

provements and extensions. The amendment giving property own-ers thirty days' time instead of ten for filing applications for bonding street and sewer assessments, was passed by a vote of five to one.

oath. The bill to permit property owners to bond their property for street exten-sions was also adopted by a heavy vote, he proportion of those in favor to hose against being two to one. Abolition of the present system of viewing street extensions was also effected, the amendment providing that ent, and second, he charges that I viothe city engineer shall assess damages lated the corrupt practices act by send-and benefits for all streets to be ing to sixty thousand voters in the opened in the future, carrying by a state a circular letter attacking him handsome majority,

That Portland does not need a city prosecutor to handle the criminal busi- notwithstanding the fact that he had ness of the city attorney's office was likewise emphatically made known, three times as many voters being opposed to the creation of the office as quotes from two sections of the corwere in favor of it.

An amendment to the Zeigler law was adopted by a two-to-one vote. The amendment permits the vacation of pub- to, and that I did not file a statement of lic streets within the 2000-foot limit of the expense, nor deliver Bourne a copy the harbor line when the vacation is for thereof, which Bourne says I should public purposes and when the abutting have done under the law. property on both sides of the street is owned by the city.

ARE YOU INFORMED?

Do you know who are the candidates for office upon whom you will vote next Tuesday?

Are you acquainted with the 41 special measures that will be presented to you?

You should be-it is your duty.

On next Monday, the day prior to election day, THE OURNAL will reprint the state ballot that no reader will have to go to the polls in ignorance of the people and prop-ositions that confront him practices act, Ben Selling has written a letter denying the violation either rally of Oregon Democrats in the Armory last night. The sensing of conditions about to be in spirit or letter. Counter charges are made that Bourne not only violated the provisions of the act in 1910, but that reversed spoke out in a storm of ap-proving applause when that part of Woodrow Wilson's "before the battle" message containing the words, "For the he even admitted such violation under Mr. Selling's letter follows: "To the Editor of The Journal-In last half generation the government at Washington has not been conducted from the point of view or in the inter-The Journal of yesterday is contained a communication from Senator Bourne, in est of the people of the nation," was which he directly and by innuendo makes the following charges against read by John H. Stevenson. The addresses of the mass meeting me: first, that I am his chief oppon were made to lead up to a climax like survey of the local, state and national lated the corrupt practices act by sendpolitical situation. The vocalized, hand smiting applause that greeted the statement of the Demand making the false assertion that he, ocratic candidate for congress, Judge M. Bourne, was not a resident of the state, G. Munly, that cost of living and lessening of liberty are due to a moneyed lived here 34 years, and that with the oligarchy which Republican administraletter I enclosed a stamped and adtion has fostered, was called forth at the dressed envelope for a reply. He then appearance of Harry Lane, Democratic candidate for senator, and again when rupt practices act and charges that I expended from six to ten thousand dol- Senator George E. Chamberlain stood lars in circulating the letter referred before the people.

the meeting over, but it wasn't. Tom "In reply to these charges I wish to say that Mr. Bourne by making these Word, the Democratic candidate for sheriff, had been sitting well toward charges at this time evidences an utter the front on the platform. From the lack of good faith, as I shall show in departing crowd a hundred voices shoutlack of good faith, as I shall show in this letter. I distinctly and positively ed for him. The people hesitated. Word "On election day deny that I have in any way, manner or spoke one sentence: form, either violated or evaded either the elements of vice and corruption the spirit or letter of the provisions will be solidly arrayed at the polls the elements of vice and corruption of the corrupt practices act. During against me; will you, who represent the campaign of 1910 it was charged by true citizenship, be as solidly arrayed a large number of campaign speakers for me?" In response, a whole chorus that Bourne was a non-resident of the of "We will."

Judge Munly briefly described his state and that his wealth was invested in cotton mills in Massachusetts. These charges were also included in newspaper articles which were published in many newspapers throughout the state.

Wrote to People. "I was not actively a participant in half of his private clients. the campaign of 1910, but like every other voter, I knew that Bourne was charged with being a non-resident and

(Continued on Page Four.)

Dr. Lane Speaks. Harry Lane was introduced by Bert E. Hahey, chairman, as "one of three candidates for United States senator having his property rights in other states, and I also knew that a very who alone has no writhings and explainlarge number of people of Oregon felt ings of past conduct to make, but who that these charges were well grounded stands on a past and present record of the last rites attending the burial of his and that Oregon should have as its Senunflinching honesty and outspoken loy-ator a man who not only lived in Ore-gon, but whose interests were here. I He predicted that Woodrow Wilson tent in my e have been consistent in my support of will receive the electoral votes of Ore-the Direct Primary Law and Statement son, that he will be elected president No. 1, and sm a firm believer that of the United States that the votes of everything of a political nature abould the Republicans of this country will Report Says That Adrianople Falls. be referred to the people. During last elect him. fall and early winter. I was urged to "The president," said Lane, "needs Prague, Nov. 2.—The Bohemia prints Tail and early winter. I was urged to "The president," said Lane, "needs become a candidate for United States support in Congress. As mayor of Port-senator against Mr. Bourns. I did not land, I discovered how yexing, how wish to become a candidate until I had harassing, how nerve breaking, how fu-troops has surrendered to the Bulgar-

(Continued on Page Four.)

"form." Germany insisted that intervention, as yet, would be inopportune. Italy was silent. The Balkan allies plainly said they intended to carve up European Turkey to suit themselves. Bulgarla gave it out flatly that it would discuss peace terms only with Turkey. Not much attempt was made to conceal the fact that the European chancellories regarded the situation as alarming. It was the consensus of opinion that deadlocked tonight concerning intervention in the Balkan struggle. France.

(United Frees Leased Wire.) Paris, Nov. 2 .- The powers continued

Germany, England and Russia had agreed on what diplomats referred to as the "form" of intervention-provided that they intervene. As to the terms of division of the Ottoman empire's European possessions, however, there were wide differences of opinion. Austria did not even indorse the proposed the Bulgarian army would enter Constantinople within a fortnight-it may enter it within a few hours. Once there, it probably will be too late to inter-

TAFT WEEPS AT WORDS PRAISING VICE PRESIDENT

Leave Utica After Sherman

(United Press Lessed Wire.) Unica, N. Y., Nov. 2.-President Taft tariff attitude, to revise downward. He and representatives of national and for-attacked Lafferty charging him, and eign governments who attended the fuciting the facts, with having fought the neral of James Schoolcraft Sherman this government's interests, though a rep- afternoon, left Uties this evening in resentative in congress, in the Oregon their special train for New York. To-california land grant cases, in be-half of his private clients. Dr. Lane Speaks. man's mother, Mrs. Carris Babcock, erected. This city is in mourning, black draped flags hang at half mast and will so remain until Monday.

colleague and running mate, and during the eloquent tribute voiced by the Rev. W. M. Stryker, president of Hamilton college, his eyes filled with tears, troops has surrandered to the Bulgarians.

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS Candidate Makes Final Plea for Working Majority in U.S.

Senate-Declares Without Such Majority, Administration Would Be Seriously Handicapped.

| wear the heart out of man more than (United Press Leased Wire.) Long Branch, N. Y., Nov. 2 .- "If I that of seeing special interests still knew I could have the presidency and entrenched in that ultimate stronghold, could know I would not have the sup- the United States senate; of seeing port of both houses of congress, I every impulse of the people of the Unit-would decline it." said Governor Wil- ed States balked and defeated because would decline it," said Governor Wilson here tonight.

The Democratic candidate was discussing the possible election of a Democratic legislature to elect a Democratic senator. He expressed the hope also that he would have a state body to help him in carrying out his work while he remains governor. "I haven' stopped being governor yet," he said. "It is my ambition to be associated further with the work of reform in New Jersey

Enlarging on his statement that he would not care for the presidency unless he had a Democratic senate, Governor Wilson said:

"It would be no doubt a very con spicuous, noticeable place to occupy, but it would be desperately lonely. And not only that, but it would put a man in a position which ought to break any man's heart, if anything will, a posltion of knowing what ought to be done for the people of the United States and longing to do it and being absolutely powerless to accomplish it, "I cannot imagine anything that would

TAFT'S CHOICE HADLEY OR WANAMAKER FOR V. P.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

New York, Nov. 2 .- An annoancement was made by President Taft that in all probability his choice for vice president would be made public tomorrow. Two names, said to be considered most prominently are those of Governor Hadley of Missouri, and John Wanamaker of Philadelphia. Argument in favor of Hadley is that a Progressive should be named for second place. In behalt Wangmaker, the claim is made that he would save Pennsylvania for Taft. Some of Taft's advisers urged Governor Hadley on the ground that in case of a deadlock in the electoral college and in the house of representatives Hadley might receive the votes of both the Progressives and regular Republicans porting Karel, the Democratic for governor, and will vote for Wilson if they think Roosevelt has a chance in the state. McGovern, the Republican candidate who has declared for Roosevelt, has the best chance of election.

Minnesota Democrats Fighting.

Minnesota Democrats are making hard fight for first place, and will get it if the Taft people throw any strength to Wilson. Otherwise Rooscevelt, running away ahead of Taft, will get the 12 electoral votes of the state. In Iowa, Senator Cummins, who will vote for Roosevelt, believes Wilson will carry the state. So does Lafe Young, editor of the Des Moines Capital, and an ardent standpatter.

Missouri went for Taft by only 529 votes four years ago, and there a there was one part of their own govto be no possibility that it will not go ernment which was withheld from them do not know what I might be tempted for Wilson this year, manufacturing Michigan, another to say if I were in a position like that. And I am of the confident expectation state, is full of Progressive sentiment, that the people of New Jersey and the and the Bull Moose leaders are very (Continued on Page Five.) (Continued on Page Five.)

Presidential Election Returns

In order to serve the greatest number of people with information con-cerning the election at the earliest possible moment, THE JOURNAL announces the following arrangements for Tuesday night:

By Council Crest Searchlight

The searchlight tower at Council Crest Amusement Park will be in direct telephonic communication with THE JOURNAL. All important bulletins on the presidential election will be flashed there without delay. Then watch the searchlight.

A horizontal sweep of the great light will indicate news favorable to Wilson,

A vertical sweep will mean news favorable to Roosevelt.

A steady ray in any direction of one minute's duration will mean that Taft leads. >

By Colored Lights on The Journal Tower

Signal lights will be displayed upon the four corners of the tower of THE JOURNAL building upon the receipt of vital news bulletins. Red lights will indicate that Wilson leads.

Green lights will mean a lead for Roosevelt.

Amber lights will show that Taft is ahead.

Returns by Stereopticon

More detailed returns from the national and state election will be shown by stereopticon upon screens, one upon the Unitarian church across Seventh from THE JOURNAL building, and the other upon the Yamhifi street side of the Portland hotel.

President and Government Officials

Funeral.