Spanish Premier Assassinated Shot Down in Heart of Madrid King Kneels in Prayer Beside Body

CANALEJAS SHOT BY ANARCHIST TO AVENGE FERRER

Jose Canalejas, Premier of Spain.

Two Bullets Enter Head Behind Ear and Statesman Dies Instantly, Assassin, Zarrate, is Captured.

Madrid, Nov. 12.—Premier Canalejas of Spain was assassinated here today. The murderer is reported to have been an anarchist who revenged on Canalejas his part in the death of Professor Francisco Ferrer.

The assassination of the premier occurred in front of the building of the ministry of the interior, which fronts on the Puerta del Sol, a square in the center of Madrid.

Stepping behind Canalejas, the assassin, Manuel Pardo y Zarrate, fired twice. Both bullets entered the premier's head behind the ear and he fell dead on the pavement.

It was at first announced that Zarrate had killed himself, but this report was added to the confusion. Cavalry, finally scattered the crowd. When the body of the premier was reached it was found that death had been instantaneous. The body was taken into the ministry of the interior.

When the tragedy occurred Canalejas had just left his carriage and was crossing the square to the ministry of the interior, where a cabinet meeting was planned. The street was crowded and as the premier always went about unguarded, Zarrate found no difficulty in reaching his victim.

Practically every prominent anarchist in the city was arrested within a few minutes after Canalejas' assassination, but despite this a general uprising is feared. The authorities believe the inflammatory speeches delivered on Sunday at a memorial meeting in honor of Professor Ferrer inspired Zarrate to his deadly attack.

King Alfonso was greatly shocked when he learned of the tragedy. He hurried to the ministry of the interior and prayed at length beside the body. Immediately afterward a cabinet meeting was held and Minister Prieto was appointed acting premier.

This afternoon the corpse of the dead statesman lay in the main hall of the ministry of the interior building, while sympathetic crowds passed it by. The royal palace is heavily guarded and only persons known to the authorities are allowed in the vicinity.

The assassination of Canalejas occurred at 11:30 o'clock this morning, but the censor held up all telegraphic and telephone connections, and the news was not generally known for four hours. Not even commercial communications were permitted.

Jose Canalejas, who was a liberal, succeeded Antonio Maura, conservative.

RUSHLIGHT CANDIDATE FOR REELECTION, SAYS HIS INTIMATE FRIENDS

Announcement by Rushlight Is Expected Within Few Days; Baker Denies He Will Run.

Mayor A. G. Rushlight is a candidate for reelection. He will enter the primary race for the Republican nomination next April. Although the mayor has made no definite announcement to this effect, there is no doubt as to his intentions, say his intimate friends.

The published report to the effect that George L. Baker, at present president of the city council, would enter the mayoralty race next year is denied by Mr. Baker, who this morning declared, if Mayor Rushlight decides to seek reelection, that he would not oppose the mayor.

Other reports to the effect that Councilman Will H. Daly, J. J. Jennings, Ralph C. Clyde and James Maguire are laying plans to enter the primaries for the mayoralty next spring are not being regarded seriously. Friends of the mayor do not believe that any of the men whose names have been mentioned will run against Mr. Rushlight, in the event that he announces his intention of seeking another term.

It is believed that one of the issues of the coming campaign will be the purchase of Ross island and the establishment there of a new incinerator. Mayor Rushlight has made good, declared one of his close political friends today, "and he should be returned to the office. He has uprooted a good deal of the graft that has in times past characterized the operation of the police department; he has reorganized the city water department and is now engaged in putting it on a business basis; he has established a municipal vice commission and signed two important ordinances for the correction of and financially backed by the billiard manufacturers, who are now determined on a 'clean up' policy. The constitution of the National Billiard association cuts out gambling, blind pigs, obscene pictures or language and disorderly conduct of any kind. Those who will not join the association will be blacklisted. We will cooperate with the reformers, churches, etc., in closing them out of business.

"So it happens that the most purely scientific and beautiful, the most attractive and refined, the most artistic and wholesome of all indoor games is going to be emancipated from vice and filth, with which it has no natural connection. Thus to clean up the place where the young man spends and will spend his leisure becomes more than mere preaching.

17 KILLED, 20 HURT BY EXPLOSION OF TON OF DYNAMITE IN INDIANA

Pack House of Aetna Powder Co. Blown Up by Jarring of Machinery.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Gary, Ind., Nov. 12.—At least six persons are known to have been killed today in an explosion which wrecked the pack house of the Aetna powder plant at Aetna, near here. The bodies of William Halpin, Oscar Carlson and C. Carlson have been recovered. It is feared that other bodies are buried in the debris. Twenty persons were injured.

Superintendent Edwards thinks the explosion resulted from the stoppage of the machinery which packs the dynamite "crimps" and the shells. He believes the jar from the machinery was the direct cause.

The bodies of three unidentified men were blown to bits. About 2000 pounds of dynamite, stored in the wrecked pack house, exploded, and it is regarded as miraculous that the shock did not cause explosions in the other eight pack houses nearby.

The shock from the explosion was terrific. It was felt at Grand Haven, Mich., residents there believing they were experiencing an earthquake. Railroad tracks a mile from the plant were thrown out of line.

Latest reports here from Aetna say none of the injured will die.

UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE DUE, SAYS DR. SHAW

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Nov. 12.—Universal suffrage in the United States and Great Britain within 10 years will result from the woman suffrage victories in Oregon, Michigan and Kansas, according to Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Woman Suffrage association, here today. She said:

"We hold the balance of power—70 electoral votes—in any closely contested election. When the political parties are brought to recognize that fact we will no longer need to plead for the franchise. It will be given to us."

"Men fear that woman will seek the spoils of office. That is their main reason for hesitancy in espousing the suffrage idea. That is wrong. Had I to choose between a man and woman for an office, each equally equipped, I would vote for the man. Woman, you know, cannot take an office away from a man as long as he runs for it. She has to run for it herself. We will wait until we are equipped for office."

ETTOR ON STAND DENIES HE URGED STRIKERS TO RIOT

Defendant in Lawrence Strike Case Tells Life History and Recites Part Played by Him in Textile Strike.

CARUSO SAYS HE WILL JOIN I. W. W. WHEN FREE

Admits He Did Not Tell His Wife of the Killing of Anna Lopizzo.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Salem, Mass., Nov. 12.—Cool recital of the part he played in the great industrial struggle at Lawrence last winter was given to the jury today by Joseph J. Ettor, co-defendant with Antonio Caruso and Arturo Giovannitti, on trial here for the alleged murder of Anna Lopizzo, a woman striker.

He outlined his career from the time he first joined the Shipbuilders' union in San Francisco until the Lawrence strike. Ettor testified that he was born in New York City, but that he had lived most of his life in Tacoma, Wash. He admitted that he had addressed the strikers at Lawrence, but denied that he had incited the workers to violence. "I told those downtrodden men and women of Lawrence," said Ettor, "that all workmen and women should stay away from the mills to insure solidarity and to avoid trouble among themselves. I pointed out to them that the bosses could call the police and then more police, and then the militia, if necessary, to protect property. I agreed with the mayor that the strike should be peaceful. I said: 'In the last analysis all the blood spilled in the strike will be our blood.'"

Caruso preceded Ettor on the stand. He also gave a complete history of his life. "I do not belong to the Industrial Workers of the World now," said Caruso, just before he left the stand. "But I will join the organization when I am acquitted of this charge." Caruso admitted under cross-examination that he did not tell his wife of the shooting of Anna Lopizzo.

HOMESTEADERS GOOD AIM SAVES HIM WHEN COUGAR MAKES LEAP

Two Big Animals Killed by Manny Hill in Mountains of Clackamas County.

(Special to The Journal.) Estacada, Or., Nov. 12.—Attacked by a cougar in the mountains, 14 miles from here, Manny Hill, a homesteader, killed it after a brisk fight, during which he escaped injury.

Hill with a bird dog was hunting grouse in a thicket near his cabin, when the cougar shot out of a tree, alighting on the dog. In passing, the animal's claws struck Hill, knocking his hat off and slightly scratching him. The dog wriggled out of the way and the animal promptly rushed at Hill, but the 22 caliber special bullet had wounded him and while he crouched for another leap, Hill shot the big cat through the head, killing him instantly.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Berlin, Nov. 12.—An unconfirmed dispatch to the Vossische Gazette from the Adriatic seaport of Pola, asserts that Austria this afternoon ordered the mobilization of its naval forces. The dispatch says the Austrian war fleet on the Danube river had received orders to mobilize at Semlin, across the frontier from Belgrade, and that plans were in progress for partial mobilization of the army on Thursday. Many reservists, it was said, are expected to join the colors.

Bulgarian Dispatch Says Besieged City Taken by Allies; Claim Tchatalja Captured.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Sofia, Nov. 12.—Reports from the Bulgarian front before Adrianople today declare that the city has fallen. No details have yet been received as to whether the Turks surrendered or whether the city was carried by storm. American Cruisers Sail Philadelphia, Nov. 12.—Sailing under rush orders, the armored cruisers Montana and Tennessee left today for Turkish waters to protect American lives and property jeopardized by the Balkan war and the probability of an anti-Christian uprising.

Terms Too Severe for Sultan (United Press Leased Wire.) Paris, Nov. 12.—Government announcement was made here today that the French ministry is not informed as to the present status of peace negotiations between Turkey and Bulgaria. SUPREME COURT HITS UNLICENSED FOREIGN CORPORATIONS HARD Refuses to Acknowledge Validity of Notes Assigned by Laemmle Film Service.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., Nov. 12.—The hazards of a foreign corporation doing business within the state without complying with the corporation laws of the state are illustrated in the case of Leo Hirschfeld vs. J. S. McCullach, appellant, which was reversed and dismissed by the supreme court today. The case was appealed from Multnomah county. The Laemmle Film Service of Chicago appointed an agent and opened an office in Portland and did business in the state about two years when it sold out to J. S. McCullach, who gave notes for $3000. The corporation had never taken out a license to do business in the state, or otherwise complied with the law. The notes were made payable $500 monthly. After a payment was past due they were transferred to the plaintiff, who brought suit to collect. "In any event the note was part of a business transaction in Oregon, carried out in contravention of its laws and contrary to the public policy of this state, as expressed in its legislation upon this subject," says the supreme court's opinion. "On this account the courts here will not lend their aid towards enforcing the contract."

Turks Hold Defenses (United Press Leased Wire.) London, Nov. 12.—That the Bulgarians are having greater trouble than they expected in breaking through the Turkish defenses is the belief of military experts here. The fighting at Tchatalja is on today, but little advance has been made by the allied armies. An anti-Christian feeling is growing rapidly in Constantinople and it is feared that Moslem soldiers may start a religious massacre at any moment. It is charged by the Turks that the Bulgarians mistreated Turkish non-combatants. A cavalry officer asserts he passed through five villages taken by the Bulgarians, and that all the women had their right hands cut off and the children's fingers were sliced. Inhabitants of the territory taken by the Servians have accepted their new rulers, and are settling down to normal conditions.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Trenton, N. J., Nov. 12.—Governor Wilson automobilized here today from Princeton. He will attend to state matters and confer with his New Jersey aides as to the course to be pursued in the "clean up campaign." In state affairs which he had planned before his induction into the presidency, President-elect Wilson denied today that he had discussed the possibility of his calling an extra session of congress with anyone. He insisted he had not made up his mind in the matter.
