

WOLGAST IS READY TO TAKE RECEIPTS

Champion, Stung by Talk, Would Bet Against Willie Ritchie's End of Purse.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Nov. 22.—Stung by Willie Ritchie's invitation to fight here on Thanksgiving day, winner take all, Ad. Wolgast came right back with the pepper retort: "Willie is making talk to screw up his courage," said Wolgast. "He would no more fight me, winner take all, than he would walk across the bay. But if he wants to take a chance with whatever he will get as his percentage he can do so. Let him give Jim Coffroth written permission to bet his entire end of the purse, and I will give him 10 to 1 for his coin. Our money is ready, and we will put it up the minute Ritchie says the word."

Wolgast declares his cold is improving, and that his sore left arm is almost well again. Ritchie yesterday afternoon entertained a visiting delegation of newspapermen at San Rafael. Before his workout the would-be champion weighed just 135 1/2 pounds, and still is sure he will have no difficulty in making the 153 mark with all his strength within him when he faces Wolgast in the ring. Whether Ritchie can beat the champion or not time will tell. But it is as sure as shooting that he thinks he can. Ritchie is firm in his belief that whatever his chances with other boys, Wolgast is "made for him." So strong is this conviction that it is more than probable that he will be willing to put a bet on himself against the champion, although it is not probable that his money or that of his backers will come out until the odds lengthen to the neighborhood of two to one. So far only one bet, $1000 to $500, with Wolgast on the long end, has gone through the hands of the betting commission here, and it is expected that before the fight much money will be down, and that Ritchie will get strong support.

Balac Beats Zanders.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Sydney, N. S. W., Nov. 22.—Ereole Balac of France, is the victor here today over Erulle Zanders, an American fighter, after 12 rounds of a grueling battle, during which the shade was all on the side of the Frenchman. The bout was scheduled to go 20 rounds, but Zanders was so badly beaten that the police stopped the fight in the twelfth. Both boxers are under engagement to Hugh McIntosh.

Kilbane After Dundee.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Cleveland, Nov. 22.—Stirred up by the ease with which Johnny Dundee outpointed Frankie Conley in Los Angeles, Johnny Kilbane now wants to meet the victor there New Years day. Kilbane is willing to cancel his scheduled bout with Eddie Morgan Christmas, and if a satisfactory offer is received will go to the coast very soon to prepare for the match.

Watson and Picato Draw.

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 22.—After 10 rounds of fast fighting the bout between Red Watson and Babu Picato, before the West Oakland club, was declared a draw. Watson took the aggressive from the start but many of his blows missed. Picato also missed many of his punches. In the other bouts Louis Rees of Los Angeles, won the decision over Kid Peppers of Kansas City, after six rounds; Ed Willet knocked out "Mysterious" Mitchell in the second round; Jim Horner and Ray Campbell fought a draw, and Koney Fratas won the decision from Willie Miller.

Moran to Meet Gunboat.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Nov. 22.—Frank Moran, the big Pittsburgh heavy, who has been fighting here of late, is to be given a real tryout in Oakland against Gunboat Smith. Moran is said to be matched with Smith for 10 rounds on December 10. If he makes good James W. Coffroth will pit him against the winner of the Flynn-McCarthy bout in Los Angeles. The battle will come on New Years day.

Mandot 10 to 7 Favorite.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Nov. 22.—Ten to seven is the price marked to date on the Thanksgiving day Rivers-Mandot battle, with Mandot the favorite. Indications are, however, that there will be much Rivers money and a shorter price at the ringside would occasion little surprise. Both boys are in the midst of their training. Mandot apparently is in the

HARVARD GOLFERS WILL PLAY RIVALS

Battle of Irons Will Rage on Local Green Tomorrow Afternoon.

While the Yale and Harvard football teams are battling on the gridiron at New Haven tomorrow afternoon another contest will be going on at the same time on the Waverly golf links, when the Harvard graduates will take on the Yale graduates, reinforced by a couple of Princeton men. The Harvard men challenged the Yale men to a contest with the locals, but when the sons of old Eli counted noses they found that they lacked two of having enough to fill out its quintet. They immediately hunted up a couple of Princeton "grads," it being remembered that Harvard trounced the Tigers a couple of weeks ago, 18 to 6, and Yale and Princeton ended with honors even, 8 to 8, thereby making the cause a common one. According to the onlookers, the strength of the two quintets is about even, but enthusiasm runs high over the approaching contest. The two rival teams have been practicing up for a week in preparation for the game, and it will doubtless be a very close one. The Johnny Harvard team is composed of Kurt Koehler, Elliott Corbett, H. Hoffman, Fred Forster and Chester Murphy, while the Yale-Princeton team is made up of H. S. Wells, H. R. Falling and M. H. Hartwell, Bulldogs, and Harry C. Davis Jr. and George Warren, Tigers.

Ledoux Beats Battling Reddy.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Nov. 22.—Charles Ledoux, the French lightweight champion, who claims a record of 54 battles won, all by knockouts, is the victor here today over Battling Reddy of Harlem, after 10 rounds of rough fighting.

Nelson Needs Fire Bell.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Nov. 22.—Because he has a hard time hearing the bell at the end and opening of a round, due to a slight deafness, Battling Nelson, one time champion lightweight, insisted today that a regular old fire alarm ring be installed at the ringside when he meets Leach Cross in New York Thanksgiving day.

Writers Give White Shade.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Knoxville, Wis., Nov. 22.—Sport writers here today gave Charlie White a shade in his 10 round battle last night with Pal Moore of Philadelphia. Except in the sixth round, when Moore landed several telling blows, White had all the better of the bout.

Donovan's Son Winner.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Nov. 22.—Young Mike Donovan, son of the veteran boxing instructor of the New York Athletic club, is victor here today over "Red" Ames, whom he put away in three rounds.

Dundee After Champ Kilbane.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Nov. 22.—Johnny Dundee, happy because of his decisive victory over Frankie Conley, announced today a siege for Johnny Kilbane's championship citadel. Dundee starts tonight for Philadelphia. Upon his arrival he will, he declared, hurl challenge after challenge at Kilbane. Dundee wants to fight the Clevelander on the Pacific coast.

SIGNAL PRACTICE FOR YALE AND HARVARD MEN

(United Press Leased Wire.) New Haven, Conn., Nov. 22.—For the final training before the big game here tomorrow between Yale and Harvard football eleven, the Yale team devoted the day to practicing signals. The Springwater basketball team beat the high school stars at Springwater last Saturday. The score was 30 to 27. The score at half time was 15 to 7 in favor of Springwater. HOLLAND AND BERG WILL MIX TONIGHT

Northwest Middleweights Act Like Strange Bulldogs in Their Attitude.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Nov. 22.—About evenly matched and primed for battle Fritz Holland of Spokane and Otto Berg of Astoria, who are matched for the 10-round main event of Promoter Eddie Granado's show here tonight, eagerly await the ring. The men have completed their training. Some bitter feeling is said to exist between the boxers over the fact that each claims the championship of the northwest. In a previous battle, where no decision was rendered, they battled like two strange bulldogs, with honors even at the finish. Another bout on the same card that is attracting fight fans, is that between Marty Kane and Jimmy Fox, featherweights, who are scheduled to go six rounds. Kane is an aggressive type of fighter, while Fox is about as clever a lad with his fists as there is about the bay. To complete the card Promoter Graney announces another six-round battle between Willie Meehan of San Francisco and Jack Herrick of San Francisco and Chicago, middleweights, besides Lee Johnson of Oakland vs. Young Abe A-tell.

ANGELUS COIN ON WOLGAST.
