entry list for the sixth annual, Wash.; rse show, to be staged in school. Portland Ho Kramer's Riding school ring on Friday night, Saturday afternoon and Saturday with of this week, probably will reach close to 200. A compliation of the en-try statistics last night showed 163 nominations for the 26 classes, but addi-tional applications received this morning and more to come will bring the number near 200, a record for a saddle horse show in Portland and the north-West.

The largest class of the 26 division show is the green hunter, which shows 12 entries. Only two of the classes show entries of less than three, while many boast of from 8 to 10 equine performers Fingal, the new show horse of C. M. Weatherwax, the Aberdeen, Wash., lumberman, arrived in Portland this mornfrom Aberdeen. A number of equines from Vancouver Barracks are expected for the competitions, although the entries have not been received. Judge Coming Thursday.

Lieutenant Roscoe of Boise, presiding judge of the show, will be in Portland Thursday morning. Owners are working hard preparing their horses for the events while society is looking forward to the three performance show with keen interest.

DON'T LOOK OLD BEFORE YOUR TIME

A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color will no longer come out, but will start and hastre, is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from dis-celoring. Why spend money for cos-further than anything else to make or care for teeth to keep them from the coloring. Why spend money for cos-metics and creams to improve the com-plexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is easier to preserve the natural color and the today. You will hever regret it easier to preserve the natural color and the today.
