

THE TURBLE TALES OF KAPTIN KIDDO

Oregon Journal

Comic Section

Written by MARGARET G. HAYS

Pictured by GRACE G. DRAYTON

Copyright, 1912, by The North American Company.

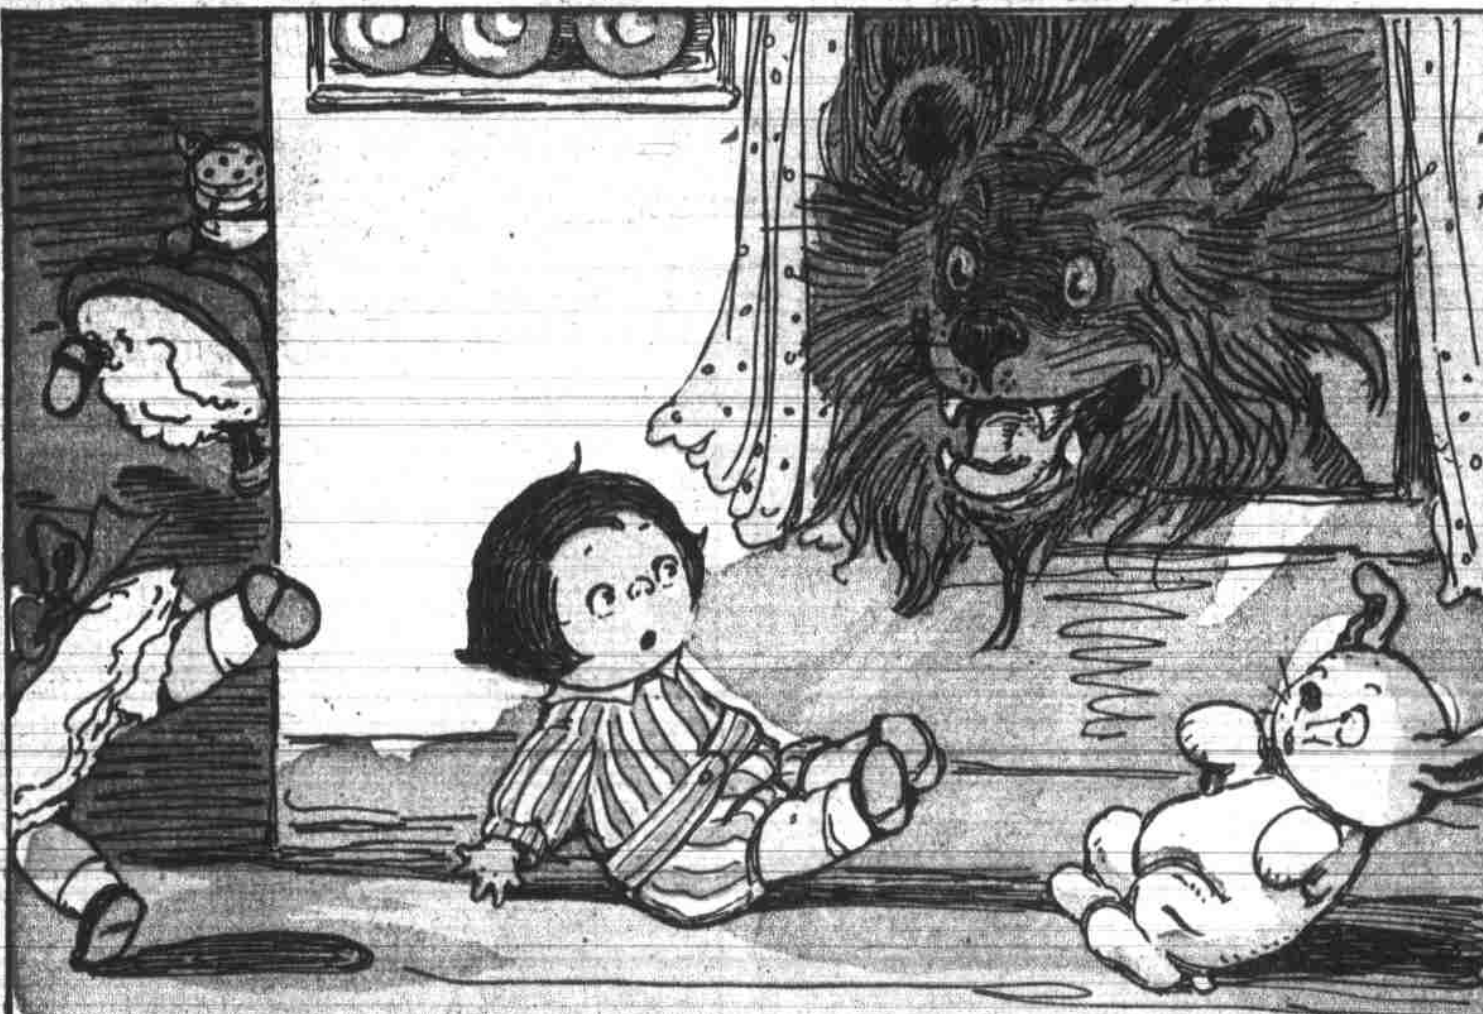

PORTLAND, OREGON, SATURDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 2, 1912

Me'n Puppo goed to see a magnificent p'rade, an' ther' was lots o' peoples to it an' 'ey had us up on a band waggin'—an' ther' was lots o' music 'cause—'cause it was a—a—norgan-ration—no—a organ-nation p'rade—an' ther' was efelunts—an'—an' mooses—an' possums an' eve'thing jus' like a circus.

An' peoples was cheerin' an' shoutin'—an'—an' sayin', "Hurray for the Organ-nation P'rade!" An'—an' we stopped orf at Gwendylin 'Vangelin' May's house 'cause she had a magnificent party 'cause it was the cook's 'ittle girl's b'irthday, an' she had a chock'let b'irthday cake to match the cook's 'ittle girl—wif six can'les all lighted onto it.

An' ther' was a—a—lion gotted 'way from the Zoo-largical Gardens an' he comed in—he comed in froo the pantry winder—an' he sed, "Arool Arool Arool!" orful fierce an'—an' savagiferous—an' ever'buddy was scared an' hidet x-cept me—I—er—I—I was goin' down the cellar ennyways wif Gwendylin 'Vangelin' May.

An'—an'—afterwhiles we goed up steps an'—an' ever'buddy was gonet 'way 'xceptin' the lion, an' he was sound asleep—an' he was orful fat—an'—an' I taked the—er—the cake knife—an' I—er—I cutted his head orf right—spang—zang—orf—an'—an' out comed the kitty cat an' the cook's 'ittle girl an'—an' Puppo—an' what-che-know-'bout-'at?

'En we called Gwendylin 'Vangelin' May's cook what had gonet upstairs for a nap—an' she sed I was a big marvellous hero to safe her 'ittle girl—an' the chock'let b'irthday cake an' all the can'les was all gonet. I 'spect the ol' savagiferous lion must o' chewed—he must o' chewed some on 'at.

So we goed back to the Organ-nation P'rade 'en—an' all o' the peoples cheered an' waved an' putted an' an' Puppo in a throne in the White House an' 'ey sed Puppo's the Advice Precedent—an' ever'buddy sed, "Who's the Precedent?" An'—an'—ever'buddy else sed, "Hail the korn-curing hero comes! You is the best Precedent what never was! Oh you Kiddo!"

(Copyright, 1912, by The North American Company.)