ARCHBALD'S TRIAL ON IMPEACHMENT CHARGES IS BEGUN

United States Senate Meets, Agrees Upon Rules of Procedure in Hearing; Jurist Is Ninth to Be Tried.

CHARGE JUDGE USED HIS OFFICE FOR OWN PROFIT

Indictment of Member of the Court of Commerce Has 13 Articles.

Judge Robert W. Archbald.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, Dec. 3.—The United States senate at 12:30 p. m. today received into a high court of impeachment to try Robert W. Archbald, associate justice of the federal court of commerce on charges of "misbehavior and misdemeanors" in office.

G. O. P. LOSES RIGHT OF HAVING OFFICIALS ON ELECTION BOARDS

As Result of Last Election Republicans Also Must Take Third Place on Ballot.

For the next four years at least, there will be no Republican election clerks and judges in Oregon. This announcement was made this morning by Deputy City Auditor C. F. Wiegand, after he had examined the state election laws preliminary to sending a notification to the city council to appoint officials for city primary and general elections next year.

According to the particular section of the state law governing the appointment of election officials these must be selected from members of the two political parties "that cast the two highest number of votes for presidential electors at the last preceding presidential election, and no more than two judges and two clerks on any one election board shall be members of the same political party."

At the coming primary election next May, therefore, only Democrats and Progressives will be included on the election boards. There will be two Democratic judges and two Democratic clerks and one Progressive judge and one Progressive clerk on each board of six.

Furthermore the Democrats will have first place on the ballot and the Progressives will have second place. The Republican candidates will have to be content with third place, just ahead of the Prohibitionists and Socialists. Such is the strange turn of affairs brought about by the great split in the G. O. P. Theodore Roosevelt and the resultant ascendancy of the party of Thomas Jefferson.

AUSTRIA HAS WAR DIVISION READY TO MOVE INTO SERBIA

Russia Prepares Army of Half Million in Poland to Check Any Move Her Enemies May Make; Hostility Displayed.

GREECE DELAYS SIGNING THE PEACE PROTOCOL

Balkan States Refuse to Act Without Her and Armistice May Fail.

(United Press Leased Wire.) London, Dec. 3.—While Turkey and the Balkan allies hesitate on the brink of an armistice today with a growing probability that no agreement will be reached, London is far more gravely concerned over the increasing danger that Europe is to be involved in war over a division of the spoils to be taken from the sultan.

Sharp upon Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg's jingo speech in the German reichstag, Austria, the kaiser's ally, is quoted as threatening that a division of her forces mobilized at Semlin, Hungary, will move at once into Serbia if, as is expected, Consul Edl reports that Serbian troops maltreated or insulted Austrians after the fall of Pribram.

The refusal of the other Balkan states to act without Greece and the evident determination that they stand together, is admitted to have greatly strengthened Serbia's hand. It practically disposed of reports that friction existed between the little kingdoms which have broken Turkey's power in Europe, and makes it more than probable that in a general convulsion Russia and Serbia could depend on their active support against Germany, Austria, Italy and Roumania.

MRS. PENNOYER'S TRIP TO EUROPE IN SEARCH OF HEALTH WAS VAIN

Widow of Former Governor and Mayor Died in Paris Yesterday After Long Illness

Mrs. Mary A. Pennoyer, widow of the late Sylvester Pennoyer, governor of Oregon from 1886 to 1894, and mayor of Portland from 1896 to 1898, died yesterday in Paris. Word of her death was received by relatives in Portland this morning. Death followed a long illness, and it was in search of health that Mrs. Pennoyer, with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Russell, went to Europe.

Mrs. Pennoyer was 75 years of age, having attained that age on August 28, 1912, just two years after she had left Portland for Europe. She was a pioneer of Oregon, having crossed the plains from St. Joseph, Mo., in the fall of 1854, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Payne. On this long trip across the plains, Mrs. Pennoyer suffered the loss of her first husband, Frank Allen. Two years later, in March, 1856, she married Sylvester Pennoyer. Five children were born to them, but only the daughter, who was with her in Paris, survived her.

During her lifetime, Mrs. Pennoyer lived a very quiet life, especially after the death of her husband. She was noted for her liberal charities, but was not affiliated with any social or charitable institution. She was a member of the Episcopal church.

No arrangements have yet been made as to the funeral, as only the bare news of her death has yet been received here. It is believed, however, that the body will be returned to Portland for interment.

Gladstone Women Run Election Without Asking a Question Not a Hitch Mars City Poll Conducted by Fair Officials

The top picture is that of the Gladstone, Or., election board, composed entirely of women. From left to right the five women of the board are: Miss Iva M. Harrington, judge, and first woman to vote; Miss Pearl Harrington (front) clerk; Mrs. Stella McGeechie, chairman; Mrs. Thomas Burke, judge, and Miss Adah Hulbert, clerk. Standing is Mrs. H. O. Paddock, a voter, and to her right, in order, are J. J. Burgess, 93 years old, oldest voter, and W. R. U'Ren, father of W. B. U'Ren. The photograph to lower left is that of Mrs. Minda Church, elected city treasurer of Gladstone. On lower right is Miss Rose Cave, first woman voter in Hillsboro, Or.

AGREEMENT ON EAST SIDE TERMINALS IS MADE AND HILL WORK WILL START

Approximately $3,000,000 Will Be Spent at Once in the Construction of Warehouses and in Laying of Industrial Tracks, if City Council Approves the Final Contract as Presented by Railroad Companies.

Adjustment of the east side terminal problem was effected this morning between the Hill and Harriman interests and tomorrow the matter will come before the city council for final action. The railroad companies have signed an agreement which it was stated at noon today is satisfactory to all concerned and drawn up so as to meet with the approval of Mayor Rushlight and the city council.

CHRISTOFFERSON WILL BUILD AEROPLANES AND TEACH OTHERS TO FLY

Aviation Romance Hero Embarks in More Substantial Business Than Giving Thrills

Silas Christofferson, the young man who has given Portland and Marshfield so many aviation thrills, and who recently capped an aviation romance with a honeymoon trip by aeroplane, has gone to San Francisco to enter the aeroplane manufacturing business and conduct a school of instruction for flyers there. He believes that at present there is a broader field for aviation in San Francisco than in Portland.

Christofferson has just incorporated under the laws of Oregon a company for the manufacture of aeroplanes, with a capital stock of $10,000. His associates are Ernest Hammer, for some time his partner here, and Harry Twitchell, formerly an automobile agent in Portland. An aeroplane "limousine," so called because it will have a body almost like that of a limousine car, designed to carry four passengers, is now under construction by Christofferson. He declares it will be even safer than the present hydro-aeroplanes, in which he has flown so often over Portland. It, too, will be equipped with the pontoon attachment by which it can rise or descend and float on the water.

Board Praises Behavior of Masculine Voters Who Chivalrously Took Off Hats and Refrained From Using Tobacco; More Like Society Event.

Women of the town of Gladstone, Or., a mile north of Oregon City and about 15 miles from Portland, ran the city election there yesterday. They not only elected a woman, Mrs. Minda Church, as city treasurer, by a majority of 25 votes over her man opponent, but an election board of five of Gladstone's most attractive young maidens and matrons was in entire charge of the election.

Mrs. Stella McGeechie presided over the election tables as chairman of the board, and handed the ballots to the voters. She was assisted by Mrs. Thomas Burke, third election judge, Miss Iva M. Harrington, second election judge, and at the ballot box and took the folded ballots and dropped them inside. Miss Adah Hulbert was first clerk and Miss Pearl Harrington second clerk.

WEST COMMISSIONS DAVIS AS JUDGE AND BLOCKS THE RECOUNT

Tazwell Now Must Adopt New Course if He Wishes to Continue Contest.

A serious obstacle was placed in the way of Judge Tazwell's plan to contest the election of George N. Davis to the circuit judgeship, when Davis yesterday went quietly to Salem and there received from Governor West a duly signed and sealed commission as circuit judge of Multnomah county.

This recognition by the governor of the official count without contest will make it necessary for Tazwell, if he continues the contest, to direct it, not toward a question as to who shall receive the commission, but for the revocation of the commission given.

JOHN B. SNEED IS ACQUITTED OF THE MURDER OF BOYCE

Texas Jury Frees Amarillo Millionaire of Blame for Shooting Down Aged Father of Man Who Took Mrs. Sneed.

MUST STAND TRIAL FOR SHOOTING AL BOYCE JR.

In First Trial Jury Disagreed; Second Was Out but Few Hours.

Deaths that have followed in the wake of the Sneed-Boyce slaying: 1. Captain A. G. Boyce, father of Al Boyce, the eloper, shot and killed by John Beal Sneed on January 13, 1912, as he was sitting in the lobby of a hotel at Amarillo, Texas. 2. Edward Throckmorton, son of a former governor of Texas and principal witness against John Beal Sneed, died after a mysterious two days' illness on February 1, 1912, claiming he was drugged. 3. Captain J. T. Sneed, father of John Beal Sneed, shot dead before the postoffice at Amarillo by E. C. Hilliard, a former employe, on March 8, 1912. Hilliard left a note stating that his act was one of revenge. 4. E. C. Hilliard, Sneed's former employe, who killed himself after murdering Sneed. 5. Al Boyce, who eloped with John Beal Sneed's wife. Boyce was shot and instantly killed by John Beal Sneed at Amarillo on September 14, 1911. 6. Sylvester S. Morris, a real estate man of Fort Worth, who was shot and killed on a street car by Detective Ben Bell because he resented Bell's slurring references to Mrs. Sneed.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Fort Worth, Texas, Dec. 3.—John B. Sneed, millionaire banker of Amarillo, was acquitted by a jury here today of the murder of Captain A. G. Boyce Sr., in a Fort Worth hotel. The jury retired last yesterday and returned its verdict at 8:30 o'clock this morning. Sneed must stand trial for the murder of Captain Boyce's son, A. G. Boyce Jr.

The Sneed-Boyce feud began with the elopement of Mrs. Sneed with the younger Boyce. Sneed shot down Boyce Sr. during a quarrel at the Metropolitan hotel here over the elopement. Several weeks later Sneed shot and killed Boyce Jr.

Judge Swaine instructed the jury that if it found the defendant guilty, it must bring in a verdict of either first or second degree murder. The acquittal indicates that the jury believed the unwritten law was justified in Sneed's case.

The jury in Sneed's first trial disagreed. Following the verdict today, Sneed's friends ignored the court and started a demonstration in the courtroom. Sneed will be tried in February for the murder of A. G. Boyce Jr. Sneed and his family will leave immediately for California, returning here in time for the trial in February. Mrs. Sneed, with whom A. G. Boyce Jr. eloped to Canada, expressed joy over her husband's acquittal.

JOHNSON GETS LICENSE TO MARRY WHITE GIRL WHOM HE ABDUCTED

Lucille Cameron, 18, Will Become Pugilist's Bride This Afternoon.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Dec. 3.—Clad in a fur coat, Jack Johnson, negro prizefighter, accompanied by his white valet, Joseph Levy, secured today a license to marry Lucille Cameron, the white girl with whose abduction he is charged.

Johnson gave his age as 34 and Miss Cameron's as 18. The pugilist was followed through the streets by a big crowd.

The wedding is scheduled to take place at the Johnson home here at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. Emerging from the courthouse the negro grinned and invited the newspaper men to attend the ceremony, promising them "bodies of champagne, a swell feed and a fine orchestra." He said the minister of an African Methodist church here would officiate at the wedding.

"RAGGING" IN PULPIT ILLUSTRATES SERMON

(United Press Leased Wire.) Minneapolis, Dec. 3.—Discussion was rife here today of the dramatic method used by the Rev. G. L. Morrill to illustrate his sermon, "Praise Him With the Dance," in engaging two chorus girls to do the "bunny hug," "jelly wobble," "turkey trot" and other "rag" dances in the pulpit of his church.

When the "coup de theatre" was over and while the congregation still gaped, the Rev. Morrill said: "I admit there is a decent dance, a dance helpful to the body, pleasant to the mind and harmless to the soul. But these 'rag' dances that you have just witnessed, set at all exaggerated, will make the best man, and he would be glad to introduce them to you."
