

The Lipman, Wolfe & Co. Tuesday Sales

THE DOLL SHOP

—The Brownies in Santa's workshop have, indeed, outdone themselves in the creations which come under the name of dolls turned out this year. What would appeal to the baby heart so much as one of these "Hug-Me-Tight Kiddies," round eyed, beaproned, sunbonneted? What would so delight the little miss of half a dozen summers as this big French doll, with her lavish wardrobe, and where is the little chap who would not dearly love one of these kitties or bow-wows, Fifi and Tubby, they are named? Dolls who go to sleep, dolls who really, truly talk, boy dolls, grown up lady dolls, teeny-weeny baby dolls; in fact, all kinds of dollies for all kinds of kiddies.

—There is also a very exclusive shop where little mothers may take their babies and buy them all the latest fads and fancies known in Dollodom.

Full Jointed Dolls
Special $1.25

—This is a very desirable doll which is dressed in slip, shoes and stockings.

—The kind of dolls that little girls always enjoy, for the eyes open and close and the face and body have natural flesh tints.

—Made with a papier mache body, full jointed—the hair is parted in the middle—on the side, or made with bangs, and has lovely soft curls.
