

The Christmas Store Helpful--Lipman, Wolfe & Co.

A Xmas Sale of Cut Glass

Important--Interesting--Economical

The Entire Show Room Exhibit of the Bergen Cut Glass Co.

Come to this sale if you are interested in cut glass. Examine every piece. Stroll around the many tables filled with glittering, sparkling, perfectly-cut pieces. Notice that every piece is marked with two prices. Take note of the fact that every piece offered in this sale is perfectly cut, of the finest quality. Made on the richest American blanks. Over ten thousand pieces involved in this offering. A collection greater than ever shown before in Portland.

—We laid our plans for securing the showroom samples of this famous cut glass house two months ago. We were told that under no circumstances would they arrive here before January. We knew at the prices they were to be sold for in January, that even then the sale would create the greatest interest.

—Think what it means now, TWO WEEKS BEFORE CHRISTMAS, to have the opportunity of selecting ANY PIECE OF CUT GLASS in our entire store AT DEEP REDUCTIONS. This is a sympathetic sale, and the prices on the Bergen cut glass were so low that we were forced to reduce OUR OWN STOCK.

$5.50 FLOWER BASKETS $3.00 —These baskets are made in the most graceful shapes imaginable and cut in the large pin wheel pattern, notched handle.	$10 BEDROOM LAMP $5.00 —These lamps stand 14 inches high and are fitted with bulb and 6 feet of white silk cord, all ready for use. Very pretty and useful.

Christmas Basket

—Every one of them is a SUGGESTION in itself of some personal touch which may be added to make it more dear to the one for whom it is intended. A bow of ribbon in some favorite color or a band woven in and out through the open meshes; lined with silk and fitted out with sewing or mending materials; or, again, piled high with fruit, flowers, nuts or Christmas confections, showing a little individual thought on the part of the donor. Appropriate for such purposes are all the fancy shapes, oblongs, boat, round, urn and jug, in the new imported Reedware from 25¢ to $2.00.

WASTE BASKETS
80c to $8.50

—A large assortment in reed, willow, palm and imported tapestry panels, in shapes octagonal, round and square, and designed in various colors.

COVERED SEWING BASKETS
$2.85 to $5.50

—These are of many different weaves, are covered and are lined with any color of quilted satin.

STANDING WORK BASKETS
$3.00 to $5.00

—These are in the new reedware in greens and browns, covered and uncovered, lined and unlined, and in diamond, octagonal and oblong shapes.

CLOTHES HAMPERS
$2.25 to $6.00

—In many cases these are far more convenient than a laundry bag, and in the fancy weaves with border designs are most artistic.

What? That Is the Christmas Question

Pottery

—This store has a million different answers for a million different personalities, and some of them are here.

—How unique is the collection of Holland pottery, made in Zudd!

—How exquisite are the colors and designs which the Dutch artisan has borrowed from his fellow craftsman in Egypt! It is one thing to purchase these wares in America, and it is quite another to go right up into the land of dykes and windmills and select the beautiful tankards, jugs, vases, jardinières and the most curious of candlesticks and hanging lanterns.

Brass

—Or, again, the wonderfully executed pieces in Damascus brass, jardinières and umbrella stands, hammered and hand-etched. Some question the possibility of hammering these, but when it is known that before the work is undertaken they are filled with tar, thus affording a semi-solid basis, all doubts are set aside.

—One taking an interest in Oriental customs will be attracted by a brass pot and basin, set in three pieces, to be passed before as well as after meat, the worthy forefather of our modern finger bowl.

—The lamps of this Damascus brass present the appearance of Oriental richness that is beyond compare. The shades are sawed out by hand in the most intricate of patterns, and are finished with graceful, harmonizing bead fringes. They are sent to America in parts, to be assembled here. Lighted with either white or red bulbs, they are equally attractive, and are in styles suitable for table, piano, mantel or hanging lamps in any room.
