howard Everts Wood; "Portland Planning and Living Conditions," Rabbi Jonas B. Wise; "How the Northwest Views the Plan for Portland," President Stephen B. L. Penrose of Whitman college, Walla Walla; "The Portland Plan Under Commission Government," Richard W. Montague; "Water Terminals and Harbor Development," Joseph N. Teal; "Transportation by Roads," Frank Branch

Riley; "The Portland Plan's Relation to Public Recreation," L. H. Weil; vocal selections by Rose Bloch Bauer and the Ad club quartet.

A great amount of interest in the plan for the rally, which is to include the annual election with the stimulating of interest in the plan and the ordinance providing its official recognition, was shown by the committee members yesterday. So large was the attendance that seats could not be found for all.

Each one present gave suggestions and offered ideas for making the rally at the Gipsy Smith auditorium a great success. A number of special committee appointments were made. Orders were given for the printing of thousands of placards, posters, cards and stickers. The inaugurating of a cartoon contest in the Ad club was announced by W. A. Markert.

By vote of the committees present it was agreed to continue to hold joint committee meetings every second and fourth Saturday, and for individual committees to meet regularly once a month at the call of the chairman. On the back of the cards to be circulated is to be some verse by Dean Collins, which reads as follows:
"Wake up a bit, my Portland friend,
And as you boost for farm and tillage,
Don't overlook the fact meanwhile
That Portland's not a brushwood village;

Remember, as the seasons go
The just as well for you to figger
That Portland's bound to grow and grow
Forever bigger, bigger, bigger.

And when she strikes the million class
Oh, tell me, wouldn't it be bitter
If we had left her streets and squares
Too doggone small and thin to fit her?"

Then hit the highway for the polls,
Assure your city's growth forever;
Endorse the Bennett Plans and be
A first-class little boosting lever.

EAST SIDE VOTERS OUTNUMBER WEST SIDE TWO TO ONE

According to the changes of address submitted by voters who registered last spring and moved after registration, Portland's population is eastward bound, for by far the majority of the changes were from west to east side precincts. This change in the population is an indication that the contention of East Side dwellers that East Portland is to be the Greater Portland, has good foundation. Registration, since the primaries, also shows that East Siders outnumber West Siders two to one; 5277 registered from the East Side to 2281 from the West Side, and 779 from the country. From April 24, when registration opened after the primaries, to October 19, when it closed, there were 8617 registrations, making a total for the year of 52,209.

In making a report to Secretary of State Olcott regarding the registration since the primaries, County Clerk Fields showed that 1739 are Republicans, 2083 are Democrats, and the remainder are scattered.

988,706 REGISTER FOR CALIFORNIA ELECTIONS

(Collected Press Leased Wire.)
Sacramento, Cal., Oct. 26.—Figures compiled today by Secretary of State Frank Jordan place the total number of registered voters in California at 988,706. The compilation falls below the estimated registration, but exceeds by 200,000 those entitled to vote in 1910, when women were not included.

As Secretary Jordan made no segregation in compiling the figures, it is impossible to determine the total number of women in the state who are entitled to vote. He believes that about 50,000 Californians out of the 988,706 registered will vote for president November 5.
