

LINKS AND JEFFS CLASH TOMORROW

Crack High School Teams to Meet on Multnomah Field at 3:15 P. M.

The Lincoln High school team will battle against the Jefferson High school eleven tomorrow afternoon on Multnomah field at 3:15 o'clock. Last season these two teams played a no-score game.

Each team is confident of winning tomorrow's battle. A defeat for Lincoln will practically put it out of the running for the interscholastic championship.

Coach Borleske of the Lincoln team has made but two changes in his lineup since the Spokane game. He has shifted Sub-fullback Dudley to left tackle and F. Bunch to right tackle.

The Cardinal players have been practicing hard on several new plays, which will be tried for the first time on the Blue and Gold squad tomorrow.

Coach Carl Smith of the Jefferson team made another big change in his lineup. Fullback Williams will be seen in the quarterback position. Magius has been shifted to an end position again and Anderson, a guard, will play right halfback. The rest of the team will line up the same as in previous games. The lineup:

CARCASS OF BUCK IS RIDDLED BY BUD AND ED

Jake Crox, a well known sportsman, has written from Delahar, Or., the following letter concerning the movements of Buddy Ryan, the Cleveland outfielder, and Eddie Mensor, the Pittsburg gardener, both of whom are graduates of the Portland club:

Dothan, Or., Nov. 5.—Buddy Ryan and Eddie Mensor left yesterday morning for Rogus river equipped for a bear and cougar hunt. They succeeded in getting one large buck the last day of the season, and from the number of shots fired and the number of bullet holes found in the carcass, one must reach the conclusion that they have not recovered their "shooting eye" yet. They will hunt with the Jake Fry dogs, and as bear and cougar are reported plentiful, the boys are expecting a fine time. They expect to have a great report to make on the result of their hunt, and will return to Portland about November 25.

MULTNOMAH TO STAGE CITY CHAMPIONSHIPS

Chairman Edgar B. Frank, of Multnomah's boxing and wrestling committee, has arranged arrangements to stage a city championship boxing meet on November 9. On account of the large number of possible entries, it has been decided not to have any wrestling bouts.

There will be six weights, 115, 125, 135, 145, 155 and heavy. Two entrants in each class, with the exception of 115 pounds and heavy weight class, will represent the Multnomah club.

The Columbus club will enter most all of its men, while a number of unattached boxers will sign up. The wrestling championships will be decided later in the year, according to the present plans of Frank.

Dundee and Conley to Meet. Los Angeles, Nov. 5.—Articles of agreement for a 20 round bout between Johnny Dundee and Frankie Conley, November 19, at 123 pounds, are in the hands of Promoter McCarney today.

BOWLING NEARLY EVENED BY CLUBS

Home Rollers Show in Front on Familiar Alleys in Second Meeting.

The bowling championship race between the four teams from the Multnomah and Columbus clubs was nearly evened up last night. The M. A. A. C. D team won three straight from the Columbus B's on the Multnomah alleys, thereby making up for the three the D's lost to the B's last Wednesday. The first two games were fairly easy for the Multnomah boys, but the last game wasn't decided until the last two men had rolled. Multnomah got off to a good start but Columbus began going to the front by a hundred pins from the fourth to the eighth frames, when they started to get splits, having about seven in the eighth and ninth. In the tenth Edgar, Primora and Dooley put the game on ice by striking out. Edgar and Minsinger were the stars of the evening, both making 170 averages.

LOS ANGELES BOXER MUST WIN HIS BOUT OR GIRL WON'T MARRY

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Nov. 5.—Raymond Rivers, a local feather-weight boxer, must either defeat Sam Morris in their fourth round bout tonight at Tom McCarney's weekly boxing show or lose his bride. Rivers secured a marriage license yesterday. To the clerk he said: "Come out to Vernon tomorrow night and watch me win. If I don't put it all over Morris, Agnes says she will have no use for this license." Rivers is to wed Miss Agnes Maher, a stage beauty—if he wins.

THREE PORTLAND FIRMS BID ON DAVENPORT HOTEL

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 5.—Some of the largest construction firms in the United States will enter bids for the main contracts of a $2,000,000 hotel to be built in Spokane. The first contract for the hotel, which will be known as the Davenport, has been let to the Engineering Construction company of Spokane for excavations, basement walls, curb walls and foundations. Among the large firms already in the field for the general contract are: The James Stewart Construction company, St. Louis; James Black Masonry & Contracting company, St. Louis; Dinwiddle Construction company, Portland, Or.; Brayton Engineering company, Portland; Hurley-Mason company, Portland; Lewis A. Hicks, San Francisco, and the Sound Construction company, Seattle. The hotel, which is financed largely by Spokane capitalists, will rank with the finest in the west. The site has been cleared of buildings, and excavating will commence at once. The hotel will be 14 stories high.

J. TINKER DOESN'T FALL FOR J. EVERS

Cub Shortstop Says That New Manager Is Newspaper Ball Player.

When Joe Tinker was in Portland a couple of years ago investigating the apple orchard prospects and investing in real estate, he made no secret about his opinion of Johnny Evers' much touted, Hughey Fullerton "brains." Inasmuch as Joe has come right out and said that he would never play under the management of Evers, there is no use withholding Tinker's opinion then expressed.

Joe said that Evers was a newspaper ball player, which reminds us that Bat Nelson once referred to Ad Wolgast as the "cheese champion." Ad has since shown his mettle. Joe asserted that Hughey Fullerton, the loquacious baseball writer, had puffed Evers up so much that many people in Chicago really believed that he and not the peerless Frank Chance furnished the gray matter that brought Chicago so many pennants. Joe doesn't think much of Evers' much written about "brains," and holding that view he doesn't see how he can be a successful manager. When making this statement Joe said that he didn't do it in a moment of pique, but that he believed that some of the others on the Chicago club should be given credit for a good bit of the winning done by the Cubs.

In discussing the proposed shift of Tinker from the Cubs to take the position of manager of the Cincinnati Reds and the assertion by Joe that he'd quit rather than play for Evers, the new manager of the St. Louis Browns said: "It has been said that Joe and I could never get along together with me as manager. In answer to that I will say that we have been 'scrapping' ever since I joined the team. We had a fist fight the first year I was here. But that mixup and our subsequent quarrels did not affect our ball playing. We get along all right on the field. We would get along all right next year if Joe would stay here and play ball."

What Mac Might Say. Jimmy Hopper has a story in a late magazine or current magazine, where the coach achieves winning results by making his fullback repeat, "I can buck a brick wall—I can buck a brick wall," says Grantland Rice. As a result of which said fullback is unstoppable. We are unable to state whether or not there is any truth in the report that next spring Professor McGraw will gather certain members of his squad around him and make them chant this formula in chorus: "I can catch a fly ball—I can catch a fly ball."

RITCHIE FIGURES HE IS AD'S MASTER

San Francisco Lad Argues That His Fight With Mandot Better.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 5.—Willie Ritchie, San Francisco's contender for honors in the lightweight division, is more convinced than ever today that he is the master of Champion Ad Wolgast. Ritchie is not gloating over the fact that the best Wolgast could get with Mandot in New Orleans last night was a draw, but he attempted to clinch his argument by comparing his 10 round clash with Mandot to Wolgast's showing. Here is how Willie does it out: "If you were figuring out the dope on us three fighters as you would figure out the merits of three horses about to start in a race you would have to mark your slate like this: 'Ritchie to show, Mandot for place and Wolgast to show.'"

"And here is how you would do it: I almost put Mandot out in the tenth round of our bout, while Mandot had Wolgast hanging on at the end of last night's bout. I am willing, however, to let things stand on an even basis as between Wolgast and myself, but no man is better entitled to a match with him than I, and if I ever get him in the ring for a 20 round battle, believe me, the newspapers next day will be filled with the life and doings of Willie Ritchie, the new lightweight champion of the world."

St. Paul After Duffy. Hugh Duffy, recently deposed by the Milwaukee club from the position of manager, has been offered, it is said, $7000 a year to lead the St. Paul club next summer. Duffy is angling for the managership and part ownership of the Buffalo club of the International league.

Wagner Is Playing Again. Hans Wagner will play baseball next season. He has informed friends that he expects to play the game of his life and that Pittsburgh is going to win the pennant. Highly interesting. Along about 1915, when the store league gathers, some fan will say: "I see Honus is going to play again. I think he's going back—only batted .324 last season, and look what he used to do back in 1915."

little hope of Frank Chance, former leader of the Chicago Cubs, managing a Coast league club next year, is the opinion expressed by Henry Berry, president of the Los Angeles team. "Chance is one of the greatest leaders the game has ever known," said Berry. "His worth is such that I doubt if any Coast league city could pay enough money to secure his services."
