

ONLY SADDLERS TO SHOW THIS YEAR

Driving Animals Will Not Be Exhibited in the Annual Horse Show.

Portland is to have an exclusive saddle horse show.

The novelty of the thing will give it an added interest and distinction and then, too, plans are being made to make it the best and smartest saddle show on the coast this season.

A meeting of those interested was held last night at the home of Oscar Huber, 49 North Twenty-first street, when it was decided to make the sixth annual horse show of the Portland Hunt club an exclusive saddle show.

Even the finest of driving animals have had to give way to the more modern motor, hence the greatest interest in horses may now be said to center in the smart, high bred saddle animals.

Few cities the size of Portland can boast of more beautiful riding horses and these, together with the fair and gallant riders, will be seen to the best possible advantage on Friday and Saturday, December 7 and 8, the dates for the annual show which will be held at the Kramer Riding school.

A committee was named to make all necessary arrangements for the show including the selection of judges, ribbons, classifications, etc. This committee consists of Ambrose Wesley James Nicol, W. E. Prudhomme, William Walter and Captain William S. Biddle.

An effort will be made to have one expert judge from the east. With the usual features of a horse show will be combined some polo, push ball and several drills between teams from the two riding schools. Children's drills will also be made a feature which promises to be very interesting.

SOCIETY WOMEN TO JUDGE FLOWER SHOW

Announcement was made this morning of the judges who will make awards at the big Army exhibit of the Portland Floral society Friday and Saturday, November 15 and 16.

On general exhibit the judges will be L. M. Pfunder, Portland; W. S. Duncan, Albany, and John Holy, Seattle.

Each of the florists exhibiting at the flower show will exhibit a table set with eight places, as if for a dinner. The prizes for the best decorated tables have been made very attractive. The judges will be women, including Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. J. Wesley Lamb, Miss Henrietta Felling, Mrs. Ben Selling and Miss Clementine Hirsch.

Because of the vast variety of flowers to be exhibited, including nearly all that are native to Oregon, the educational value of the show has attracted wide attention. The board of general directors is anxious that every boy and girl registered in the schools of the city should have opportunity to see the flowers and learn their varieties.

Consequently admission to school children Saturday morning, November 16, will be free. All have been invited by the Floral society. It is said that the show will be the greatest of the kind ever held in the west.

In order that aid may be given the Fruit and Flower mission, in which a number of the leading women of Portland are interested, a few for general admission is to be charged. The flower show is not intended to be a money-making enterprise by its promoters, but to have the effect of showing the people of Portland that the most exquisite blooms of the nation, aside from roses, are to be found here.

COUNCIL OF JEWISH WOMEN IN MEETING

The Council of Jewish Women held its regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon in the Selling-Hirsch building with a large attendance. After a short business session, the reading program of a literary and musical nature was given. The paper on current events was given by Mrs. George Loewenson. It was a very comprehensive review of the great events of the world for the past month and was greatly enjoyed by the ladies.

One of the very delightful features of the afternoon was a group of songs given by Mrs. Henry W. Metzger. Her numbers included "The Morning Hymn" (Henschel), "Artly Beacon" (Nevin), and "The Nightingale" (Smith). She was accompanied by Florence Foster Hammond. Mrs. Metzger combines a glorious soprano voice of perfect cultivation with a charming presence that never fails to make her a valued addition to any program. "The Working Man and the Public School" was the topic of a practical address by Dr. C. H. Chapman. Mrs. Charles Berg was in charge of the program for the afternoon.

SEEK TRADE WITH CENTRAL AMERICA

Galveston, Texas, Nov. 6.—Under the auspices of the Galveston Chamber of Commerce, a party of business men of Galveston and other cities in Texas sailed from here today to invade the various Central American republics with a view of establishing closer trade relations with the countries in the vicinity of the Panama canal. The excursionists will visit various cities in Guatemala, Costa Rica and Panama, inspect the Panama canal, and expect to reach New Orleans on their return trip by December 17.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ALICE HAMILTON HUME TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Emily Hamilton Hume, who died Tuesday at her home in the Bruce apartments, North Twenty-fifth street, following an attack of paralysis, were held this afternoon at the crematorium. Rev. John H. Boyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was in charge.

VOTERS TAKE HALF A STEP TO GOOD ROADS

While the voters rejected the measure for state road bonds proposed by the harmony committee, and the three measures for county bonds proposed by the harmony committee, grange and Jackson county citizens, they very definitely approved the amendment proposed by the harmony committee which gives constitutional power to issue state road bonds up to 2 per cent of the assessed valuation. Also, the amendment restricting the counties' power to issue road bonds as adopted at the former general election was limited by the harmony amendment restricting the road bonding power of counties to 2 per cent of their assessed valuation.

With the constitutional amendments permitting pledging of state and county credit for roads the way is opened to the legislature to adopt efficient and satisfactory highway legislation at its session next winter. If it appropriates money for road building, or even just enough to pay camp and incidental expenses, the convicts of the state and counties may be put to work on the roads as soon as the convict labor laws, which were undoubtedly approved on Tuesday, become effective.

The situation points to the fact that though all measures of highway appropriation were rejected by the voters, yet at least half a step forward was taken in respect to the highway situation.

DEBS HAS NO HOPE FOR BETTER THINGS

(United Press Leased Wire.) Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 7.—Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate for president, issued today the following statement reviewing the result: "The outcome of the election is, fortunately, so decisive as to place the Democrats in complete control of the government. After March 4 there can be no dodging of responsibility. "That the Democratic administration will be a flat failure goes without saying. If radical tariff revision or legislation in the interest of the working class is attempted the big interests will be heard from in a way to make the Democratic statement hesitate. If such an attempt is persisted in, which is unlikely, the interests will precipitate a panic which will paralyze the country and will utterly discredit the Democrats.

"Wilson will find himself face to face with a situation utterly beyond the power of any mortal to control." Journal Want Ads bring results.
