

HOPE RUNS HIGH IN ALL 3 PARTIES; EACH CLAIMS LEAD

Wilson by 9000 in Oregon Is Democratic Prediction While Others Claim Victory Without Giving Any Figures.

Claims of victory at the polls next Tuesday and figures to back their assertions were put forward last night by the chairman of the state central committees of the Democratic, Republican and Progressive parties, respectively.

Chairman Bert Haney for the Democrats, claims that Wilson will carry Oregon by a plurality of 9000, and he gives Lane a plurality of 5000 in the senatorial contest.

Charles Moore, chairman of the Taft Republicans, is out with the assertion that Wilson will run third, and without giving any figures, declares Taft will win.

George Arthur Brown, Bull Moose chairman, claims the silent vote will swing Roosevelt to the fore, and predicts a Roosevelt-Johnson landslide.

Bourne advocates claim a statewide plurality ranging from 6000 to 10,000.

"Based on our forecast on a careful poll taken by our county organizations throughout the state, we feel confident that Wilson and Lane will win," said Chairman Haney, of the Democratic state central committee.

"Out of the 44 counties of Oregon, 29 returned figures which indicate that Wilson will receive 51,000 votes; Roosevelt, 42,000, and Taft 21,000.

The five counties not reporting were Clatsop, Josephine, Sherman, Columbia and Yamhill. This same poll indicates that Mr. Lane will be elected senator by a plurality of 5000.

Rely on Silent Vote.
In Multnomah county the race for congress is so close between Judge Munly and Lafferty that we do not care to make any estimate but we predict that Judge Munly will win.

"We want to call the voters' attention to the fact that they should vote for five electors in balloting on the presidential candidates. A few probably will vote for only one elector because only one was voted on at the primary, and as a result confusion may result.

"The Democratic forces have made a good, clean campaign, and we feel that the victory is ours."

The Roosevelt forces are relying on the "silent vote" according to the forecast made by the Bull Moose chairman, George Arthur Brown. In his statement he says:

"Surface indications in the business centers among big business, indicate a sentiment adverse to Roosevelt and Johnson. But beneath the surface indications is a tremendous undercurrent of silent voters. And while it may be a matter of guesswork as to who will get this silent vote, yet as for the Progressive party we are confident that, based on the matter of common knowledge among men in general, it is safe to say that the greater part of this vote will be given to Colonel Roosevelt. So much for the big business end.

The rural districts and among the laboring and married men, we are confident we have proof that from 65 per cent to 80 per cent of this vote is for Roosevelt and Johnson.

"Early reports from the cities may show a close vote either way, but the reports from the outlying suburbs and rural districts will show that the Progressive principles of the Progressive party have attained a distinct and decisive triumph by the grace of the hard-headed common sense of the great masses of the American people."

Declaring Oregon has not gone Democratic in a presidential year for over four decades, Charles Moore, Republican state committee chairman, says the "thoughtful, great silent vote will do the business," of Taft.

Moore Says Munly Is Out.
"Ever since the primaries the drift has been heavy and continuous in the direction of Taft," says Mr. Moore's statement. "If our polls can be accepted as an index he will carry the state. The great silent vote is the vote that will do the business."

"Roosevelt was beaten in the Republican primaries last spring by a majority of 14,000. There were 16,000 more votes cast in those primaries than in the general election for congressmen two years before. The heavy Democratic part of that excess went for T. R. It is now for Wilson. We claim over 50 per cent of the La Follette vote. Mr. McCusker, La Follette's manager, and other leaders are all campaigning for Taft. We will get thousands of men who voted for Roosevelt in the primaries, but who refuse to follow him out of the Republican party.

"In this country where the Democrats are outnumbered 8 or 6 to one by the Republicans, the candidacy of Judge Munly is hopeless and the race is between Lafferty and Thomas McCusker, who is backed by practically the unanimous Republican vote."

MENOCAL, CONSERVATIVE, TO BE CUBAN PRESIDENT

Havana, Nov. 2.—The election of General Menocal, conservative, as president of Cuba, was conceded tonight by everyone, but the most incorrigibly optimistic Liberals. ROOSEVELT BELIEVES HIS APPEAL FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE WILL WIN HIM THOUSANDS OF VOTES

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Confident that his appeal for social and industrial justice has not been in vain, Colonel Roosevelt tonight expressed great satisfaction with his campaign.

"It has been a great campaign—a most extraordinary campaign," he said. "The people have seemed to be attentive and responsive. They are thinking on the questions of the day and I am much pleased with their attitude. The two meetings at Madison Square Garden this week were wonderful. The first was better, I think, than the second, although in both I noticed that the audiences were composed of people who thought for themselves."

"One feature of the campaign which has pleased me is the work of the men. They have worked as hard as the men and have accomplished just as good results."

The colonel also commented on his trips to the west and expressed pleasure with the receptions he had received there. On Monday he will speak to the people of Nassau and Suffolk counties at Mineola, Long Island, in the afternoon; at Oyster Bay at night.

VICIOUS ATTACK IS AIMED AT CLARK

Fatherless Scream Circulated by Hidden Foe as Senatorial Campaign Closes.

Sent through the mails from an unascertained source, a circular that makes a vicious personal attack upon A. E. Clark, candidate of the Progressive party for United States senator, appeared yesterday afternoon. It was in the form of a four page pamphlet in a style and makeup rarely seen in Oregon, and bore no indication of who its authors might be. It was in violation of the Oregon corrupt practices act in this and other respects, and is pronounced by Mr. Clark a violation throughout of the criminal libel law.

The utmost care seems to have been taken to conceal the inspiration and the writer. Mr. Clark considers the circular merely an eleventh hour campaign attack to injure the Progressive cause. His friends and Progressive supporters generally are more indignant, however.

Judge Martin L. Pipet, president of the State Bar association, said: "I have just heard of the scurrilous and anonymous circulation concerning Mr. Clark. Literature of this kind deserves every good citizen's utmost contempt, especially when directed against a citizen of the high standing of Mr. Clark. It should arouse the general indignation which I myself feel, although I am not supporting Mr. Clark in his candidacy. I condemn this vulgar attack which I am confident has no truth. The authors deserve severest punishment. I have known Mr. Clark well and from association with him at the bar, am able to say he stands high professionally."

Judge Henry McGinn, who had just heard of the circular, called up to say: "I wish to denounce this circular directed by a hidden enemy of A. E. Clark, in strongest terms. Truth never hides itself behind an anonymous screed like this. No lawyer in Portland stands higher than A. E. Clark and the authors of this libel should be hunted down and sternly punished."

The extent to which the circular has been scattered over the state is not yet known.

WOODROW WILSON URGES THE NEED OF DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS

people of a number of other states that mention are going to see to it that in the next senate of the United States there is a clean Democratic majority. That is the logic of the situation, even for the Republicans."

Speaking of his record as governor, he said: "All that I have been for you has been a spotlight. I have simply tried to follow with exposure the people and the things that ought not to be permitted to have any influence in New Jersey. It has been very interesting how many gentlemen decline to come on the stage, because of the danger of having the spotlight turned upon them. There has been a perfectly white light. There has not been any colored glass in front of it. It was not yellow. It was a perfectly colorless, pitiless white light. And that is all that has been necessary, only that it has got to be turned on from the inside, not the outside. If the light is turned on from the outside, you can see for yourselves. I do not want to walk around the government of the United States with a spotlight. I would like to turn on the light inside."

WILSON WINDS UP HIS CAMPAIGN IN OWN STATE

Red Bank, N. J., Nov. 2.—Governor Wilson headed for Princeton tonight, after winding up the last week of his campaign with two more speeches in New Jersey. J., the home of Judge William Hughes, Democratic candidate for United States senator. He visited the offices of the American league and found them closed. Whether he saw Ben B. Johnson, president of the American league, was not known, as he departed tonight silent as a clam.

WOODBURN LIQUOR VOTE IS ORDERED

Appeal Is Taken From Mandamus Writ but Election Goes Just the Same.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Nov. 2.—Judge Galloway today issued a writ of mandamus compelling the clerk and recorder of Woodburn to submit the liquor question under the home rule amendment at the election to be held Tuesday. The controversy was over the date on which the petition for election was filed with the recorder. Blaine McCord gave testimony that he left the petition in Recorder J. J. Stangel's office October 22, but Stangel did not find it until October 26. Judge Galloway held the petition should be filed under date of October 22. The attorney for Stangel gave notice of appeal, but this will not affect the holding of the local option election Tuesday.

FIND THEY SIGNED PETITIONS INSTEAD OF REGISTRATION BOOKS

The foolishness of some men is aptly illustrated by complaints which reached County Clerk Fields yesterday.

"We were told we were not registered at our polling places," they complained.

"Did you sign the books at the registration desk?" he asked.

"Sure, we signed a lot of books on the first floor of the court house," were the answers.

Some couldn't see the joke when they were told that they signed election petitions of many kinds instead of registering.

LIGHTS ON JOURNAL TOWER WILL SIGNAL ELECTION RETURNS ON TUESDAY EVENING

Red lights displayed at the four corners of the clock base on The Journal building, Tuesday night, will indicate that Wilson leads in the race for the White House.

Green lights displayed similarly will show a lead for Roosevelt.

Amber lights will mean that Taft is ahead.

The crown of The Journal building tower, the highest in the city, will be a blaze of white light so long as the returns are coming in. By these white lights you shall know it. The brilliantly illuminated tower will be visible from practically every part of the city.

Remember the signals:
Red lights, Wilson leads.
Green lights, Roosevelt leads.
Amber lights, Taft leads.

The Journal tower to be located by the white lights just above the colored ones.

In order to further inform the public at the earliest possible moment as to the trend of the election next Tuesday The Journal has arranged for a system of light signals to be flashed by the powerful searchlight on the Council Crest tower. Important bulletins on the presidential contest will be flashed from Council Crest as follows:

A horizontal sweep of the light will mean news favorable to Wilson.
A vertical sweep will mean news favorable to Roosevelt.

ROOSEVELT SENDS PERSONAL MESSAGE

Checked by the receipt of a personal message from Theodore Roosevelt, the leaders of the Progressive party redoubled their fight for the supremacy of their leader last night.

The message was sent to Dr. Henry Waldo Cox, national committeeman for Oregon of the party, and reads as follows:

"Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Dr. Henry Waldo Cox, Progressive Headquarters, Portland, Or.—Through you I wish to send this personal message to the men and women of Oregon. We have a peculiar right to ask that Oregon lead in this fight for the national Progressive ticket, for Oregon has taken the lead in setting the standard for progressiveness within the states, and now she would be false to herself if she abandons the Progressive cause when for the first time there is a chance of bringing it to a national victory."

"It is utterly hopeless to expect any real progressive action by the old parties. Each is boss ridden, each is privileged controlled. A victory for either means a victory for bosses like Barnes and Penrose in the Republican party, for bosses like Taggart and those in control of Tammany Hall in the Democratic party. Moreover, the Democratic party by its adherence to an outward Laissez Faire philosophy and by its making of state rights a fetish, has absolutely debarr'd itself from all chance of real usefulness to the cause of the people in the nation as a whole."

"Sincere and honest Progressives must necessarily realize that both the old parties, the Democrats no less than the Republicans, are banded together against the cause of popular rule and of human rights, and that this great movement for social and industrial justice to all our people can only be served by the Progressive party."
