

RURAL MAIL DELAY
GRIPES VERY SOUL

Woes of Patrons on Route 1, Waterloo, Or., Described by a Sufferer.

(Special to The Journal.) Sweet Home, Or., Nov. 21.—Patrons of R. F. D. No. 1 from Waterloo, Or., say they are receiving very poor service. Waterloo is the second of a string of towns which are served by a stage line from Lebanon, which itself is at the end of a branch road running from Albany and another from Woodburn.

The towns, in order, are Sodaville, Waterloo, Sweet Home, Foster and Cascade, one stage leaving Lebanon each morning, and another starting from Cascade, which arrives at Lebanon about 8 o'clock p. m.

The mail schedules cause the carrier for R. F. D. No. 1, Waterloo, to leave that office about an hour before the arrival of the daily stage from Lebanon on his 25 mile drive to carry to nearly 500 persons living on his route, mail which had arrived in Lebanon one day, had lain over there until the next morning, then had been carried by stage to Waterloo, and then to Waterloo for the night before he could start out with it. Thus all news is two—and if Sunday intervenes, three—days old before the farmer gets it. The farmer reads the quotations in his Journal and wishes a load of produce to Lebanon and ships it to Portland expecting a big check in return, only to learn in his next day's Journal that a sudden glut had caused that particular article to drop away down, and he has thereby lost many dollars that quicker mail service might have saved him!

FIVE PASS EXAMINATION FOR CAPTAIN OF POLICE

Only five of the 17 men who took the examination held by the civil service commission to secure eligibles for the position of police captain were found to have passed when the commission yesterday approved the final markings. These men in the order they passed are R. H. Craddock, Joseph Keller, E. M. Lyon, T. J. Casey and Harry Riley.

One of the first three will be appointed by Mayor Rushlight to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Captain Bailey. This has been filled temporarily by acting Captain Harry Riley. Joe Keller, who is a particular friend of Mayor Rushlight's, has been employed as acting captain also for the past year. Friends of Keller are practically certain that he will be the man named by the mayor for the permanent captaincy.

As the vacancy being taken care of by acting Captain Riley is only temporary, that officer may be retained, although Police Sergeant E. M. Lyon is being urged for the place. Lyon passed third in the examination. He is a Spanish war veteran.

HIS "FIERCE" WATCH-DOG ONLY BLINKED
AS BURGLAR WORKED

(Special to The Journal.) Eugene, Or., Nov. 21.—Sam Bernstein, a dealer in second-hand goods in this city, is convinced that all fierce looking and ugly dogs are not good watchdogs. A short time ago he purchased an Alaskan wolf dog, guaranteed to keep burglars away, and has kept the animal tied in his store every night since.

Tuesday night someone entered the store, picked over a lot of jewelry, cutlery and other goods, and taking the best he could find and packing it in a new suitcase selected from the stock, left the store without being molested by the dog.

Bernstein discovered his loss when he opened the store for business yesterday morning. The dog was lying asleep where it was tied the night before. People living above the store, who are able to hear the least noise beneath, declare there was no disturbance, the burglars evidently making friends with the dog.

Wants Aid for Good Roads.
(Special to The Journal.) Medford, Or., Nov. 21.—At the first meeting of the newly elected county court it was decided to ask the southern Oregon delegation to the state legislature to help Jackson County get state aid for a state highway. If state bonds are issued for the Pacific highway, work can be begun at both north and south ends of the road. An active program is being mapped out by the new county court.
