Co-operation

FROM all directions and every class, favorable comment continues to come in, concerning the movement in favor of the "SHOP EARLY" crusade—from business men who will devote a share of their advertising space to the cause, from Merchants in outside towns whose hearts are in the work, and from shoppers who feel the same way we do about it—that

NO MATTER WHERE YOU SHOP SHOP EARLY

The business interests of Portland are a unit in favor of it. Organizations and Clubs are advocating it. Harmonious co-operation and persistent effort along the line marked out must and will bring the desired results. Those who are interesting themselves in this cause are working purely in the interest of Humanity—in the interest of the "vast army of employees everywhere" that is entitled individually and collectively to "a glad Holiday Season."

We, therefore, feel warranted in urging you to keep this thought constantly in mind and act on it:

"No Matter Where I Shop I Will Shop Early"
