

COBB EARNS OVER $40 FOR A BINGLE

In Last Three Seasons Champion Batsman Has Made Some Money.

Every time Ty Cobb made a base hit during the season of 1912 he earned $25.65. In 1910 he was paid at the rate of $45.25 per safety, while in 1911 he made $25.25 per safety, fielding and base running not being considered in figuring his compensation.

Does he pay to play baseball? Tyrus Raymond has been drawing a salary of $4900 for his services each of the last three years. Now Ty's contract is run out and he wants another calling for $6000 more, and probably will get it, as without him the Tigers would draw very small crowds.

In the last three years Ty has made 451 hits, while his salary for the same length of time was $27,000. If Cobb were getting paid for making hits alone, he would have received more than $40 for each safety, which is some payment for swinging a bat and hitting the ball where they ain't.

If Cobb were getting paid for the same length of time was $27,000. If Cobb were getting paid for making hits alone, he would have received more than $40 for each safety, which is some payment for swinging a bat and hitting the ball where they ain't.

The demon Tiger outfielder started his professional baseball career in 1904 when he played the start of the season for the Anniston, Ga., team and swatted .370. He then went to Augusta, where he stayed until the windup of 1905, when he went to the Tigers, and with which team he has done such wonderful work with the bat.

He batted .300 his first year in the majors and then just kept getting better all the time. His best year with the bat was in 1911, when he led the league with .420. Last season he hit .410 and also topped the batters in the Big League organization. The demon Tiger has led the league in hitting the last six years straight. His grand average since he has been playing baseball is .361.

Cobb's batting and fielding marks since he started playing professional baseball:

Toronto's New Hockey Arena.

Toronto, Ont., Dec. 2.—Toronto's new hockey arena, possessing the largest indoor ice surface on the American continent, is completed in every detail and will be opened to the public this week. The building is a fireproof structure of stone, steel and concrete. Seating accommodations will be provided for 8000 spectators. The building will be available not only for ice sports but for horse and automobile shows and similar exhibitions.

May Sell New York Giants.

New York, Dec. 2.—That the heirs of the late John T. Bush, president of the New York Giants, may sell the club is the current report here today. Edward T. Tipton, it is said, has opened negotiations for the purchase of the club. Associated with Tipton in the deal is C. K. G. Billings, horseman of Lexington, Ky.

SUTTON ONLY STAR TO GET EVERY VOTE

Blackwell Polls as Many for All-Northwest but They Are Split.

Only one football player in the northwest was the unanimous choice for his position on the vote of seven critics and football coaches in the northwest this season, and that was Wayne Sutton, the great Washington end. Another player was given seven votes and that was Blackwell, the crack halfback of the Oregon Agricultural college, but the other voters, Bender of Washington state, placed him at fullback, which marred his record.

Young, the sensational first year quarterback of Coach Doble's crew, polled six votes, the only dissenting one being Colver of Spokane, who selected Perkins of Idaho as the best pivot. Bailey of Oregon was given six votes, but they were divided equally between tackle and guard. Parsons, the young University of Oregon half, polled five votes, and so did Kellogg, the O. A. C. end. Niles of Whitman drew five for the fullback position, and Bliss of Washington four for tackle and one for guard. The vote for tackle was even between the two Washingtonians, Bliss and Patton. This greatest divergence of opinion was on the guards.

The Real Team.

The composite All-Northwest team reads like this:
Ends—Sutton and Kellogg.
Tackles—Bliss and Patton.
Guards—Bailey and Fenton.
Center—Presley.
Quarter—Young.
Halves—Blackwell and Parsons.
Fullback—Niles.

The selections made were as follows:
Roosevelt University, Oregonian.
Ends—Sutton, Washington; Tyrer, Washington state.
Tackles—Patton, Washington; Bailey, Oregon.
Guards—Kensison, Idaho; Fenton, Oregon.
Center—Christman, Oregon Aggies.
Quarter—Young, Washington.
Halves—Blackwell, Oregon Aggies; Blomquist, Whitman.
Fullback—Niles, Whitman.
George Varnell in Spokane Chronicle.
Ends—Kellogg, Oregon Aggies; Sutton, Washington.
Tackles—Bliss and Patton, University of Washington.
Guards—J. Harter, Washington State; Bailey, Oregon.
Center—G. Harter, Washington State.
Quarter—Young, Washington.
Halves—Blackwell, Oregon Aggies; Parsons, Oregon.
Fullback—Niles, Whitman.
J. Newton Colver in Spokesman-Review.
Ends—Kellogg, Oregon Aggies; Sutton, Washington.
Tackles—Bliss, Washington; Neil, Whitman.
Guards—Fenton, Oregon; Bailey, Oregon.
Center—Presley, Washington.
Quarter—Parkins, Idaho.
Halves—Blackwell, Oregon Aggies; Parsons, Oregon.
Fullback—Niles, Whitman.
R. A. Cronin in Journal.
Ends—Sutton, Washington; Kellogg, Oregon Aggies.
Tackles—Bailey, Oregon; May, Oregon Aggies.
Center—G. Harter, Washington State.

JIM FLYNN SECRETLY MARRIED TO ACTRESS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, Dec. 2.—Jim Flynn, aspirant for the white heavyweight title, is the happiest mitt welder today, for in addition to receiving the congratulations of his friends on his recent victory over Finner's quieted by the Miss Fannie Vedder, Jim is in receipt of a telegram announcing that his bride is coming to Los Angeles to give him encouragement while he trains for his bout December 10 with Luther McCarty.

The fighter announced that he was secretly married in Hoboken, N. J., October 13, to Miss Vedder, who is a burlesque star.

"Old married man stuff for me hereafter," Flynn explained. "I sure will win McCarty's heavyweight belt with that little girl to help me."

Multnomah Basketball Games.

The basketball games of the Multnomah league were close and exciting yesterday. In the first game O'Hanlon's team defeated Welch's five by the score of 12 to 11. Dent's team captured the game from Finner's quintet by the score of 10 to 8. Last Friday night Bert Allen's crew defeated Massey's team 13 to 9.

MULTNOMAH BILLIARD TOURNAMENT OPENED

Play in the Multnomah club handicap tournament will begin tonight.

The winners of each class, with a rearranged handicap, will play for the championship, and the gold medal cup offered by Dr. A. D. Walker.

The players and their handicaps are:
First class, 100 points—Dudley R. Clarke, W. M. Dennis, K. Fenton, C. R. Hansen Jr., A. W. Morris and W. S. Walter.
Second class, 75 points—H. F. Currier (60), H. H. Hurn, P. B. Myers, J. K. Mahoney (40), J. B. O'Shea and J. C. Prigmore (40).

Third class, 50 points—E. E. Young, H. D. Pugh, R. W. Clagett, T. H. Cleland, L. F. Buck and E. K. Burton.
Fourth class, 25 points—Graham Glass Jr., H. T. Javonord, G. R. Knight, Edward Morris, W. P. Smith and Dr. A. D. Walker.

Fifth class, 10 points—J. B. Edgar, J. J. Cahalan, A. A. Murphy, J. F. Reilly, G. R. Scharpf and P. C. Warren.

Wolgate Willing to Box Rivers.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, Dec. 2.—Ad Wolgate is willing to meet Joe Rivers at Vernon February 22. The former champion is in Los Angeles today, and his first declaration, after explaining his defeat by Ritchie, was to announce his willingness to meet the Mexican. He will confer with McCarey tonight.

Wolgate will remain here until time to return to San Francisco to condition himself for his New Year's day match there. His probable opponent being Frankie Burns.

Corbett Admires Mike Gibbons.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, Dec. 2.—"Mike Gibbons is the greatest middleweight fighter I have ever seen."

This was the tribute paid to the St. Paul boxer here today by James J. Corbett, former heavyweight champion, who predicted that Gibbons would beat Eddie McGeorty of Oshkosh when the pair meet here Wednesday night.

Others Think Same Way.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Dec. 2.—Prediction that he would be lightweight champion of the world within a year was made here today by Jack Britton. "I'm not bragging," said Jack, "but I can lick Ritchie any time we step into the ring."

Minor Football Games

A place kick by "Mush" Mumford in the third quarter netted the Holiday Athletic club a victory over the Columbus club eleven yesterday afternoon, 8 to 0. The contest was played on a very slippery field and many fumbles were made in the shadows of the goal posts.

Holladay's line, reinforced by an Oregon City player, held like a stone wall. Duerer, a McLoughlin club man, was the only Columbus club player who could break through the line with any success.

Humphrey, Holladay's quarterback, was the star of the game. He made a 15 yard run in the second quarter, which was the longest run of the game. Campion, Cummings and Donaldson played best for the Columbus club eleven.

The fast Oregon City team, which is coached by "Sap" Latourette, will make its first appearance on the local field Sunday afternoon, against the Columbus club eleven. Most of the Oregon City players witnessed yesterday's game on the Columbus club field to get an idea of the Columbus attack.

The Albina and McLoughlin teams of the Archer-Wiggins league claim victories over the Watkins and South Portland teams, respectively, because of the failure of the latter to appear on scheduled grounds.

The Mohawk-Lents game will be protested at the next league meeting. The game ended with the score of 13 to 7 in favor of Lents, but Manager Crowe of the Mohawks claimed the center carried the ball over the goal line, making the touchdown illegal.

BASKETBALL GETS UNIVERSITY PLAY

Varsity Expects to Get Good Material From Intra-Collegiate Games.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., Dec. 2.—Several weeks will elapse between the close of football season and the opening of basketball practice. During the interim interclass and interfraternity basketball will flourish. These intracollegiate games will serve as the regular practice and from the stars the material for the varsity team will be taken.

Of last year's team but one man, Captain Jamison, all-northwest forward, is not on hand. To fill his vacancy is a host of preparatory material, some of which is of the first class order. Thus the competition in the coming games will be of the liveliest order.

When practice is called five wearers of the basketball "O" will report. These are Captain Simms, guard; Bradshaw, guard; Fenton, center; Walker, forward; and Rader, forward. The latter was a first team recruit last year from the second team. Other members of the 1911 second team available are Briedwell, Vesper, Parsons, Brooks and Stevenson.

Bill Hayward, who for the past three winter years has turned out champion or near champion teams, will again coach the squad. Assisting him will be Ed Shockley, well known in Portland basketball circles, who is now assistant athletic director at the university.

In the meantime, not waiting for the close of the football season, the co-eds have made interarsity basketball the all absorbing talk of the campus. The series is well along toward the exciting part where teams are eliminated, and the race narrows. The Gamma Phi Beta and Lambda Theta teams have been eliminated while the Kappa Alpha Theta, winner of the cup last year, stands at the head, but hard pressed by all three of the other remaining teams.

More girls are interested in basketball than ever before at the university.

SILVERTON TOSSESS BEAT AMICUS QUINTET

Silverton, Or., Dec. 2.—The Silverton Commercial club five won the second basketball game of the season over the Amicus club of Portland, Saturday evening. It was the prettiest exhibition as well as the most hotly contested game ever witnessed on the local floor.

At the close of the first half the score was even, each team having 10 points to its credit. During the final half the playing was fast and furious, each side being determined to win if possible, and when time was called the score stood Silverton 26, Amicus 25. Another game has been arranged for Friday night, December 6, to be played in this city with the O. A. C. five. Manager Earl Wood has issued a challenge to any team in the state.

FENNER AND COOK ARE WINNERS AT BOWLING

In the two-man team tournament at the Saratoga alleys yesterday afternoon, Fenner and Cook captured first prize with the score of 1925. Arens and C. Kelly won second prize, having the score of 1919.

The scores of all teams are:
Fenner and Cook, 1925; Arens and Kelly, 1919; Bishop and G. Kelly, 1831; Arens and Baker, 1831; Probst and Hauser, 1832; Leap and Heath, 1780; Melvin and Osterhaut, 1787; Anderson and Goldsmith, 1754; Moore and Napier, 1743; Franklin and O'Donnell, 1717; and Bethek and Myers, 1693.

KOJI YAMADA TO PLAY BILLIARDS IN PORTLAND

Koji Yamada, the Japanese billiard expert, will likely play in Portland sometime during this season. Yamada is playing exhibition games in the east with Hopps and Slosson, and after playing in Pittsburgh and Chicago will start for the coast, playing exhibition games in all large cities.

Yamada won third money in the world's championship billiard tournament, and was the only player to defeat Champion Hoppe.

WHITE HOPE TERM PASSE IN A MONTH

Tom McCarey's Elimination Contest at Vernon Will Give Over Champion.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 2.—In the course of the next four weeks the identity of the world's best white heavy-weight boxer will have been established and the term "White Hope" dismissed from all discussion.

The clearing up of the situation will take place in the Vernon ring. Here, in active training are Jim Flynn of Pueblo, Colo., and Luther McCarty of Goose Grade, Neb. Riding across the continent at the expense of Promoter Tom McCarey comes Al Palser of New York, accompanied by Manager Tom O'Rourke and a sparring partner guaranteed to live through camp training.

First Bout December 10.

Flynn and McCarty meet in a scheduled 20-round affair before the Pacific Athletic club at Vernon on the night of December 10. The winner, providing he is still strong of limb and body, will entertain Palser in the same arena on the afternoon of New Year's day.

This will finish the heavy-weight roundup so far as the Los Angeles promoter is concerned. To the survivor will be given the McCarey belt and it is some expensive gridle, and permission to go forth and set the world on fire.

"I must ask the winner never to allow the belt to be contested for by a negro," says McCarey.

"My sole idea in starting this thing was to determine which of three men,

CHICAGO ELEVEN MAY COME DEC. 25

Easterners Want Three Games and $2500 Guarantee for Western Trip.

It is said to be reasonably certain that the Wendell Phillips high school team of Chicago will play on the local field during the Christmas vacation. The Chicago school wants a $2500 guarantee for three games and it is said games in Spokane, Portland and Eugene or Astoria would be able to draw enough people to give the Windy City scholastics their guarantee.

The game played in Spokane Thanksgiving day netted each school close to $550 and the Washington-Lincoln game played here on a Friday afternoon netted each school about $230.

If a game can not be arranged with Eugene or Astoria, the Boise high school would no doubt play the Chicago eleven. Boise is supporting its team as the northwestern champions and would no doubt jump at the chance to play the Chicago eleven.

The game here would be an excellent game for Christmas day, as no other big contest is scheduled for that day.

Several of the players of the Washington team are in favor of the game, and it would no doubt be as great a drawing card as the Oak Park-Washington game of two years ago.

The Washington high school has received a number of telegraphic challenges, but the only one it will consider is the game with the Chicago team. Definite plans for the games are expected within a couple of days.

FORMER FOOTBALLISTS TO PLAY RICHLAND TEAM

(Special to The Journal.)
White Bluffs, Wash., Dec. 2.—Several old football stars, now following the peaceful occupation of fruit farming in the valley of the White Bluffs country, have accepted a challenge of the Richland football team for a game on the White Bluffs grounds about Christmas time. Among the players here are McCord Taylor, former captain of the University of Kentucky eleven; Winfield Shaw, fullback of the famous old Hogue, Wash., team in its palmy days; Robert W. MacDonnell, tackle on the champion Memphis, Tenn. college team; James E. Sells, formerly a quarter on the Seattle high, and other players of equal experience in other strong line-ups. Practice begins Monday, and the forthcoming contest has aroused the entire country from Richland north 50 miles to the head of the valley above White Bluffs.
