

DIG CROWD GOING TO ALBANY BATTLE

Ten Thousand People, It Is Estimated, Will See O. A. C.-U. O. Game.

Corvallis, Or., Nov. 22.—The Corvallis High school team scored a touchdown on the Oregon Aggies in a practice game yesterday. The Aggies won the game, by kicking the goal, 7 to 6. May, Robertson and Kellogg were out of the game on account of injuries. "Hat" Rinehart arrived this morning.

It is believed that fully 10,000 residents of Portland will take in the big game at Albany tomorrow between the University of Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural college, which will be called at 1:30 o'clock. Estimates from Albany place the attendance at close to 10,000 for the afternoon, and there is every likelihood that the crowd will go over that figure. Ample cars will be provided to take the Portland delegation to the Hub City.

SHAW'S NOSE NEEDS OPERATION BEFORE SATURDAY'S GAME

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Or., Nov. 22.—"Without an operation, 'Hunky' Shaw cannot play in Saturday's game with the university," said Dr. Stewart this morning, after consultation with Dr. William T. Johnson, of Corvallis. "That means that if he goes into the game at all, it will be in a weakened condition, and as there is no first class man to put in his place, one side of our backfield is very much injured."

Shaw has had considerable difficulty with his breathing, since the accident Saturday, and a careful examination revealed a displacement of some of the bones, which will necessitate a delicate operation. Shaw maintains that he will play the game regardless of the condition of his nose. The heaviest scrimmage of the week revealed a number of weak spots in the team. Since winning from Whitman with such an overwhelming score the whole team has taken a slump. One man is out of the game until Thanksgiving at least, and two more, Kellogg and May, are on the sick list. Kellogg reported for practice, but after a little work, he was forced to retire. May sprained his knee slightly, and had to return to the gymnasium, but his injury is not thought to be serious enough to keep him out of the coming contest. Robertson is still off of the gridiron, and will be until the game in the south. Christmas's ankles are in poor shape, and many yards were made through him in the scrimmage yesterday.

Freshman Make Gains. The freshman eleven was the victor in the scrimmage, although no score was made. Long gains were made through the line, and around the ends. The latter positions were the weakest, because both of the regular players were on the sidelines, with injuries. The freshmen kept the ball in varsity territory all of the time, but were unable to score.

After the poor showing made by the varsity, Coach Dolan said: "I am puzzled to know why the team has slumped so, aside from the injuries. After the exciting contest with the Missionaries, the team was badly battered, but should be on the job again by this time. I do not know whether they are stale, or indifferent because of the big score they ran up last Saturday. It is a good thing I had a big gauge on this coming Saturday, because without it, there would have been no use to make the trip south, because the men would not have come out to practice."

Aggies Get Choice Bleachers. Manager Bert Pickington won the toss for the first selection of the section to be occupied by the Corvallis rooters. He will take the one least interfered with by the sun in the eyes of the supporters, or in other ways disagreeable. He reported that the work on the bleachers was well under way, and would easily be completed by Saturday.

Regardless of comparative scores, the letters favor the University of Oregon. Money at 2 to 1 on Oregon to win has been plentiful and very little of it has changed hands. The general feeling seems to be that Coach Pinkham's boys will whip something over on the Aggies, and win, as they have done so often in the past.

OPEN PLAY AGAINST COMPACT FORMATION IS SYSTEM OF OREGON

Eugene, Or., Nov. 22.—The University of Oregon football team is recovering from its injuries, and the team which faced Washington will front Corvallis at Albany tomorrow. The Oregon team will use only open football, and as the Aggies play the compact game, it will be interesting to watch the results of the two styles of play. Although the Aggies figure to win on comparative scores, the university students are relying a good bit on tradition and the famous Oregon spirit to win over the college.

Albany Prepares 10,000 Seats. Albany, Or., Nov. 22.—Preparations for the big football game between the University of Oregon and the Corvallis Agricultural college tomorrow are being made on an extensive scale by the merchants and people of Albany. The fences at Athletic park have been moved back and bleachers erected to seat fully 10,000 people, with standing room for several thousand more. The grounds are in excellent condition, and the weather man has promised to do his best. Many of the stores of the city have already been decorated with one or both of the college colors, and practically all the merchants of the city have signed an agreement to close shop during the game, so that everyone in the city can go to the game if they want to do so.

Driscoll, utility outfielder of the Los Angeles club, yesterday asked the county clerk to cancel his permit to wed Miss Helen Marie Hall of Berkeley. Driscoll was informed that nothing could be done, but that he might get the written consent of his girl's parents and obtain another license.

LADD'S ELEVEN WINS GRAMMAR HEAVY TITLE

Colored Halfback and Chinese Tackle Feature Playing of the Teams.

The Ladd team won the heavyweight championship of the Grammar School Football league yesterday afternoon by downing the Holladay team by the score of 19 to 12. The Ladd team outweighed the Holladay team and depended on straight football for yardage. The Holladay team used trick plays, delayed passes and forward passes for a great deal of their yardage.

Over 2000 grammar school students witnessed the game and crowded on the field and several times it was necessary to stop the game to clear the field and the sidelines. Phelps, the colored halfback of the Holladay team, played a wonderful game. He was strong in bucking the line and fleet on end runs. With a little more speed he would have scored two touchdowns. Hastings, the midget quarterback of the Holladay team, showed that he was capable of running an eleven.

Bosch and Cunif, Holladay's ends, showed up well on forward passes. The entire Ladd backfield played steady ball. Jordan, Foley and Adams formed a strong trio in the center of Ladd's line. Wing Wong, the Chinese

NUMBER OF VENTIREMEN WILL BE INCREASED

In order that real citizens of Multnomah county may be secured in larger measure for jury duty and the large number of men who have taken out but their first citizenship papers may be cut down, a sweeping change has been adopted in selection of names of ventiremen. At a conference of the circuit judges with County Judge Cleeton and the county commissioners yesterday it was decided that two thirds of the jury-men should be selected in the future from those paying taxes on real estate and the remaining third from the personal tax roll.

"We intend to get the legislature to pass, if possible, a law permitting the selection of 2500 ventiremen in the future, instead of 1500 as at present," said Judge Cleeton. "Now the number is not sufficient for a year's work and special venire are necessary. I believe the new way of selecting the men is best, and the other judges agree." The only other business transacted by the commissioners was the issuance of an order to Road Supervisor A. H. White ordering him to furnish James Patterson with two loads of crushed rock for use on the Moon's ferry road. Mr. Patterson will pay the county for the rock.
