

DRAYMAN PICKS UP PART OF HUMAN HEAD

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Nov. 7.—"Hello Joe, you have dropped your lunch," a friend here today shouted to Joseph De Lona, a teamster, as a small, neatly wrapped package dropped from his wagon. De Lona faltered when he unwrapped the bundle. It contained the cheekbone and upper head of a human skull, including the nose. De Lona had been loading empty boxes near the scene where Benjamin A. Goodman of Stockton, a jewelry salesman, was murdered a year ago and probably picked up a package there. The police believe the find indicates that another murder has been committed and are searching for the rest of the body.

NEVADA SENATORSHIP IS STILL UNSETTLED

(United Press Leased Wire.) Reno, Nev., Nov. 7.—The official count may be necessary to determine the winner in the United States senatorial fight between Key Pittman, Democrat, and Judge A. W. Massey, Republican, to succeed the late Senator Nixon. Figures compiled up to noon today showed Pittman leading by less than 100 votes. A number of outside mining camps are yet to be heard from, and these are expected to increase Pittman's lead, but the Republican leaders are claiming Massey's election.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE WINS VICTORY IN MICHIGAN

(United Press Leased Wire.) Detroit, Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns this afternoon from 80 of the 88 counties in Michigan give a plurality for the

WILSON PLURALITY IN KANSAS ABOUT 10,000

(United Press Leased Wire.) Topeka, Kan., Nov. 7.—Latest available returns today indicate that Wilson's plurality in Kansas will be about 10,000. The Democrats claim the state by 15,000. Governor Stubbs concedes his defeat for the senate by Thompson, Democrat. The state ticket is still in doubt.

BONDING ORDINANCE SIGNED BY RUSHLIGHT

Mayor Rushlight today signed the "bonding" ordinance, one of the two important measures for the regulation of vice passed by the city council two weeks ago. The "bonding" ordinance provides that owners of land on which hotels, rooming houses or lodging houses are erected must give bond of $1,000 to the city to guarantee that the buildings

ONE MAN JURY WASN'T ABLE TO REACH VERDICT

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Fernando, Cal., Nov. 7.—"Jury disagreed," was the verdict in the trial of William Jameson on a larceny charge. A call sent out for the jurors resulted in but one man being found. After deliberating on the evidence he could not make up his mind.

SENATE IS IN DOUBT; DEMOCRATS NEED 4

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Nov. 7.—Control of the United States senate is in doubt. By latest returns the Democrats have gained four senators. The seats from Oregon, Michigan and Wyoming are doubtful. If the Democrats get two of these they will have control without any combine with the Progressives.
