No Matter Where You Shop SHOP EARLY!

TWO months in advance of the holiday season may seem to some people an unnecessarily early date at which to begin a "Shop Early" crusade, but to those who realize the far-reaching effect of such consideration for the "vast army of employes, every-where, on 'the part of Holiday shoppers, the date seems none too

Those who look at this matter from a humane viewpoint know what a consistent, persistent "shop early" crusade by merchants and the buying public will mean to faithful employes in all lines of business and in the postal and transportation betvice. It will mean to them a chance to share in the Christmas festivities; and will make the "joy and good fellow-ship" of the season a reality instead of a travesty

We feel that you will, upon mature thought, join in the general "shop early" movement; deciding, for the sake of others throughout the land that
