DISCARDED CLOTHES ASKED FOR THE NEEDY

An opportunity to show genuine Christian spirit without cost is offered to the people of Portland on this Thanksgiving day. All that is asked is discarded clothes, especially children's

Last week there appeared at the office of the county relief board a woman with mix children, ranging in age from 8 months to 11 years. Her husband is an nate of the insune asylum, and the little woman is confronted with the thought of winter, and only the support which the county is able to give.

During the fall she has been receiving $15 a month from the county, and this has been increased for the winter, but even with the increase the little woman can use warm clothing, for clothing of six children is an expensive proposition.

The woman is Mrs. Frances Weiss of Bridal Veil, and the children composing her brood are four boys and two girls. The boys are 11 years old, twins 3 years old, and a baby 8 months old. The girls are 9 and 7 years old. Any clothing that can be made into clothes for the children or used by Mrs. Weiss will be forwarded to her if left with Henry D. Griffin, at the office of the county re-lief board in the courthouse. It need not be taken to the office, but if left with anyone on the main floor will reach Mr. Griffin.

PEOPLE SHOULD GUARD AGAINST APPENDICITIS

Portland people who have stomach and bowel trouble should guard against appendicitis by taking simple buckthern bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-i-ka, the German remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY because this simple mixture antisepticizes the digestive organs and draws off the impurities. The Young People's Christian Endeavor society of the First Congregational church at the regular meeting last Sunday night passed several resolutions condemning a local afternoon paper and commending the Y. M. C. A. for its splendid work. The resolutions are:

"Whereas, the Portland Daily News has made a scandalous attack upon the good name of the Young Men's Christian Association, one of our most henored and helpful institutions, in connection to exist in our city;

Letters of a Slim-Made Woman to Her Fat Sister

Sixth Letter: On the Slim-Made Man Who Found a Harmless Pat Remedy.

Dear Sis:—I can hardly wait to write you the news. Who of all people do you suppose I have seen?—"Fatty" Beare—you remember him—how he tagged me around at the beach last summer and how mortified I was—two 'fattys" together—and what a figure he cut in a bathing suit. It was his porpolse-like splashings and the faceous remarks people made about his "overflowing the ocean" that kept me out of the water. Well, sis, dear, I met him last night at Sadie's musicale and didn't know him, and he didn't know me—we had to be introduced. My, how he has changed—as much as I have—and how well-set up and handsome he looks since he became siim. He has the same "peachy" complexion, only more so, and I've promised to dine with him tonight and we've agreed to make it a "spread." Not like the "diet" dinners we had at the beach when I'd eat my crackers and he'd sip his tea and toast and we'd both envy the other diners and grow fatter and sessier on our slim diet. That was the the other diners and grow fatter and sassier on our slim diet. That was the only bond of sympathy we had then—but now—we have another bond.

in Portland by Piano Manufacturer's New Club Plan and Introductory Offer

Only the motive can explain the manufacturers' unheard of eccasion for selling the world-famed Gaylord pianos at $198. In older settled eastern states the word "Gaylord" is a household word for good planes. In Portland the fine old Gaylord is but little known because a distributing point for this section has only been recently established. The manufacturers realize that the best possible advertisement of their pianos is to get them into the homes. Every owner of a Gaylord piano talks of the beauty of design and sweetness of tone of "their piano," and the word Gaylord soon stands for plano perfection.

Here Is the Greatest Proposition Ever Submitted by Graves Music Co. Absolutely Limited to 100 Homes

The manufacturer's object in selling 100 planes at factory cost is to establish Gaylord superiority. At the end of sixty days each of the 100 members must write a letter of expression, ever their ewn signatures, telling exactly their opinion of the Gaylord plane and how it compares, in their estimation, with planes This offer 2s limited to

Out of town people should make remittance large enough to insure freight charges plus the first payment. Catalogue of styles and fluish will be mailed to select from. Thise club is positively limited by the manufacturer to 100 members, and the Graves Music company, distributors, will not agree to deliver to exceed 10 planos a day. Deliverles will be made in the order of purchase. No exceptions will be made for any one te this rule.

Superior Construction and Tonal Qualities of These Pianos

If you were an expert plane manufacturer with all the equipment of a million deliar plane factory at your command, and were building a plane for your own home, you would not be able to manufacture a better plane than the Gaylord. Every place of wood used in the construction of this plane is carefully selected and prepared to produce the sweetest tone effects.

The strings, feits, keys, in fact, every part of this piane, is fully warranted by the manufacturer. From high C down to the lowest bass note on the keyboard, every tone is full, rich, pure and sweet. We wish to urge as many as possible to visit our salesroom during the morning. Remember, no dues, no red tape. Select your piano, pay $1.00 or more down and agree to pay the balance of the purchase price in easy weekly or monthlyt installments, and we deliver the plane before nightfall.

Does Not Want to Mislead the Public.

In an interview with one of the representatives of The Journal, Mr. Abendroth said: The attitude of myself and every one of the representative jewelers of the city is that it is almost unethical for a jeweler to hold a sale, and if he is compelled by circumstances to conduct a sale the greatest of cars must be exercised with everything that is said and done—inasmuch as gold and silver are our standards of exchange and have a standard fixed value below which none can offer them without losing money. Says Mr. Abendroth:

Saturday morning I am going to cut every article in my store as much as it will stand, "As it is known" I am going to conduct a sale, but I wish I could call it by some other name. The new building about to be erected on this block forces myself, along with other tenants, to move. I would like to dispose of every piece of jewelry in the store before I move into my new location, and you can tell the readers of The Journal that I am going to offer Jewelry, properly marked, at rock bottom prices. Nothing will be given away. No cheap or shoddy goods will be brought in to sell, but everything will be conducted along conservative lines that will tend to make me new friends and patrons for my new store in the Sherman-Clay Plano store, op-posite the Postoffice. My sale will take place at my present quarters, 243 Washington, near the corner of Seventh.
