

OREGON SIGNS UP WITH MULTNOMAH TWO MORE YEARS

Geary Lands Games for 1914 and 1915 and Will Bring Washington to City Next November; Varsity Ahead.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 25.—A welcome surprise was sprung upon the campus today by Graduate Manager Geary when he made known the fact that he has a few days ago signed a contract with the Multnomah club...

The contract was signed when it became known that the Agricultural colleges would not accept any terms other than which required the breaking of Oregon's contract with the Multnomah club...

Geary has also signed a contract with the University of Washington for a one year's game in Portland. The date has not been set definitely...

In Optional Proposition. The Oregon-Multnomah club additional Thanksgiving contract calls for an optional proposition...

The Oregon-Multnomah club additional Thanksgiving contract calls for an optional proposition. The net receipts shall be divided equally after Multnomah has been allowed 25 per cent for the use of the field...

Not only the victory over O. A. C. Saturday at Albany put Oregon's football reputation upon a sounder basis, but it also placed its financial standing upon a firm platform...

The showing is very creditable to Manager Geary, who is making a thorough success of the graduate coaching system...

Wakings played a tie game, 6 to 6, yesterday afternoon, on the Columbus club field. Both teams had their full strength in the field...

The East Portland and Mohawk teams played another tie game with the same score as the Watkins-McLoughlin game.

The Albina team swamped the South Portland eleven yesterday afternoon on the South Portland field by the score of 40 to 0.

The Stephens team forfeited to the Lents team yesterday by failing to put in an appearance at the scheduled time.

There will be a meeting of the team managers of the league Wednesday night. Several disputed contests will be settled.

The Columbia Park team played a tie game with the Sellwood team Saturday afternoon. The score was 7 to 7.

CHAMPION QUOTED AT 2 TO 1 FAVORITE

Ritchie Says He'll Get Down His Last Dollar at That Price.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 25.—The odds on the Wolgast-Ritchie 20 round Thanksgiving day battle here took another tumble today. Wolgast now ruling a 2 to 1 favorite.

"It's just as I expected," said Ritchie today. "Right here is where I bet my last bean on my chance to win, as I expect the odds to shorten up before we step into the ring."

Wolgast showed improved form today over that manifested in his work-out of Saturday. Experts say he has improved at least 75 per cent.

About 3000 persons, both men and women, visited Ritchie's camp and were bewildered by the speed and form shown by the San Francisco fighter.

GREATEST ADVANCE SALE FOR THURSDAY

Record for First Half Hour Is Broken; Varsity Is Strong.

Two hundred and fifty dollars' worth of seats were sold in half an hour this morning for the Thanksgiving day game next Thursday between the Multnomah club and the University of Oregon.

The playing and line plunging of the Vancouver team's backfield, was the best seen on Columbus field this season. The defense of the McLoughlin club seemed to be helpless before the onslaught in the first half of the game.

The locals failed to work a successful forward pass, while the St. James team worked four of them successfully, each netting over a dozen yards.

Stribeg, Gianelli, Dueber and Barr did very effective work against the St. James eleven, Stribeg and Gianelli breaking up many of Vancouver's plays before the backfield men could get started.

LOS ANGELENOS MAY BUILD RACING YACHT

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Nov. 25.—It appears almost certain today that Los Angeles will be represented against Sir Thomas Lipton in the proposed international yacht race during the San Francisco exposition in 1915.

At a dinner to the British sportsman here, next Wednesday evening, plans of Carey for his prospective bout between Eddie Campi of San Francisco and Kid Williams, the Baltimore youth, who has been wading easily through the sardine class on the Atlantic seaboard.

ST. JAMES ELEVEN BEATS M'LOUGHLIN

Triple Forward Pass Gives the First Touchdown Against Local Team.

The heavy St. James college team of Vancouver, Wash., proved too much for the McLoughlin club eleven yesterday afternoon on the Columbus club field.

The playing and line plunging of the Vancouver team's backfield, was the best seen on Columbus field this season. The defense of the McLoughlin club seemed to be helpless before the onslaught in the first half of the game.

BILL HILLIS HIGH GUN WITH THE SCORE OF 99

Bill Hillis with the score of 89 was the high man at the shoot of the Portland Gun club yesterday at the Kenton Oregon traps.

The scores: Hillis, 89; Poston, 85; Thornton, 82; Wentz, 82; Lewis, 80; Sleight, 79; Owen, 78; Smith, 77; Murphy, 75; Royal, 70; Sprague, 66, and Eastman, 64.

Two New Gun Clubs. A gun club has been formed at Big Eddy, which is a short distance from The Dalles, Or. The first shoot will be held Thanksgiving day.

A gun club at Central Point, Or., will be organized in a few days. Wayne Cleaver is in charge and it is possible that a three-cornered shoot between the clubs of Ashland, Medford and Central Point will take place soon.

Local Shooters at Gaston. Many local shooters will compete in the annual trophy shoot which will be held at Gaston, Or., Tuesday afternoon.

That yachting and motor boating has been given such an impetus by the visit of Sir Thomas Lipton, the Irish sportsman, that it is bound to become an important item in the sporting affairs of the Pacific coast, is the opinion of George S. Shepherd and Elwood Wiles, who returned yesterday from San Francisco, where a conference of yachtsmen and motor boat men was held last week for the purpose of launching plans for the 1915 regatta.

PORTLANDERS RETURN FROM REGATTA SESSION

Wiles and Shepherd Boosted Motorboating at Lipton Meeting in Frisco.

Wiles attended the meeting as the delegate from the Pacific International Motor Boat association, while Shepherd represented the local motor boat club. Primarily the San Francisco meeting was called for the purpose of considering a yacht race, but the motor boat men got together and before the meeting adjourned had made tentative plans for a big regatta in 1915 for sure and possibly one for 1913 in San Francisco.

Local Shooters at Gaston. Many local shooters will compete in the annual trophy shoot which will be held at Gaston, Or., Tuesday afternoon.

Make your Shaving Simple and Easy—Adopt the Gillette Safety Razor Today

A MAN who neglects to get a Gillette makes shaving twice as hard for himself as it has any business to be.

He deprives himself of the only really efficient shave in the world—velvet-smooth, cool and wonderfully kind to the face.

He subjects himself to the nuisance of stopping and honing. He spends ten minutes over his shave instead of three.

Many a morning he can't shave at all because his face is tender.

And if he patronizes a barber he spends forty to fifty dollars every year.

Get a Gillette. You'll find it the greatest comfort and convenience in all your shaving experience. Buy where the assortment is good. Do it today.

Gillette Standard sets, $5; Pocket editions, $5 to $6; Combination and Travelers' sets, $6 to $50.
