

EVENTS IN SOCIETY

It is imperative that those contributing news for the Sunday society page should have it reach the desk of the society editor not later than Friday whether brought in, mailed or telephoned. News is always most welcome, but those who have affairs early in the week would confer a great favor by sending their reports in as soon after as possible, otherwise the volume of late society on Saturday may be other day.

Wedding Date Chosen.

WEDNESDAY, December 4, is the date which Miss Dorothy Morrison and Donald Green have chosen for their wedding to be solemnized in Trinity Episcopal church.

Heights Club Announcements.

Tuesday evening, November 5—The regular weekly card party will be given at the club house. These parties are held every week on Tuesday evenings, alternating bridge and five hundred. On this evening bridge will be played with no progression. Bring your guests and friends who are prospective members. Wednesday evening, November 6—The adult dancing class (conducted by Mr. Christensen) will meet at the club house. Friday evening, November 8, 8:15 p. m.—Bowling starts under the direction of M. J. Lamond. Classes and teams will be organized, and tournaments will be started. This is for all who desire to bowl, irrespective of whether they have had experience or not. This is for women as well as men. Saturday evening, November 9, 8:00 p. m.—The young people's conducted dancing class starts under the direction of Mrs. Weidon. This class is for young people between the ages of 14 and 20 years, and is not for club members exclusively. Tuesday evening, November 13—The regular weekly card party will be held at the club house. On this evening progressive five hundred will be played. Friday evening, November 15—The first young people's party will be given at the club house. This is a "rush" party for the young people of the club and their friends who are prospective members of the club. The party is for those 19 years of age or over. Every one present enjoyed the Halloween party given at the club Saturday evening. Moving pictures, entertainment, dancing and the usual Halloween refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Unique Affair in Quaker Society.

From Philadelphia comes the report of a unique Halloween function that quite eclipses anything else of the sort given. The story reads as follows: A barnyard magnificent with live chickens and ducks and negro boys with pumpkins under their arms, in an environment of luxury in the Clover room of the Bellevue-Stratford hotel, formed the setting tonight for Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury's formal bow as a hostess in this city. Mrs. Stotesbury, formerly Mrs. Oliver Eaton Cromwell, of Washington, is the wife of the partner of J. P. Morgan. Her wedding gift from Mr. Stotesbury at their marriage on January 18, was $4,000,000. Even an artificial moon shone through a sky of blue muslin, autumn leaves covered the chandeliers, the walls were covered with straw and a wagonload of fruit was scattered about lavishly as a part of the decorations for one of the most elaborate Halloween parties ever given in this city. A hundred guests sat at narrow board tables. A painted border of dark green leaves was the nearest approach to a tablecloth. Green wooden benches were used instead of chairs. Grass mats covered the floor. A breakfast of sausage and scrapple was served after the ball.

For Miss Hale.

Mrs. Ralph E. Brackett and her daughter, Mrs. Leon Henderson, invited friends to play 10 tables of five hundred on Saturday in compliment to their

YOUNG WIFE SAVED FROM HOSPITAL

Tells How Sick She Was And What Saved Her From An Operation.

Upper Sandusky, Ohio.—"Three years ago I was married and went to house-keeping. I was not feeling well and could hardly drag myself along. I had such tired feelings, my back ached, my sides ached, I had bladder trouble awfully bad, and I could not eat or sleep. I had headaches, too, and became almost a nervous wreck. My doctor told me to go to a hospital. I did not like that idea very well, so, when I saw your advertisement in a paper, I wrote to you for advice, and have done as you told me. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, and now I have my health.

"If sick and ailing women would only know enough to take your medicine, they would get relief."—Mrs. BENJ. H. STANSBERRY, Route 6, Box 18, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

If you have mysterious pains, irregularity, backache, extreme nervousness, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait too long, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound now.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy and should give every one confidence.

house guest, Miss Mary Hale of Marysville, Cal. Card honors fell to Miss Estelle Ingless and Mrs. Benjamin F. Weaver. During the afternoon Mrs. Fred L. Olson, accompanied by Miss Lewis, delighted the guests with a number of vocal selections. Among those who came in for tea were Mrs. A. C. Emmons, Mrs. Anna Wyngate, the Misses Emmons and Miss Wilcox. Miss Hale, who has been visiting with Mrs. David Kern and Miss Eva Kiernan, will return to her home Saturday. This afternoon Mrs. Roy Brooking entertained with a bridge in her honor and tomorrow Mrs. Wyngate is giving a small theatre party in her honor.

For Portland Guest.

Miss Florence Considine, of Seattle, entertained with a luncheon followed by bridge on Thursday for her houseguest from Portland, Miss Genevieve Kelly. Yellow chrysanthemums combined with autumn leaves were the floral decorations and other appointments were suggestive of Halloween. Twenty-four guests were present.

Short Notes.

Mrs. John F. Daly returned the last of the week from a stay of four weeks in the east. She spent some time in New York and then was the guest of her sister, Mrs. John K. Stack (Miss Cecile Wiley) in Escanaba, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Stack will arrive in Portland the middle of next month to spend Christmas with Mrs. Stack's mother, Mrs. J. R. Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gaze have closed their country home on the Willamette, where they have been living for the past year, and have established themselves at the Portland for the winter.

Mrs. Walter M. Cook has returned from Europe and has been a guest at the Welcote in New York previous to her return to Portland.

Reception Given.

The young people of the University Park Baptist church were tendered a reception by Mrs. N. Brownell, 1815 Woolsey street, Wednesday evening. All of the decorations brought out the idea of Halloween and many Halloween games and features were on the program.

Engagement Announced.

Mrs. Henry A. Wilhelm, of Tacoma, announced the engagement of her daughter, Grace, to H. V. Davies, of Portland, the evening of October 26. The interesting news was made known in a novel manner with a peanut hunt, the nut enclosing a tiny scroll bearing the secret.

Invitations Out.

Mr. and Mrs. I. James Greco have sent out invitations for a card party to be given at their home in Brooklyn, Wednesday evening, November 6, at eight o'clock, in honor of their second wedding anniversary. Mrs. Greco was formerly Miss Victoria Gertrude Ray.

ORPHEUM OFFERS PLEASING PROGRAM

Well-Balanced Bill Delights Audience at Popular Playhouse.

A good variety and the perfect fitting of the eight acts at the Orpheum this week makes the bill round out into a splendid evening's entertainment. All in all, those who were there last night enjoyed it as much as any Orpheum bill that has been in town for a long time. And, too, it presents the rather unusual condition for a vaudeville program that it does not have a single suggestive line. The curtain goes up on a bit of the Dismal Swamp and the Aitken-Whitman trio, made up as alligators, present a creepy contortion act in which they twist themselves into more turns and shapes than a Standard Oil lawyer can twist a poor defenseless statute. Fred and Adele Astaire, 12 and 14 years old, are accomplished little stage entertainers and the dancing, singing and dialogue of their act, "A Rainy Saturday," are all pleasing.

Most people sit with clenched fists and drawn breath all through "A Call for the Wild," the playlet presented by Sydney Ayres and his company, for there is hardly a second when the situation is not such that you are expecting the "big thing" to pop instantly. The plot is laid in Arizona and Portland people all know well the Virginian quality of Sydney Ayres' acting. Miss Wilson, a Portland girl, is leading woman and fits exactly into the part of Hope Carson. Ayres was in stock here with Cathrine Countess.

"California," the headline number, is a tuneful, well acted opera with frequently a dozen songsters on the stage at once. It happens in California in the early days, and there is a plot, a funny Englishman, a beautiful Spanish heroine, a brave American—the hero of course—and plenty of Mexicans and Indians. Oh, yes, there's a donkey, too. Nonette carole and plays her violin and responds to lots of encores and then James J. Morton convulses the audience with a running witty monologue, interspersed with frequent little intimate conversations with himself. Everybody wants more of him than they get. Schicht's Royal Marionettes close the bill and the life like behavior of the dummy people and animals were sufficiently interesting last night to stop the usual rush on the part of a number of people during the last act to beat everyone else to the check room.

GAME WARDEN ACCUSES OREGON CITY CITIZEN

John Straight of Oregon City, was arrested last Saturday by a game warden in the hills near Casadero, in Clatsop county, for having deer meat in his possession. The season for deer killing closed October 31, and Straight's violation came in having the meat, whether he killed the deer or not after that date. This was the only violation of the game laws, in respect to killing deer, reported this year. Game warden Finley is working now to have the limit for a hunter during the season of deer lessened from five to two. Although deer is still plentiful in this state, the constantly increasing population and the inroads of steam and electric railways makes the annual slaughter greater. Oregon is the most liberal state in the union in the allowing of the number of deer to be killed by a hunter. Montana allows three, Washington and California two, while several other states allow the hunter only one.

Real "Lady Bountiful"

It is no SECRET that her GREATEST INSPIRATION, in the work to which she has DEVOTED HER ENTIRE LIFE, is HER LOVE OF NATURE.

She sees, in nature, the most BEAUTIFUL, the most INSPIRING, the most DELIGHTFUL, the most VALUABLE lessons to humankind. She ENJOYS the EXCLUSION which nature suggests; she seeks the QUIET and COMMANDING PLACES, where RETIREMENT is easy; she REVELS in those GREAT, NATURAL COIGNS OF VANTAGE, from which she sees, in PANORAMIC PERSPECTIVE, the MAGNIFICENT ADVANCEMENT OF CIVILIZATION.

I would like to have THIS WOMAN accept my INVITATION to VISIT PORTLAND; I would like to have her SEE ALL THE BEAUTIES of this WONDERFUL CITY; I would like to ask her, a few moments after she had SURFEITED HERSELF on the BEAUTIES of the City of Roses; "Miss . . . . if you were induced to MOVE to PORTLAND, come here BECAUSE OF THE BEAUTY OF OUR CITY, build yourself a MAGNIFICENT HOME, WHERE would you LOCATE IT?"

I will leave the answer to the WIVES OF PORTLAND.

I venture to say that NINETY PER CENT OF THOSE WHO HAVE SEEN WESTOVER TERRACES would GIVE THAT PLACE AS THEIR ANSWER.

WESTOVER TERRACES is a BEAUTIFUL PLACE.

WESTOVER TERRACES would PRE-EMINENTLY SATISFY THIS WOMAN, because it affords the QUIET EXCLUSION she seeks—the COMMANDING COIGN OF VANTAGE that so STRONGLY ATTRACTS HER and embodies every POSSIBLE RESIDENTIAL ADVANTAGE that even SHE, with ALL OF HER MILLIONS, could DEMAND.

I can see HER HOME NOW, builded upon a HALF DOZEN WESTOVER LOTS, IMPOSING in its ARCHITECTURE, GORGEOUS in its APPOINTMENTS, AWE-INSPIRING in its SPLENDOR, AMPLE in its PROPORTIONS, and SUPREMELY FITTING in its LOCATION.

There is NO DOUBT about her SELECTION OF WESTOVER TERRACES.

Yet there are SCORES OF WOMEN in Portland who WOULD, if they TOOK REAL ADVANTAGE of the INFLUENCE that they EXERT IN THEIR OWN FAMILIES, occupy a MAGNIFICENT HOME IN WESTOVER TERRACES.

No two lots have the same view. Every one is in a class by itself. You would be SURPRISED to learn the LARGE NUMBER OF MEN AND WOMEN in this city who are INTENDING TO BUILD IN WESTOVER TERRACES, but who are holding back to INDUCE THEIR FRIENDS TO DO LIKEWISE, so that they can ORGANIZE A CONGENIAL COMMUNITY OF THEIR OWN.

And YOUR SELECTION of almost ANY LOT IN WESTOVER TERRACES for $4500.

Pay $500 down and the balance $75 per month.

WESTOVER TERRACES was designed for the MEN WHO CAN AFFORD IT.

SEE IT FIRST. Buy or not, as you like, afterward.

WESTOVER speaks for itself.

The Woman Whose Picture Appeared in Yesterday's Advertisement Was Mrs. William K. Vanderbill.

Do You Know Who This Is? Guess.

Perhaps we have suggested too much by calling this woman the REAL "LADY BOUNTIFUL." However, she is also called by many "THE FIRST WOMAN CITIZEN" of the United States. She typifies more perfectly, perhaps, the highest development of AMERICAN WOMANHOOD than any other character in this nation.
