The Ad club, which will entertain members of several similar organizations at the Bungalow theatre tonight, will also have special wire service.

The Dalles, Or. Nov. 5 .- Wilson Kinnersly, 16-year-old son of Mrs. Anna M. Kinnersly of this city, was accidentally shot and killed on the banks of the Columbia river near Big Eddy Sunday evening. Accompanied by Claud Wallace and Roger Wilhelm, two school fellows of about his age, he had gone up the river in a rowboat Sunday morning on a hunting expedition.

After hunting all day the boys launched their boat just before dark for the return thip down the river. Wallace and Wilhelm got into the boat, while Kinnersly remained on shore to shove the boat into the water. the government at Big Eddy.

Alexander H. Kerr has banked a substantial fund in a local bank to be used by the Portland Commons in their benevolent loan work. The benevolent loan work will be known from now on as the Albertina Kerr Loan league. Money will be loaned without interest, from $1 to $50 to working men, widows and those in staltened circumstances. Security or bond is all that is necessary, no other reference will be needed.

Mr. Kerr has also granted to the Portland Commons the use of his Fourteenth street private home to be used as their nursery in connection with their half orphan work, a much needed institution in Portland, to care for the children of widows, widowers and abandoned mothers.
