

AGGIES OF BELIEF CHANGED LINEUP WILL AID ELEVEN

Corvallis Football Team Thinks It is in Shape to Hold Off Washington Champs Here Next Saturday.

Corvallis, Or., Nov. 7.—With Everett May back in the lineup, taking the place vacated by Jim Evenden, who has been switched to the back field in Hauser's place, O. A. C. variety looks not one whit weaker than with its most promising lineup this year. In fact, May's presence in the line has added strength and Evenden's presence in the back field has added an element heretofore lacking—that of ginger and leadership.

"Jim" Evenden is the real peppery kid of the entire squad, and his directions can be heard during every game. Because of his experience and the need of a man of his temperament in the back field, Coach Dillon made a wise shift when the big tackle was moved to the fullback job.

Since this shift was made the back field has taken on new life, and in the scrimmages already held this week the offense has shown stronger than at any time heretofore. Then, too, May's experience at the tackle job, and his influence on the other players, has helped wonderfully, and for the first time since the football season began it looks as though O. A. C. will show her real strength.

Acid Test Saturday.

Against Washington university it will be an acid test, but the enthusiasm which has suddenly developed among the players since this change means much in predicting results for Saturday.

Individually, the boys are fit and looking forward with determination to the game Saturday at Multnomah field, and if Washington university takes home the bacon, it will be after the most desperate fight which the Seattle crowd has been through this season.

Coach Dolan is working heroically and his efforts are showing in the improved form both on offense and defense. He is beginning to see a ray of hope ahead, and with the team rounding into fine physical condition, Sam no longer wears that worried look which was so noticeable during that period of the season when the team was experiencing such hard luck because of injuries, etc.

Crowd of Boosters Coming.

Great preparations are being made to take a large crowd of the rooters to Portland. A special train has been secured which will leave Corvallis Saturday morning and return Saturday evening, with return privileges on the tickets lasting until Monday evening. Fully 500 of these tickets have been sold. The band will accompany the team. Yell leader Dutton held a rally at convocation hour yesterday noon to practice songs and yells for the game. Last night there was another rally in the Armory, at which time some clever stunts were rehearsed to be put on between halves.

Coy Press to Coach Yale.

(United Press Special Wire.)
New Haven, Conn., Nov. 7.—Ted Coy, famous fullback, has returned to New Haven and is assisting the coaches with the Yale eleven. He has been giving "Lefty" Flynn some pointers on how to play fullback.

SANTA MARIA WILL NOT SEE PORTLAND

Manager McCredie yesterday received a letter from the Chicago White Sox asking him where he was going to train this year, so that they could make out their schedule to include Portland in several games. Manager Mac says it is very doubtful whether he will return to Santa Maria, and is now viewing Bakersfield as a possible camp. He was last in Bakersfield in 1905, but it rained heavily all over California that year and none of the clubs got in much practice, but when it did clear up the weather was fine. By pitching his tent at Bakersfield, Mac figures that he could get a lot of games with the fast semi-professional teams in the valley, besides mixing up with the colleges. Last year the Beavers did not have a stiff game prior to the opening at Los Angeles. This year they open at San Francisco, and Mac is going to be well prepared, even if it does mean moving from the 3-year-old camp at Santa Maria.

Averages of Players This Week.

This is the season for official averages of the two farthest western leagues, the Northwestern and the Pacific Coast. The Fleider Jones league will release its fielding averages next Saturday and the batting and pitching averages Sunday. President Baum of the Coasters will release the class AA averages the following week, the fans to get the pitching and fielding averages Saturday afternoon, November 16, and the batting averages the following morning.

Big Leagues Open April 10.

New York, Nov. 7.—It was announced here last evening that the big leagues will open their 1913 season April 10. Dan Johnson will arrange the American league schedule while President Lynch, Secretary Heyder and Barney Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh National league club probably will frame the schedule for the older organization.

Will Ask Waivers on Wolverton.

New York, Nov. 7.—It was announced here today that President Farrell of the New York American league team plans to ask waivers on Harry Wolverton, who managed the Highlanders in the season just closed. Wolverton came to New York from Oakland, Cal., where he managed the Pacific Coast league team in 1911.

Gossip Concerning Next Saturday's Game

Arrangements were made yesterday between Manager Zednick of the Washington O. A. C. management and the Multnomah club officials, for a special ticket to be sold to local high school students. Managers of the respective athletic teams will be furnished with a special high school ticket which will cost 75 cents instead of $1.

One of the features of the day Saturday will be the serpentine parade, staged by O. A. C. rooters. Leaving their special train they will cover the down town streets, headed by the cadet band for half an hour.

Special sections have been reserved by the management for the rooters of each college. Bleacher seats to the number of 500 each have been roped off, while 500 seats have been reserved in the grand stand for each section.

Twelve O. A. C. players were used in the W. S. C. game at Pullman last Saturday. Rassmussen was damaged slightly towards the close of that game but is again in practice and this injury a whole lineup against Washington.

Walter Dutton, cheer leader extraordinary of O. A. C., has complete charge of the excursion which will come out of Corvallis bringing the O. A. C. students for the game Saturday. He is the goods as a leader in this respect, and O. A. C. will not suffer in comparison with the good work which the Washington rooters are expected to spring.

The seats for the big game Saturday are on sale at Nau's drug store, in the Sealing building, corner Sixth and Alder streets. Superintendent Dow Walker of the Multnomah club, got the sale under way yesterday and one of the office force of the club will be in charge until Saturday noon to take care of the patrons wishing reservations in advance. All of the grand stand will be reserved and although all of the seats are choice, the best ones about the center are going most rapidly.

Graduate Manager Zednick bids fair to qualify for the Bill Tart class if he keeps on putting on weight. The last time Zed was here he weighed 205 and he refuses to name his exact poundage now.

Zednick says the University of Washington rooters have something new in the line of evolutions. Last year when they played Washington here they put over one that caught the fancy of the spectators. Some new steps have been added and the "hook" will be put into play again.

Scouts from the University of Oregon will be on hand to get a line on Washington's play. Oregon meets Washington next Saturday at Seattle and the visitors' play will be closely scanned for signs of weakness. It is hardly likely now that the university and the Agricultural college will get together for November 23, O. A. C. not taking a liking to the counter three year proposition submitted by the university as the basis upon which to renew football relations.

LINCOLN CRUSHES HOPES OF JEFFS

Makes Two Touchdowns and Field Goal, and Hold Op- ponents Scoreless

The Lincoln eleven administered a crushing defeat to the Jefferson team yesterday afternoon on Multnomah field, by downing the blue and gold players, 18 to 0. Luck favored Lincoln throughout the entire contest.

Captain Groce was the star of the game. He scored both of the Cardinal touchdowns and kicked a goal after a touchdown. He played his very best game and went through Jefferson's line for many yards.

Mulkey and Freeman both made yardage by line plays. Jake Risley did good work at center, his defensive playing being of a high order. In the third quarter he intercepted a forward pass and gained 35 yards before he was brought down.

Hendrickson and Stemler were the stars of the Jefferson team, both these fellows returning to defensive work. Stemler was forced to retire in the third period. Magius and the Lister brothers also figured prominently in Jefferson's playing.

In the second quarter after the blue and gold squad held Lincoln in the five yard zone, Williams punted out 30 yards to Kennedy, who returned the ball five yards. Mulkey and Groce carried the ball for yardage twice and after two line plays Captain Groce put the ball over Jefferson's goal-line. He kicked the goal, making the score 7 to 0.

Lincoln started down the field in the third period, but Freeman's fumble gave the ball to Jefferson on their own eight yard line. Lincoln broke through the line and blocked a punt, but it was recovered by a Jefferson player. On the next attempt Williams punted to the 20 yard line, where Kennedy made a fair catch. Freeman then kicked a goal, giving the Cardinal 10 points.

The second touchdown was scored in the fourth period. Groce recovered a blocked place kick on the 17 yard line. Two touchdowns brought the ball to the nine yard line, where Groce went through right tackle on the delayed pass for a touchdown. The kick for goal failed.

MULTNOMAH C TOO MUCH FOR D QUINT

Martin Rolls 246 Score for Honeyman Team in Com- mercial League.

A surprise was sprung last night when the Multnomah "D" team took the second game of a bowling match from the Multnomah "C's." The "D" team had two relief men in the lineup, Humphries, who made the high game of the evening, and MacKay. Of course, this team was no match for Bates' "C" aggregation of stars, Bates having men good for at least 100 pins a game more than the men of the other squad. But the good work of everybody in Minsinger's team except Jonah Finch enabled them to win by 63 pins. Bates won the first and third games easily. Eddie Capen was the only man on the alleys who was in the game all the time, averaging 183 for the night.
