

MOUNTAIN STATES POLL HEAVY VOTE, WEATHER IS GOOD

Wyoming Tries to Defeat Warren; Woman Suffrage Paramount in Arizona; Hot Senatorial Fight in Nevada.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 5.—With perfect election weather throughout the state a heavy early vote was cast in Arizona today, with indications of the normal Democratic majority.

Besides three presidential contests and a congressional representative, the voters of the state will pass upon several constitutional amendments. Woman suffrage is the amendment causing most interest. As there has been little real opposition to equal suffrage, it is expected to carry.

In addition to suffrage, the recall of the judiciary, the right of state and municipalities to engage in industrial pursuits, and seven bills passed by the last legislature against which a referendum has been initiated, including a game law, a semi-monthly payday law, and five bills affecting the operation of trains by transportation companies are on the ballot.

Of the total registration of 13,000, it is estimated that 24,000 will go to the polls, and probably 60 per cent of these will vote on the referendum measures.

Wilson and T. R. Lead.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Denver, Nov. 5.—With ideal weather prevailing throughout all Colorado, the biggest vote in the history of the state is being polled today. The ballots are extremely cumbersome, containing 23 propositions besides the presidential electors, legislative, state and county candidates. Colonel Roosevelt and Governor Wilson are leading in the early voting, running on about even terms with President Taft.

The Democratic managers claim the state ticket by 50,000. Progressive leaders say Roosevelt's plurality will be not less than 25,000, while Taft managers claim the state for their candidate by 30,000.

Women voters are fighting the reelection of Secretary of State Pearce, alleging he is guilty of misconduct with women employees of his office.

The next legislature will elect two United States senators. There is much interest in the preferential vote, which is complicated by the fact that nearly half of the candidates are not pledged to support the preferential vote winner. The other propositions put up to the voters include most of the Oregon reform laws.

Wyoming Breaks Records.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 5.—The heaviest vote in the history of Wyoming is being polled today. The Democrats and Progressives are fusing in an effort to carry the state legislature and the United States Senator Francis E. Warren for reelection. Congressman Mondell undoubtedly will be reelected.

The proposition to adopt the initiative and referendum measures has largely been lost sight of in the heat of the senatorial contest.

Believe Dixon Defeated.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Missoula, Mont., Nov. 5.—Although the Democrats are claiming Montana by 15,000, a conservative estimate of their plurality reduces this to 2000. The registration showed a 30 per cent increase over two years ago. The "silent vote" is very large.

The socialists probably will poll heavily in Butte and Silver Bow counties. Roosevelt is expected to run far ahead of the rest of the Progressive ticket. Senator Dixon probably will be defeated for reelection. Progressives and Republicans also claim the state but do not give any figures.

Nevada to Elect Senator.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Carson, Nev., Nov. 5.—Aside from the three-cornered fight between Wilson, Roosevelt and Taft for Nevada's electoral vote the chief interest here in today's election centered in the contest of the three candidates to succeed the late United States Senator Nixon. W. A. Massey, who served out Nixon's unexpired term, is a candidate for reelection. He is opposed by Sardin Sumnerfield as the Progressive candidate and Key Pittman, Democrat.

For congress the candidates are: E. E. Roberts, Republican; Pat McCarren, Democrat; and George Springmyer, Progressive. G. A. Steele is the Socialist candidate for senator and John A. Worden for congress.

Conditions in Jackson County.
(Special to The Journal.)
Medford, Or., Nov. 5.—Rain last night and this morning has caused the vote in the outlying districts to be light. The city vote is heavy and a rush of country votes is expected this afternoon.

Washington Likely Roosevelt's.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 5.—The state of Washington probably will give Roosevelt its seven electoral votes. The betting favors Roosevelt on this state's vote and practically all polls have in-

Don't Blame Your Overworked Stomach
When your stomach will not digest food, the worst thing you can do is to take a lot of digestive medicines. True, they give temporary relief, but your stomach is the sufferer. Loss of appetite, indigestion, dyspepsia and headaches can only be permanently relieved by removing the cause. In many cases various remedies taken to relieve these conditions result in ruining the stomach and preventing it from digesting food in a natural way.

If you want your stomach to do its own work properly, without resorting to artificial digestives or predigested foods, use Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge. Take small doses regularly, preferably before meals. In a little time your stomach will again do its own work and you will eat heartily, keep well and enjoy living. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is not a digester in itself, but it tones up the stomach and intestines, giving you all the nutrition and strength from the food you eat.

Many forms of supposed indigestion are the result of intestinal parasites, for which Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is unsurpassed. Insist on Jayne's; accept no other. Millions have praised it for more than eighty years. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. D. Jayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.

dictated the same. Wilson, however, will run exceedingly strong and is a dangerous second. Taft is hopelessly in third place. There is a close race between Governor May, Republican, "Bob" Lodge, Progressive, and Ernest Lister, Democrat, in the gubernatorial fight. Betting seems to favor May and Lodge, but there is not much money being wagered on this fight. The congressional race in this district is also close between Congressman Humphrey, Republican, Dan Landon, Progressive, and Charles Helffer, Democrat. Landon seems to be the favorite. An early and heavy vote is being cast.

Long Lines Waiting to Vote.
(Special to The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Nov. 5.—With the clouds breaking away in spots, after a heavy wind and rainstorm last night, indications point to a clear day, and at an early hour voting began heavily in this county. Soon after the polls were opened in Salem dozens were in line waiting for a chance to vote, and these lines are being maintained throughout the day.

Farmers Vote Despite Rain.
(Special to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., Nov. 5.—Election day in Lane county is marked by a fine drizzle, which makes it disagreeable for voters, but it is believed that it will deter no one from casting his ballot. Farmers of the county have taken great interest in both local and national tickets and it is believed that a record vote will be polled.

14 in One Family Vote.
(Special to The Journal.)
Centralia, Wash., Nov. 5.—It also holds the record for solid voting in this section of the state. The family of George W. Taylor, sons, daughters, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law and grandchildren, 14 in all, went to the polls today and cast 14 votes for the Republican presidential electors. Judge Taylor, the head of the family, is a Civil war veteran.

Local Option Issue Floods Polls.
(Special to The Journal.)
Centralia, Wash., Nov. 5.—A heavy vote is being polled. With a total registration of 1100, a record for the city by over 600, and the intense interest in the local option issue, the voters went to the polls in droves. A big suffrage vote is being cast.

Southern Idaho Votes Heavily.
(Special to The Journal.)
Boise, Idaho, Nov. 5.—Warm weather but threatening sky were the conditions in southern Idaho when the polls opened this morning. A heavy vote is indicated. The polls close at 7 o'clock tonight.

Bad Weather But a Heavy Vote.
(Special to The Journal.)
St. Helens, Or., Nov. 5.—Bad weather exists all over Columbia county. Some precincts report the heaviest vote at this time of day for years. Indications are of a large vote on all amendments.

Dowpours in John Day Valley.
(Special to The Journal.)
Prairie City, Nov. 5.—It is raining steadily throughout the John Day valley.

Measures Attract Sherman Vote.
(Special to The Journal.)
More, Or., Nov. 5.—The morning broke cloudy. It was raining at 8 o'clock but the sun was shining brightly at 10. Indications tend toward a strong vote. Considerable interest is taken in the proposed measures. A larger percentage will vote on them this year than usual.

IDEAL WEATHER IN MIDDLE WEST BIG VOTE PRODUCER

Chicago Will Cast 350,000 Ballots; Race in Nebraska Is Between Roosevelt and Wilson; Ohio for Wilson.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 5.—The consensus of opinion here today is that the race between Colonel Roosevelt and Governor Wilson for the electoral vote of Nebraska will be close with President Taft running a poor third. The Democratic state ticket probably will be elected. William J. Bryan's four days' tour of the state has helped the Democrats, but it is considered doubtful if this will overcome the Roosevelt trend, especially in the rural districts.

The adoption of the initiative and referendum laws and four other less important propositions is conceded.

Ohio Looks Like Wilson.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Columbus, Nov. 5.—That Woodrow Wilson, Democratic nominee for president, will carry Ohio, and may pull the state ticket with him are the indications here today. There is considerable betting that Roosevelt will run ahead of President Taft. The socialists expect to poll about 125,000 votes, and the Prohibitionists 25,000.

James M. Cox, Democratic candidate for governor, is a favorite in the betting at odds of 6 to 1.

Claim Roosevelt Strength.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Jackson, Miss., Nov. 5.—Progressive leaders early today claimed they would be able to cut down the normal Democratic pluralities in Mississippi today. Colonel Roosevelt, they said, is showing unexpected strength. The voters also are passing on the proposal to adopt the initiative and referendum laws.

Big Early Vote in Iowa.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 5.—Despite extremely cold weather throughout the state an unusually heavy early vote was reported everywhere. Hundreds of persons waited outside the booths here, there not being enough voting machines to accommodate the voters.

80 Per Cent Vote in Illinois.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Nov. 5.—With ideal election weather prevailing, it was predicted today that 350,000 ballots would be cast in Chicago. This means that more than 80 per cent of the total registration will go to the polls. The voting everywhere in Illinois is reported heavy.

Rain Lessens Utah Vote.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Salt Lake, Utah, Nov. 5.—Very cloudy weather, threatening rain, made it doubtful if the voting in Utah would be heavy today. Political managers are extremely confident, with the Republicans claiming the state by 10,000 plurality. President Taft is the favorite in what little betting has been reported on the state result. The Progressives claim the governorship but do not claim that Roosevelt will carry the state.

Wilson Leads in New Mexico.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 5.—Despite the claims of the various chairmen, the fight in New Mexico today probably will be between Wilson and Roosevelt, with the former leading. Taft will be a poor third. There are to be no state officers elected. Harvey Ferguson, Democrat, probably will be chosen for congress.

Steady Rain Stops No Votes.
(Special to The Journal.)
Walla Walla, Wash., Nov. 5.—With rain falling steadily, the vote today is heavy, and promises to be the largest ever cast in Walla Walla county. All three parties are confident of majorities for their entire tickets, national, state and county, but indications are that Roosevelt will carry the county, with Wilson second. Lister will be likely to get a plurality with May second. County offices probably will be badly split among the parties.

Missouri Vote Light.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 5.—It was feared here today that rain, which is reported general throughout Missouri, will affect the rural vote. The feature of the voting today is a constitutional amendment proposing single tax.

Bitter Fight in Kansas.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Topeka, Kans., Nov. 5.—With ideal weather today, a bitter fight is expected. Governor W. H. Stubbs, Progressive, and Thompson, Democrat, rival candidates for the senatorship, have agreed on a preferential vote to settle the question. A suffrage amendment is also up.
